

Fire Threatens Town of Pelham

U. S. REFUSAL NOT CONSIDERED FINAL WORD

FOREST FIRE BURNING OVER THREE MILE AREA APPROACHES PELHAM

Half of Town Out to Fight Blaze That Has Crept Within Half Mile of Town, With Wind Blowing to Carry It Toward Centre

The town of Pelham, N. H., is seriously threatened by a sweeping forest fire which is burning over a three mile area. With half of the town out fighting the blaze, which at 2 o'clock was less than one-half mile from the centre, it is believed that the progress of the flames can be checked before it reaches dwellings, despite the fact that a wind is blowing in the direction of the town.

At present there is little of value in the path of the flames, which are making rapid headway over a large area of underbrush. When the fire assumed a serious aspect this morning, additional forces were recruited from the town's people to help fight it. No outside aid has been asked as yet, but if the blaze continues at the present rate, help will be called.

PURCHASING AGENT FAVORS AWARD TO FRAMINGHAM COMPANY

Says That He Does Not Believe Satisfactory Asphalt Job Can Be Done for Price Lower Than That Quoted by That Concern---Present Discussion Wasting Lot of Valuable Time, Says Mr. Foye

Purchasing Agent Edward H. Foye said this morning that he favors awarding the 1922 sheet asphalt contract to the Framingham Construction company, despite the trouble and litigation which has gone on between that company and the city.

"If a mistake has been made it is not too late to correct it and I am willing to have you quote me when I say even now I am in favor of awarding the work to the Framingham company. I also intend to express my views to the public service board in this respect." This was the statement made to The Sun this morning when Mr. Foye was questioned with regard to what he thought of the present situation.

Agent Foye pointed to the fact that he had gone over figures with the Framingham company's representative.

PRINCIPAL COX IS REINSTATED

NEW BEDFORD, May 16.—By a vote of two to one, the Westport school committee this morning voted to reinstate H. Eugene Cox, ousted principal of the high school, whose dismissal occasioned the walking out of the great majority of the students yesterday.

"The kids went Cox and we are for the kids," asserted Loren Parks, member of the committee.

POLICE RAID HOUSE IN SHAW STREET TODAY

Home brew, moonshine and wine were found in profusion about noon today by officers of the liquor squad who raided a house at 129 Shaw street.

When the officers entered, nothing was in sight except a few bottles of home brew, but their suspicions were well founded and they started on a thorough search.

The result of the search revealed two stills, one of 30 and the other of 60 gallons capacity, a quart of "shine" in a 3-gallon jug, 117 quart bottles of brew and a quantity of wine and brew in various receptacles, bottles, jugs, and kegs.

SILVER ANNIVERSARY

Rt. Rev. Edward P. Allen Has Served 25 Years as Bishop of Mobile Diocese

Rt. Rev. Edward P. Allen, bishop of Mobile, Ala., and a native of Texas.

RT. REV. EDWARD P. ALLEN

Today is observing the 25th anniversary of his elevation to bishop of the Mobile diocese, the celebration having started with a solemn pontifical mass celebrated this morning at the Mobile cathedral by the distinguished prelate. During the day the church dignitary received numerous messages of felicitations and best wishes from clergymen and laymen throughout the country.

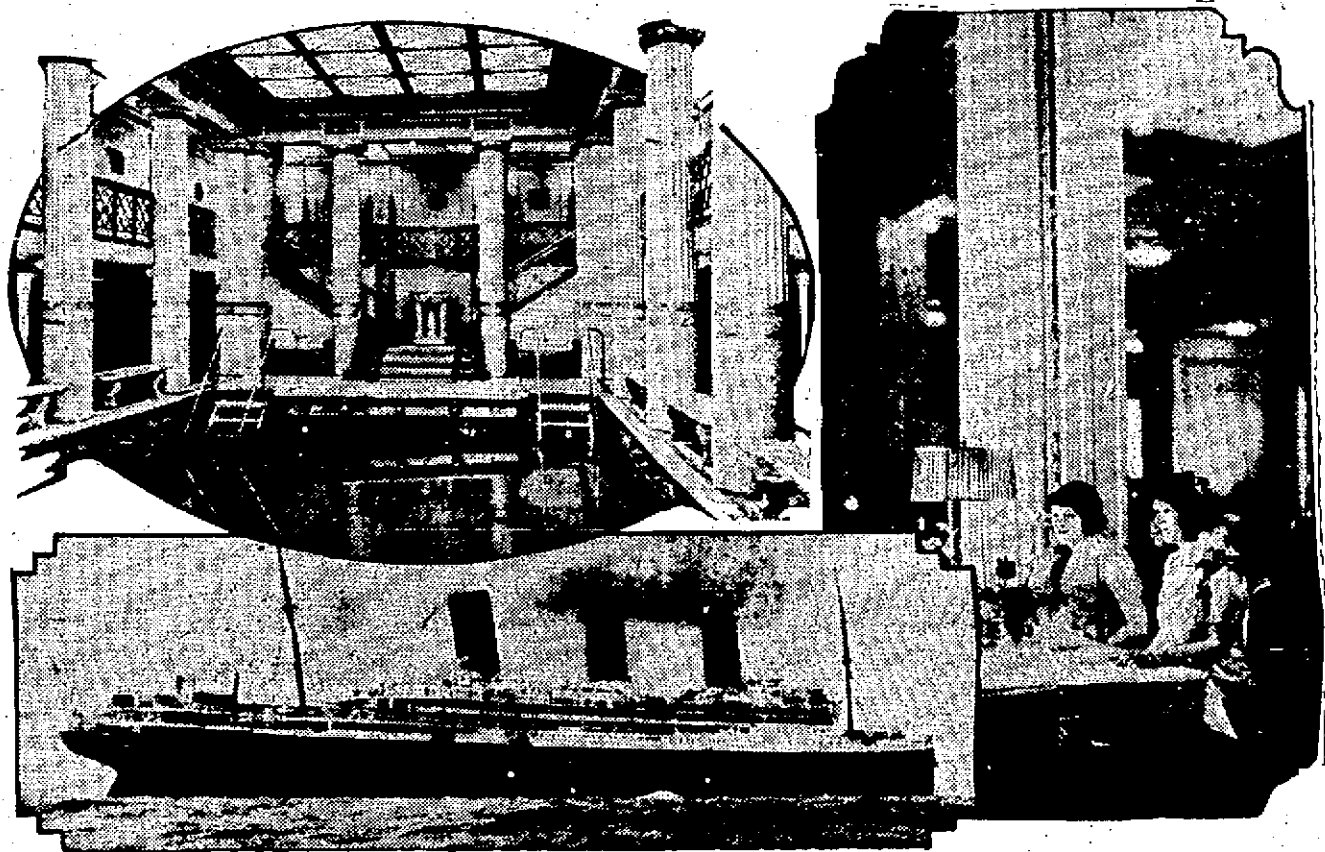

Bishop Allen studied for the priest-

Largest Liner Afloat Arrives Today

ELEGANCE DISTINGUISHES THE MAJESTIC

New Empress of the Seas Makes Triumphant Entry Into New York Harbor

Giant Liner Has Accommodations for More Than 4000 Passengers

Almost as Long as the Eiffel Tower, Highest Structure in the World, is Tall

NEW YORK, May 16.—The Majestic, largest steamship in the world, today completed her maiden voyage across the Atlantic.

Arriving from Southampton she dropped anchor at Quarantine, turned sidewise to the tide, almost bottled up the channel and they had to point her nose back toward Europe so that the Mauretania could pass on to sea.

SPECIFICATIONS OF MAJESTIC

Length, 956 feet.
Beam, 100 feet.
Depth of hull, 102 feet.
Size in tons, 56,000.
Draft of water, 35 feet.
Number of decks, 9.
Area of decks, 7½ acres.
Passenger capacity, 4100.
Engine horsepower, 100,000.
Fuel, oil.
Speed, 23 sea miles per hour.

The Majestic, which is of 56,000 tons displacement, is not only the largest, but probably the speediest ship afloat. She has a record of 25 knots an hour and her engines are still "stiff." When they get "limbered up" her officers and

LLOYD GEORGE STILL HOPES U. S. PERRY D. THOMPSON HAS DECLINED NOMINATION AS ASSESSOR

Says Declination Indicates Great American Interest in Russia's Economic Reconstruction---Reply Regarded as One Forming Basis for Further Correspondence---Genoa Conference Circles Disappointed

GENOA, May 16.—(By the Associated Press)—Prime Minister Lloyd George does not feel, it was indicated this afternoon, that the American refusal to participate in the commission to sit at The Hague on Russian affairs is her final word, as the document indicates great American interest in Russia's economic reconstruction and the reply is regarded as one forming a basis for further correspondence.

Former Mayor, Offered Position by Mayor George H. Brown, States That It Does Not Interest Him---Did Not Seek the Office But Considered It Upon Earnest Solicitation of Councilors and Business Men

Hon. Perry D. Thompson, former mayor, stated today that he had been offered a nomination by Mayor George H. Brown to a position on the board of assessors, but inasmuch as he had in no way sought the place and because it did not hold any great interest for him, he would not accept it.

A letter to this effect, expressing of course, his appreciation of Mayor Brown's willingness to place his name in nomination, will be forwarded today to the mayor by Mr. Thompson.

It has been generally known about the city for the past fortnight that the ex-mayor's name would be sent to the city council for confirmation if he would but say the word and also there was a well established belief that the council would immediately confirm him practically by a unanimous vote.

This latter statement is based upon the fact that there is little doubt men for such a post and readily that the former mayor has many personal friends in the council, men who would be only too glad of an opportunity to give him confirmation to any position he might seek, but as has been said, Mr. Thompson has not applied to be chosen for any office within the city government as now constituted.

While the former mayor never has said that he is through with politics, nevertheless, he has made it plain to several of his closest friends that for the time being, at least, he is perfectly satisfied to remain without the pale of local affairs of government.

At this time it might be said that the idea of electing Mr. Thompson as an assessor originated within the city council and was taken up with a great deal of interest by several local business men. When the matter was broached to Mayor Brown he coincided with the belief that the former chief executive would make an admirable man for such a post and readily agreed to nominate him.

KILL ANTI-PRIMARY BILL

House Against Conventions

—Citizen Preference Measure Amended

BOSTON, May 16.—By an overwhelming vote of the House of Representatives yesterday refused to order a third reading of the bill to provide for the nomination by political party conventions of candidates for secretary of state, state treasurer, state auditor and attorney general. The measure had been submitted in the upper branch for an adverse committee report.

Mr. Burr of Boston, who announced himself as a candidate for the republican nomination for state auditor, thought there should be a return to the convention system "but not to the old style of convention." He favored some provision "to prevent the control of conventions by politicians."

Mr. Silbert of Boston characterized the bill as the "worst sort of hybrid ever brought before the house." He believed the people would resent taking the right to nominate their candidate for attorney general.

"If there had been a convention nomination of the attorney general two years ago," he said, "the state house might have been for sale at the present time."

Speaker Young Breaks Tie

Speaker B. Loring Young cast his first rollcall vote of the year on a contested matter when he voted in favor of an amendment to the bill providing that in the awarding of contracts for public works, preference shall be given citizens of the United States. The amendment provides that the law shall not apply in cases where the alien bids are lower than those of citizens. The rollcall vote was 36 to 26, which meant the defeat of the amendment. The speaker then requested his name to be called and voted "yes."

The debate was opened by Mr. Hefernan of Brighton, who asserted the ways and means committee had reported the amendment in order to "kill the bill."

Mr. Shattuck of Boston said that the amendment ought to be adopted as a protection to the public in getting its work done at the lowest fair rates. Mr. Harrington of Fall River said the amendment "would nullify the bill altogether."

Mr. Mendum of Woburn said that there is a question of the practical operation of the bill. Unless the amendment is adopted the bill will be unworkable, he declared.

After the bill had been amended, as stated above, it was ordered to a third reading.

Civil Service Bill Referred

Mr. Pond of Greenfield asked the house to reject the recommendations of the committee on counties that the bill which relates to appointments, suspensions and removals in the civil service ought not to pass. If the recommendation were rejected, he said, he should move that the bill be referred to the next annual session. By voice vote the house refused to reject the bill, and it was referred to the next annual session.

Under suspension of the rules, after explanation of Mr. Pond of Greenfield, the house, without debate or opposition, accepted in concurrence the report of the conference committee on the bill for giving preference in the civil service to disabled veterans.

The joint committee on rules reported an order that the attorney general authorize and requested to bring suit in behalf of the state in his discretion, in such court as he may see fit, to determine the constitutionality of the Sheppard-Towner act for aid to mothers, for the sake of protecting the rights of the commonwealth and of its citizens. The order was adopted.

Under suspension of the rules the house admitted the petition of Walter C. Kellogg for revival of the corporate powers of the Berkshire Animal Rescue league.

CHAS. W. MORSE

GIVES $5000 BAIL

PORTLAND, Me., May 16.—Charles W. Morse of Bath gave $5000 bail yesterday before United States Commissioner Chapman for his appearance May 26 to show cause why he should not be compelled to appear in the United States district court in New York city to answer to an indictment alleging conspiracy. Unless ordered to return by the United States district court here, Mr. Morse will be immune from pleading to this indictment so long as he remains outside the jurisdiction of the New York court.

Rupert M. Mueh of Augusta, clerk of several of the Morse corporations, was a respondent also on a like charge. His case was disposed of in the same way. Miss Jennie R. Morse of Bath furnished bail for her brother and Mr. Mueh, being credited with ownership of the Morse mansion, assessed at $13,000.

District Attorney Merrill, on request from New York, issued a complaint from indictment attached, seeking Mr. Morse's appearance here yesterday. Continuance was asked by A. S. Littlefield, counsel for the respondents particularly because of a similar case against one of Mr. Morse's sons, pending in Boston, and to be heard within a few days. It is said that a second continuance here may be sought, to carry the hearing forward until May 31.

Mr. Morse and his sister motored from Bath, 40 miles, to appear here yesterday. The proceedings did not last more than 10 minutes.

ATTEMPT TO REVIVE INTEREST IN SCOUTS

The Boy Scout reorganization movement got under way last night at a meeting of the committee in the chamber of commerce rooms. The mayors and several clergymen were in attendance together with more than thirty interested scout workers. The officers elected were: President, C. D. A. Grasse; secretary, Frank Proctor; and treasurer, C. F. Langley. W. E. Brown, New England field executive of the Boy Scouts, presided and outlined the purpose of the meeting.

The speakers laid special stress on the fact that the present day Boy Scout movement is by far the best instrument in the formation of a boy's character.

Mayor Brown, in the course of his interesting address, pledged himself wholeheartedly to do all in his power to further the interest of the movement and suggested that a tag day be held to help finance the adopted plans. An executive committee, with authority to start as soon as possible on a membership drive, was appointed. Experienced accountants and assistant scout masters will constitute another committee.

MOTHER OF FIVE CHILDREN SENTENCED

MANCHESTER, N. H., May 16.—Mrs. Katherine Marston, the woman burglar who was arrested in January, after thefts from 25 or more apartment houses here was sentenced to serve five or seven years in state prison by the superior court yesterday. Mrs. Marston, the mother of five children, was unsuspected of the long series of breaks until a $5 gold piece stolen at one house was traced to her.

DANTE'S "INFERNO" TOO REALISTIC

HACKENSACK, N. J., May 16.—Dante's "Inferno" was blamed by fire marshals yesterday for a fire which damaged the Royal Theatre here Saturday night. A film version of the hell scenes became overheated while being run through the projecting machine and exploded, the movie operator told the marshals.

WORCESTER CITY COUNCIL FOR BEER AND WINE

WORCESTER, May 16.—The common council last night, by a vote of 17 to 8, adopted a resolution to be sent to congress, if the board of aldermen concurs, setting forth that in the opinion of the city council the Volstead act does not represent the sentiment of a majority of the people and should be modified to permit sale of light beers and wines.

The vote was taken after a long and heated debate and meanwhile the board of aldermen had adjourned. The resolution will go to the upper board.

Several ministers condemned from their pulpits the proposal for the city council to take action, and four churches adopted resolutions of protest.

Mayor Sullivan appointed, with the concurrence of the aldermen, three members of the park and recreation commission, Edward L. Moore, to succeed Col. John P. J. Herbert, resigned; George L. Jacques, to succeed Dr. Julius Garst, and former Mayor James Logan, to succeed himself, the terms of the two having expired.

SLEUTHS MAKE CLEAN-UP AT WORCESTER

WORCESTER, May 16.—Clarence W. Clark, prohibition enforcement officer recently assigned to the Worcester district, and a squad of assistants disguised as laboring men with a thirst that only liquor would quench, made a clean-up in Worcester yesterday, and, according to Mr. Clark, secured evidence that will result in several Worcester men being summoned before United States Commissioner Raymond B. Fletcher on charges of violating the Volstead act.

The squad worked from early morning until late in the afternoon and visited former barrooms, hotels and other places, about which information had been given the officers. Mr. Clark refused to tell how many would be summoned for violating the law.

WHAT NEXT FOR PEGGY?

News from Paris about Peggy Joyce has been rather meagre the past few days, but this may be the lull before a romantic storm. This is the latest studio portrait of one of the most romantic figures of this generation.

Isn't this feeling about tires pretty universal

MOST car-owners intend to have a car the rest of their lives. Economical operation is getting more and more fashionable.

How many men do you know who won't expect tires to do their share of the saving?

This is the year for tire-merchants to study their customers closely.

The makers of U. S. Royal Cords have recently stated what is the biggest opportunity to serve in the tire business.

U. S. Royal Cords cannot take care of all the people who want the upward quality in tires.

Nor do they claim a monopoly of all good tire making methods.

It is the things they refuse to leave undone that make U. S. Royal Cords the measure of all automobile tires.

Not only what is put in but what is never left out—that reveals the Royal Cord practical ideal.

So Royal Cord makers feel free to say again what they have said before—

Let us compete for higher and higher quality.

For more and more public confidence.

The makers of United States Tires urge upon everybody—manufacturer and dealer alike—a new kind of competition.

Let us compete for more and more public confidence.

Let us compete for higher and higher quality.

Let us compete for still more dependable public service.

Longest Liner Compared With Biggest Buildings

Officials of the line believe she will get at least four more knots speed and during her summer runs eclipse the transatlantic record now held by the Mauretania.

The Majestic, even as a German ship before the war, never made a passenger voyage. She was built in Germany as the Bismarck, laid up in Hamburg during the war, and then sold to England by the reparations commissions. She was converted to an oil burner, made more luxurious, and named the Majestic.

Loaded as she was today, the Majestic weighed close to 64,000 tons. With the passengers, crew, oil, stores, supplies, baggage and mail she becomes the heaviest boat in the cross-Atlantic service.

Accommodates 4100 Passengers

The liner can accommodate 4100 passengers—more than the largest hotel in New York can put up comfortably over night. There are 1245 staterooms, 772 of which are first class, most of them being at least as luxurious as the rooms in most exclusive hotels. In the second cabin are 212 staterooms; in the third 561. Every room has electric lights—15,000 bulbs are used.

Most of the huge liners now sailing the seas are built around the engines. That is they are built in such a way that dining rooms, quarters, cabins, even stairs, are made secondary to the engine room. On the Majestic it is the reverse. All stairs are on the side of the ship. The smokestacks and ventilators are built along the sides, connecting in air spaces at the top of the elevator shafts on the emergency boat decks. Thus the center of the ship is given over to parlors, dining rooms, dance floor, swimming pool and libraries, without obstructions.

There are eight kitchens on the Majestic and five special dining rooms. In the third class there is a purely orthodox "kosher" kitchen where such food can be prepared solely for the use of Jewish passengers. There is also a "la carte" dining room, a departure in service on the ocean.

TARIFF WILL GIVE WAY TO CIRCUS

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The tariff will give way tonight to the circus.

The senate met today an hour earlier than usual—10 a. m.—and will forego a night session so that its 20 pages may see the clowns, elephants and other performers under "the big tent" as the guests of Senator Ekins of West Virginia. Some senators also will be in the audience.

In announcing the changed hours for today, Senator McCumber of North Dakota said the night session might be abandoned depending upon the progress made in "the daylight hours" today.

This Will Help You Put On Pounds of Good Firm Flesh

And Round Out Face And Figure If You Are Weak, Thin Or Emaciated Due To Causes Explained Below

Get a FREE $1.00 Package of Genuine Yeast Vitamins Tablets Today as Explained Below—Try Them for Ten Days and Watch the Results

Science has at last shown how we sometimes grow weak, thin, and emaciated on an abundance of food (lacking in vitamins) while with a much smaller amount of food, rich in vitamins, we may quickly take on good firm flesh, increase in weight, energy and endurance, provided your blood contains sufficient quantity of oxygenated organic iron to enable your body to assimilate your food properly.

Without organic iron both food and vitamins are absolutely useless as your body cannot change lifeless inert food matter into living cells and tissue unless you have plenty of organic iron in your blood.

For centuries scientists tried in vain to make organic iron. At last the problem was solved so that you may now obtain pure organic iron like the iron in your blood from any drug store under the name of "Nuxated Iron."

It has been arranged to give to every purchaser of Nuxated Iron, who wishes to put on flesh or increase weight, a large regular $1.00 package of Genuine Yeast Vitamins Tablets absolutely free. Be sure to take only Nuxated Iron Yeast Vitamins Tablets with Nuxated Iron.

BUSINESS CONDITIONS IN PRIVATE CONFERENCE

Improving Here But Not in Europe, Says Head of U. S. Chamber of Commerce

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Although business conditions are on the mend in this country, the improvement throughout the world, and particularly in Europe since the war, has "not been sufficient to justify optimism as to the future," Joseph H. Diefes, president of the chamber of commerce of the United States, declared today in opening the tenth annual meeting of the chamber.

"When we look eastward," he said, "to the centre of modern civilization in Europe, to the markets of half our export trade, it is only the hopelessly ignorant or the incurably optimist who can work out any immediate assurance of comfort or stability."

"Hunger and its kinsman, Bolshevism, still stalk menacingly across the stage, wars and rumors of wars are yet in progress, boundaries are not fixed, governments are not secure, finances are in turmoil. Those things that we fought for, the defeat of militarism and the safety of our own and other free governments, have not yet been attained. How and when we shall aid, we who are most powerful to aid, in restoring stability in Europe is our own interest as well as theirs, are, I assert, the greatest and most immediate problems before American business today."

The convention also was addressed by Arthur Balfour, vice president of the Association of British Chambers of Commerce, who spoke on the economic and industrial situation of Europe.

"In England," he said, "and in some other countries, we have seen the worst, we are reaching economic conditions where trade on a proper basis will again be possible and I am very hopeful that before the end of the year trade will begin to flow in its normal channels."

FOR PEACE IN BELFAST

Sinn Fein Executive Calls Upon Dail to Establish Stable Government

BELFAST, May 15 (By the Associated Press).—The Sinn Fein executive here has adopted a resolution "in the name of the persecuted and terrorized minority in this city" calling upon the Dail Eireann in Dublin forthwith to establish a stable government.

"We are convinced that one of the best means to acquire peace in Belfast is to establish peace in the rest of Ireland," says the resolution. "Until the special police paid by the British government are disbanded there can be no peace. We condemn and deplore the rule of the gun, and call upon the dail to take whatever means necessary to substitute the rule of the people."

KILLED WHEN KEG OF ALCOHOL BLEW UP

NORFOLK, Va., May 15.—When a keg of grain alcohol, on which he was sitting while reading a newspaper in a Portsmouth drug store, exploded last night and hit the ceiling, James Parker, negro, was instantly killed. He was blown to the ceiling, and his body was broken.

The keg was undamaged except that the bottom side was blown out.

Identify Driver of Murder Car

since Terrence Lyons, acting lieutenant, and Thomas Clark, patrolman, were shot down a week ago after two buildings had been dynamited in the so-called labor war.

Identified as Slayers

Four men have been identified positively as the slayers of the policeman and three of them have confessed, the police said, while John Miller, bartender, owner of the motor car from which the shooting was done, has been identified as the driver through bloody fingerprints on the automobile door. Two men who rode with him were arrested when they applied for medical aid, the police said, one having a body wound and the other a bullet through the shoulder. Under questioning they broke down, police said, and one made a complete confession.

Attempt to Poison Miller

Miller himself confessed early today under constant questioning, the police said. He was removed secretly to an outlying police station because of an attempt to poison him. Police said one dish brought from a restaurant contained a quickly acting poison.

Through these alleged confessions and other information reaching the police and prosecutors, evidence has been obtained to connect the work of the bombers and killers with "Big Jim" Murphy, head of the Gasworkers and Street Sweepers' unions, former member of the state assembly and congressional secretary; "Con" Shea of the Theatrical Janitors' union and "Frenchy" Mader, president of the Chicago building trades council. These men, called by the police the "big three" with five others were held without bail under murder indictments in connection with Lyons and Clark's deaths. They have maintained innocence since their arrests a week ago.

Saloon Gang's Headquarters

Other incidents in the chain of evidence the police and prosecutors say they have unearthed are:

Establishing that the saloon of Jerry Moran was headquarters for a gang of professional gangsters, whose daily business was throwing bombs, slugging workers it was desired to intimidate and killing.

Finding the source of weapons, ammunition and dynamite the bombers and slayers used.

Establishing methods by which the gangsters were directed from "blotch up" as to the work to be done each night.

It developed that Miller, alleged driver of the murder car, probably will be charged with the murder of John Kukulski, stockyards labor official, who was shot in 1920. Despite his denial, he was connected with labor unions, the police said they learned he was interested in the Window Cleaners' union.

Delegations of Chile and Peru Meet to Discuss Tacna-Arica Question

WASHINGTON, May 16. (By the Associated Press).—Having declared before the world their whole-hearted purpose to reach a just basis of agreement, the delegation of Chile and Peru today began the preparation of a practical method of procedure for their conference on Tacna-Arica.

Unlike yesterday's opening session, when a brilliant gathering of officials witnessed the formal launching of the conference, today's meeting was convened in a private committee room of the Pan-American Union building. Only members of the two delegations and their advisers and secretaries, were present.

In all quarters it was predicted that it would be late in the week before exchanges developed on any of the major issues of the conference.

No questions of major importance were considered and the meeting lasted only a half hour.

BUDGET SUBMITTED TO FRENCH PARLIAMENT

PARIS, May 16 (By the Associated Press).—The French budget for 1923, submitted to parliament today by the government, provides for expenditures amounting to 23,180,000,000 francs.

Receipts amounting to only 19,255,000,000 francs, of which 1,250,000,000 would be derived from the sale of war stocks, takes on war profits and other temporary resources.

The budget provides that the deficit of 2,900,000,000 francs shall be raised through loans. This deficit represents approximate interest paid on money advanced by France for reparations expenses chargeable to Germany.

For expenses, the budget provides 1,600,000,000 francs less than in 1922. Both the war and navy provisions are increased over this year's budget, the former by 234,000,000 francs is provided and the latter by 225,000,000.

KENTUCKY DERBY WINNER MAY RACE IN CANADA

TORONTO, May 16.—Morvich, Kentucky Derby winner, may perform in Canada next fall, either at the Woodbine in Toronto or Kenilworth in Windsor.

Louis Block of Owen Sound, brother of Benjamin Block, who owns the three-year-old, said today to the Canadian Press:

"If there is a possible chance, Morvich will come to Canada, either in a match race or an exhibition. The proceeds will be donated to charitable institutions. I know that my brother will wage upwards of $100,000 on Morvich, but he can defeat any horse in the world in a match race, and also that he has a standing offer of $150,000 to sell the thoroughbred."

"As a colt Morvich was considered a lemon; although well bred but his present trainer saw great possibilities in him and advised my brother to purchase him, which he did, for $6000."

hood at Mt. St. Mary's college in Maryland and after his ordination was first assigned as a curate in one of the Framingham churches. After a few years he returned to Mt. St. Mary's college and was made vice president of the institution, later being elected to the position of president, and it was during the term as president of the college that he was consecrated as bishop of Mobile.

While on a visit to Lowell after his elevation, Bishop Allen officiated at the dedication of the Holy Trinity Polish Catholic church in High street and he also assisted other bishops in the dedication of the new St. Patrick's, St. Peter's and Sacred Heart churches. In 1903 he was tendered a public reception in Associate hall by members of Lowell council, Knights of Columbus.

Bishop Allen has visited in Lowell and his home town many times since, taking charge of the Mobile diocese and upon every visit made St. Peter's rectory his temporary stopping place. His Lowell and Tewksbury friends unite with the members of the Mobile diocese as well as with the clergy of the country in extending him their congratulations and best wishes.

Purchasing Agent Favors Award

regarding the cost of materials, labor and the like and said that he believed the figures quoted by the representative to be true.

"I think that this question should be settled right away," said the purchasing agent. "The weather is fine for the work now and we are losing a great deal of valuable time in discussing the matter. The Framingham company was ready to begin work at once and in fact I understand its representative went to Boston, following the opening of the bids, and brought a $5000 steam roller and hired an expert to operate it."

"This company has done a great deal of road work for the state but never has done anything for this city. It was anxious to get in here to show a sample of its work. It can point to work it has done satisfactorily."

When questioned on the matter this morning, Mayor Brown said that he was out to see the city get the best work and that it did not make any difference to him which company got the contract, if it was up to the public service board.

The mayor said that since the second bids for the sheet asphalt work had been opened the Thomas & Murphy Co. had reduced its bid from $2.05 per yard to $1.56 per yard. "This all goes to show that the work can be done at a cheaper rate than as originally quoted," said the mayor.

He added, "There is great competition among firms doing this kind of work. The fact remains that the city is going to get the work done cheaper than was believed from the figures quoted in the original bids."

Traffic Beacons to be Erected required for their support are put in place. The sites for the beacons, however, have not been selected.

These lights are specially constructed for traffic signals, and flash automatically 75 times a minute, night and day. It is considered cheaper to keep them lighted during the daytime, according to the assistant superintendent, as it would cost something to have a man on the job to put them out and the cost of operation is very low.

The four sites definitely decided upon are the junction of Lakewood avenue, Bridge and First streets, High and East Merrimack streets, Merrimack square and Tower's corner. Other places under consideration are Foxcroft square, which is considered a doubtful location because of lack of room; Davis sq. and the junction of Merrimack and Pawtucket streets. Several other places are felt to be in need of some such signal at night, but as there are but seven beacons the worst spots must be cared for first.

PERMITS TO USE PARKS FOR BASEBALL

Supt. Kernan of the park department announced today that he will issue all teams wishing to use city parks for baseball games, either Sunday or week days, would have to obtain permits from the park department.

In the past, some teams have obtained permits, while others have not. In the future all teams must obtain the permits from the superintendent's office. This does not apply to the Twilight Baseball league, as that organization has a standing permit.

The superintendent also announced that as soon as the work at Lincoln park was completed, men would be moved to Washington park to put it in proper condition for baseball games. A diamond will be marked out and backstop moved back to a point which will allow for a large diamond. It is expected that the Lincoln park work will be completed this week.

NEW LOW RECORD FOR AUSTRIAN KRONEN

VIENNA, May 16. (By the Associated Press).—The Austrian kronen made a new low record yesterday, when it fell to 10,000 to the dollar. Manufacturers and merchants bought freely which augurs further depreciation in the currency.

The drop is ascribed to the action of the government in agreeing to pay the civil servants a bonus of triple their salary, and adding to the allowances, the whole entailing the expenditure of many billions of kronen and threatening further to increase the cost of living.

proper nourishment and outdoor life. With this in view, Dr. Francis A. Finnegan, director of school hygiene, and Superintendent of the Park Department, called by the police the "big three" with five others were held without bail under murder indictments in connection with Lyons and Clark's deaths. They have maintained innocence since their arrests a week ago.

As Dr. Finnegan expressed it this morning: "The plan is merely in its first stages. I do not know whether or not it can be put through. It will be a great thing if we can accomplish it. There are such camps maintained in Boston, Cambridge, Worcester and Malden. If those places can have camps, I think we can maintain one. I like the arrangement of the Malden camp very much, and the manner in which it is conducted."

Supt. Kernan said that he thought the park department would be able to furnish a couple of instructors and also some playground equipment if the project materialized. Dr. Finnegan has been considering the proposition for several weeks now. When he broached the subject to Supt. Kernan he was assured that the park department would co-operate in any way within its jurisdiction to aid such a worthy work.

A great deal of work attends the organization of such a camp and other than the fact that quite a bit of effort is being expended, little can be said at present. If the project materializes, plans will develop and shape themselves rapidly.

NEVER KISSED A GIRL

Confessions by 75 Tech

Seniors—Answers to Questionnaires Announced

BOSTON, May 16.—Results of the questionnaire filled out by Technology seniors, the contents of which were made public yesterday, show that 60 per cent of the members of the class about to graduate do not expect to take up engineering after graduation. Most of them were emphatic in their answers to this question: "Never!" and "Hell, no," were popular ways of expressing their feelings.

The average salary expected on graduation is $1800. After five years the average Tech man expects to get $5000, and after 10 years, $10,000. One student answered: "After graduation, enough for one; after five years, not for two; after 10 years, enough for six."

In answer to the question, "Are you married?" 23 per cent of the replies were in the negative. Eleven per cent, however, admitted being engaged. The most popular answer to "Why not?" in these connections was: "No money, no honey."

About 75 out of the 650 men answering confessed that they never kissed a girl. One student updated his conquests: "Flappers, 2743; girls, 13."

The married and engaged men were emphatic in answer to the question, "How many have you kissed?" "One, so help me," answered an engaged man, expressing the attitude of all his brethren.

If we are to believe the questionnaires, practically every Tech man drinks, and drinks anything—from weak tea to potassium cyanide. In answer to the question, "What do you drink?" one dead-end sport answered: "I often wonder."

The most popular study seems to be women, according to the answers; the least popular, of course, is "descriptive geometry." Yale is the most popular college among Tech students, with Dartmouth second, surprisingly close in view of the fact that Tech has broken athletic relations with the Green.

Wellesley named out Smith for the distinction of being the most popular girls' college.

Prof. Eddie Miller, for years voted the most popular professor, was given a close battle this year by a comparatively new member of the faculty, Prof. H. L. Bowman.

The question regarding what Technology needs most brought out a host of suggestions. Besides "a good boot-legger," "more men like me" and "some real co-eds," the majority seemed to think the institute is in most need of a president, more dormitories and a football team.

The class was asked, "Whom shall we notify in case of accident at the picnic?" Most of the students seemed anxious that St. Peter should be informed. One insisted that Bebe Daniels be notified. Others begged that the bootlegger be not kept in ignorance.

The average Tech man is 23 years old, weighs 150 pounds and is 5 feet 10 inches tall. The most popular activity is cutting classes.

Asked how they would feel on graduation, the students all agreed: "Hot dog" was the universal answer.

POLICE HATS

DUBLIN, May 16.—The mother of James, Francis and Thomas McKenna, who were shot by intruders in their home at Ballymullerg last week, testified yesterday at the inquest on the body of James, the only son of the family, who was killed, that the intruders, three to be killed, that the intruders, who fired volley after volley at her three sons, wore broad-crowned peaked hats similar to those worn by police.

The inquest, held at Maghera, County Londonderry, adjourned for one month because it was hoped that Francis and Thomas, who were seriously injured, would have sufficiently recovered by that time to testify.

ADVENTISTS ATTACK SUNDAY "BLUE LAWS"

SAN FRANCISCO, May 16.—Sunday "blue laws" have been attacked by members of the religious liberty department of the Seventh Day Adventists national convention in session here.

The whole social and political fabric of society "is permeated with the spirit of paternalism and summary legislation, certain to cause serious troubles unless checked," said C. S. Longacre, secretary of the department. He told the assembly that forces of reform legislation were organizing as never before "to establish laws which offend the individual rights of the people and are in direct opposition to the constitution."

STRATOS FORMS NEW GREEK CABINET

ATHENS, May 16. (By the Associated Press).—A new cabinet has been formed under Nicholas Stratos to succeed that headed by M. Gounaris, which resigned last Friday.

M. Stratos was one of the organizers in 1916 of the anti-Venizelos war party. He was minister of marine under Premier Gounaris in 1918, and prior to that had served as minister of the interior in the cabinet.

This stretch of road formerly the Merrimack valley highway, extends more than 200 miles from Nashua to Colebrook.

The exercises were held at the Massachusetts-New Hampshire state line where two granite columns with descriptive bronze tablets have been erected.

The exercises were preceded by a luncheon at the Nashua Country club where the Nashua Rotary club was host.

JUDGE DECLARES MARRIAGE BIGAMOUS

LOS ANGELES, May 16.—Jean Acker, motion picture actress from whom Rodolph Valentino, film actor, obtained an interlocutory decree of divorce, Jan. 10, 1922, said today she "would like to do something" because of his marriage at Mexicali, Lower California, last Saturday, to Winifred Hudnut, dancer and motion picture art director, known professionally as Nutsche Rambova.

"I shall take the matter up with my attorney," said Miss Acker, who according to judges of the Los Angeles county superior court, still is Mrs. Valentino and will be until the interlocutory decree is made final Jan. 10, 1923.

According to Judge J. W. Summerfield, such a marriage as that contracted by Valentino and Miss Hudnut is bigamous.

IRISH REPUBLICANS AGAINST TREATY VOTE

DUBLIN, May 16.—At the offices of the provisional government here it was said yesterday that nothing was known there regarding any conference being proposed with Sir James Craig, Michael Collins, Arthur Griffith and Winston Churchill, British minister of the colonies, as participants.

Mr. Griffith and Mr. Collins have not yet received an invitation to go to London.

The republicans remain rigid on the election issue, and will permit of no election involving a vote on the treaty. The labor party, however, is preparing a list of candidates. The dissident army is claiming the right to secure a postponement of the election by force, while in some districts the people are organizing committees for their own protection.

The election question will be raised at a meeting of the Ard Fels Tuesday, at which 2000 Sinn Fein delegates, presided over by Eamon de Valera, are expected to attend. It is supposed a majority will support De Valera's

HOOK-UP OF RADIO-AUDIO FREQUENCY AMPLIFIER

By R. L. DUNCAN
Director, Radio Institute of America

What's the best set of all for the reception of radio broadcasting? It's hard to say. But I think that the radio-audio frequency amplifier is close to the top. The parts for this set cannot be made easily. But they may be bought in any supply shop and rigged up according to the diagram with little trouble.

Suggestions
In using this circuit, do not ground the negative side of the six-volt "A" battery. The potentiometer, No. 5, may be dispensed with. If not used, the filament rheostat must be placed in the positive lead of the filament circuit.
This circuit may be used with an indoor loop.
But for best results use a well-strung outdoor aerial.

In place of the telegraph stock ticker comes the radiophone. It has been introduced in offices in nearly all the large cities and is gaining favor throughout the rest of the country. Directors of a Chicago banking firm are seen here discussing their regular business while the radiophone brings in the latest stock market reports.

ASK GREATER FREEDOM IN USE OF SETS

By N.E.A. Service
LONDON, May 15.—Amateurs in England are raising their voices for rights equal to those of their American brothers.
At the recent annual conference of the Affiliated Wireless Societies of Great Britain a resolution was passed requesting the Wireless society of London to open negotiations with the postoffice authorities regarding regulations of amateur wireless transmissions. As a result a committee of the Wireless society of London has submitted the following requests to the postmaster general:

- Less Restrictions
1. That no restrictions be placed on amateur transmitting stations communicating with other amateur stations. At present an amateur is limited to communicate with only five other allotted stations.
 2. That amateurs be permitted to transmit for an aggregate maximum of two hours in each 24 hours, limiting each transmission to 10 minutes. This would invalidate the regulation requiring an amateur to transmit only during the two hours specified in his license.
 3. That wave lengths for amateurs be reduced from the present 1000 metres, to about 40 metres and an experimental length of about 180 metres.

The last suggestion is due to complaints of the air ministry that all radio traffic has been seriously interfered with by amateurs who have been allotted the general wave length of 1000 metres. If this is permitted to continue, says the committee, interference will become worse when night flying becomes more general. Most amateurs use their transmitting sets in the evening.

Benefits
Adoption of these three suggestions, according to the committee report, would produce two important results: "The first is that the air service will have no further occasion to complain of amateur interference. The second, that the amateur will be satisfied with the power permitted him, and will not have the temptation to ignore the terms of his license as regards excessive power, unauthorized wave lengths, times of working and stations communicated with."

PREPARE FOR WAR ON RUM-RUNNERS

DERBY LINE, Vt., May 15.—Prohibition enforcement agents and custom officials along the international boundary from Lake Champlain east are preparing for six months of guerrilla warfare with rum runners from now on.

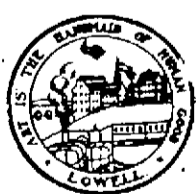

Warm weather of the past few days has made the many trails and unguarded roads over the border passable for the first time since winter set in and in scores of farmhouses near the boundary line thousands of cases of whiskey are cached ready to be transferred to automobiles and brought over the line to be distributed from points many miles below the border.

The desperate character and daring of the rum runners in the past year has made the job of catching smugglers one for only stout hearted men and every agent is being supplied with automatic revolvers to enforce their authority.

GIRL TOOK POISON AFTER QUARREL

BOSTON, May 15.—Mrs. Bessie Dreyer, 24, was taken from her home at 17 Flagg street, South End, to the city hospital last night suffering from the effects of swallowing poison tablets, with suicidal intent, according to the police. The woman's condition is considered serious and she is under close observation.
It is said that Mrs. Dreyer and her husband had an argument at the conclusion of which the husband threatened to leave the 15-month-old child, William, and started for the upper part of the house to put him to bed. While doing this he heard the cries of his wife and when he came downstairs she told him she had taken poison.

GRABS BABY FROM SLOOP WITH 2000 CASES UNDER LOCOMOTIVE OF BOOZE CAPTURED

NEW YORK, May 15.—In what old line railroad men declare to be the most remarkable rescue they ever heard of, John J. Cotter, a locomotive engineer on the Greenwald Lake division of the Erie railroad, literally snatched a 37-month-old infant from under the wheels of his own moving locomotive after the emergency brakes had failed to bring his train to a halt.

The child was the grand-daughter of one of his closest friends, and a brother engineer in the same division. As the train moved on, the baby daughter of Reginald Cushman and the grand-daughter of Ira M. Mendel, lives in a house near Riverdale, the back yard of which extends near the tracks. Saturday afternoon the child made her way out of the yard.

The mother saw her climbing the lower railroad embankment just as Cotter's train came in sight. As the child reached the top of the embankment she tripped and fell prone across the tracks. The train was not more than 200 yards away.

Cotter immediately threw on the air and put every available mechanical force to work to cut down headway. He saw, however, that the heavy train would not stop in the space allotted. Jumping from his cab he made his way to the pilot and dropped to the lowest step, and as the engine reached the child, Cotter, grasped the infant in one hand swung her clear of the pilot and into his arms.

The youngster was restored to her mother unscratched, and Cotter continued on his run.

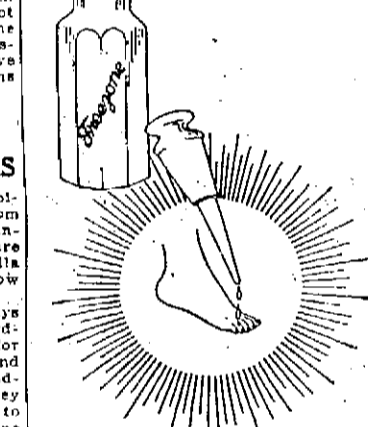

BID 30 CENTS FOR BUST OF EX-KAISER

SOUTH NORWALK, Conn., May 15.—A bronze bust of Kaiser Wilhelm II got an opening bid of 30 cents when it, formerly part of the fittings of the Vaterland, was put up for auction at the surplus property sale of the United States shipping board, being held at the Wilson Point yards here yesterday.

Before the bidding ended its value rose to $35, at which price Dominic C. Vetroville, proprietor of the Meunier Inn, Westport, purchased it. The fittings and other art objects from the Vaterland are to be offered for sale at a later date.

GRABS BABY FROM SLOOP WITH 2000 CASES UNDER LOCOMOTIVE OF BOOZE CAPTURED

NEW YORK, May 15.—The first prize of the "boozie navy" operating off the Atlantic coast to prevent smuggling of intoxicating liquors, was brought into New York harbor today by the United States customs service boat Itasca. It was a sloop of 125 tons displacement, loaded, it was declared, with 2000 cases of whiskey.

The prize was captured by the Itasca last night off the New Jersey coast about 25 miles south of Monmouth. Six members of the crew were arrested.

PANTHERS WIN IN TWELVE INNINGS

The Panthers of upper Gorham street are out for the 15 year old championship of the city. And their record so far this season indicates that they will be a hard team to keep away from the title. Last night the Panthers met the Rubens of East Chelmsford in the third game of the series, and after a hard fought twelve inning battle the Panthers landed the verdict by the score of 15 to 12. Flowers and Perry, the battery for the winners played a most important part in the victory. The former twirled a splendid game and also started at the bat. Perry's catching was a treat to look upon, and his throwing to the bases was regular big town stuff. Rely on first base and back on third also figured prominently in star plays. The other members of the team did their bit to bring home the bacon. The Panthers are ready to play any 15 year old team in the city. Answer through this paper.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

Theodore Boirel, the noted author and singer, who entertained a large and select audience at Colonial hall last night, is a true veteran of the world war, having served for four years under the French colors. Boirel was in the front line trenches all of the time, but he did not once fire a shot, as his fighting was in the form of singing his military bug to keep up the spirits of the men. During his brief stay in this city, the noted artist was entertained at luncheon at the Yorkville club, was given a quick automobile ride through the principal points of the city and was given the opportunity to visit the new auditorium. Prior to his coming to Lowell Boirel visited numerous cities in this country and the Dominion and has seen numerous memorials dedicated to the memory of those who laid down their lives in the great war, but he said Lowell had more of them all. His was impressed with the site of the new building, its architecture and in fact he pronounced it as fine a building as he has ever seen anywhere. He was taken through the courtesy of Arthur J. Moriarty, the auditorium commission, that the artist was given an opportunity to visit the building.

Does it pay to advertise in The Sun? Ask A. J. Favreau, manager of Favreau Bros. Inc., electrical contractors and supplies, and he will tell you about the results his firm has obtained through the columns of The Sun. Some time ago Favreau Bros. inserted an advertisement in the paper for a house wiring and two days later the manager of the company was requested by a Mr. Gauthier of Salem to submit bids for the wiring and the furnishing of electrical fixtures for a 15-room hotel building, which is located in the Wilket city. Bids were submitted and a few days ago (as Lowell concerns was notified that it had been awarded the contract. "It is true that it was our few figures," the manager of Favreau Bros. said, "but Mr. Gauthier had not read our advertisement in The Sun, he would not have asked us to submit a bid."

Traffic Supervisor Eddie Connors performed another heroic act at Market square a few days ago when he prevented a woman from running in front of the auto of Chief Saunders while responding to a fire alarm. The woman was running along the sidewalk when the chief's unit was approaching, lost her hat and turned to recover it in the path of the chief's auto when the officer grabbed her by the arm and held her until the apparatus had gone by.

It is very probable that she would have been struck by the machine. Commenting upon the matter later, Officer Connors said when a fire alarm sounded and the apparatus speeds through the streets, it is the duty of the pedestrian to stand aside and await the signal of the traffic officer before venturing across the square. If this advice were followed by men, women and children, he said, accidents would not happen. He said that the sound of sirens and whistles should be a signal of acceptance should also be brought to a dead stop until the signals that the road is clear.

Burglary De Luxe
Things are altered nowadays, are they? And people have altered with them, as one householder recently found out.
Hearing a suspicious noise in the middle of the night, he awoke downstairs and found a burglar busily collecting up spoons and a silver tea set. The thief, however, started the master of the establishment fiercely. "What are you doing in my house?"
"Your house?" asked the midnight intruder coolly.
"Is it your house?" thought you only rent it."
"So I said," exclaimed the other, taking his surprise.
"No, I don't be so high and mighty talking about your house. Indeed I married the burglar, as he opened to from the door, and stepped out into the moonlight."
"Good night!"—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Now We Know

Science has made the interesting discovery that there is a physical reason for women's loquacity. In the folds of the brain is a region called Broca's convolution. It is named after the great French surgeon who discovered what the brain cells in this particular convolution or fold did.

From measurements of a very great number of men and women, Broca has been able to work out that the Broca's convolution to be considered larger in woman than in man. It is a speech-making factory, and the larger output of words is necessarily larger.

Furthermore the bigger speech center of woman seems to be more excited than man's speech center. It is in this manner of speaking, on a biological trigger.

It was then that parties proposed installing a fine filling station there and that to block this plan that the action be taken.

integration of the life's needs as cups of water for your skin must be met. The life's needs are: 1. Intake of pressure to a firm surface. What food is to our bodies. There is another similarity, however, that has not been described—the life's need of exercise. It is a fact that a spare tire resists natural aging much better if it is put into service for only a few months. The reason for this is obscure, but it is probably due to what physicists call "molecular rearrangement" in the softer portions of the tire caused by flexing. Whatever is the cause of the deterioration, a spare carried months after month without being exercised occasionally does not age as fast as one that is used as one that gets a day's use once a month.

TO DISCUSS BRIDGE AND PARKWAY

The Centralville Improvement Association will meet Wednesday at 8 p. m. in the vestry of the Centralville M. E. church. The main business of the organization will consist of a discussion of the condition of the approaches to Central bridge and a petition to the city council for the closing of First street from Bridge street to the boulevard to be removed for parkway purposes.

The association officials feel that there is no time like the present for making a parkway from the bridge to the new boulevard.

AN ATTEMPT TO FOOL THE PEOPLE

Sen. Capper Assails Advocates of American Valuation in Senate

Attempt to Conceal the Extent to Which They Desire to Raise Rates

(By the Associated Press). WASHINGTON, May 16.—American valuation again was brought into debate today in the Senate. Senator Capper, republican, Kansas, chairman of the senate agricultural committee, charging that "the most zealous advocates" of this system desired it because they believed that by it they could "conceal from the American people the extent to which they desire to raise rates."

You Must Drink Something There is nothing better than they are seeking rates so high as to be unpopular; that they are endeavoring to represent the will of the people, but to fool the people."

He predicted that the "real propaganda for American valuation was coming in spite of the action of the senate finance committee in abandoning it, in favor of the foreign valuation, and that it would be launched by the press, especially by high protective duties on manufactured articles." He added that manufacturers were not content with tariff rates that would equalize their position in the American market.

"I believe," he said that American valuation, if incorporated in the present bill, would have the same economic and political effect as did the concession of protection in the compensatory duties of Schedule K of the Payne-Aldrich act. President Taft was compelled to state that Schedule K of that tariff act was indefensible. The opponents of the bill were able to attack it more successfully merely because the provision which it contained was concealed. In the same way, American valuation, if incorporated in the present bill, would weaken the position of the republican party. It would almost certainly conceal an excessive amount of protection which would be difficult to defend."

He said American valuation might be properly resorted to, to meet unusual competitive situations as proposed in the present bill, but added that "beyond that it is a cloak for excessive protection and a needless political burden for the republican party to carry." He expressed the opinion that within a few years it was not unlikely that the provision of the bill for the incorporation of American valuation by the president would become a dead letter.

To support his argument that American valuation would conceal the amount of protection accorded, he presented some figures from the valuation report of the finance committee, in which house bill rates were converted to the basis of foreign values.

These showed:

Eighty-one items of the chemical schedule, Underwood bill, 16 per cent; Payne-Aldrich 18; Senate bill 33, and House bill 71.

Seventy-eight manufacturers of wool, Underwood bill 35 per cent; Payne-Aldrich 37; Senate bill 51; House bill 31.

Eighty-seven items of silk schedule, Underwood 44; Payne-Aldrich 52; Senate 55; House 34.

One hundred and twenty-four items of paper schedule, Underwood 16; Payne-Aldrich 25; Senate 28; House 35.

Two hundred and thirty-seven items of wood schedule, Underwood 12; Payne-Aldrich 13; Senate 20; House 38.

He asserted that if American valuation was to be used to conceal undue increase in protective rates it would become clearly a "bunco game" at the expense of the farmers, because it would not apply to his products, the rates on which would be specified and not based on value, while its use would increase the price of many products which he uses.

press reports, having solved the Russian problem.

Great Disappointment

Great disappointment at the American decision was expressed generally in conference circles.

The surprise was accentuated by reason of a statement the Italian press attributed to Ambassador Child, quoting him as saying to Foreign Minister Schanzer that the United States probably would accept an invitation to The Hague on condition that the powers bind themselves not to conclude separate agreements with Russia while the Hague commission was sitting and that the decisions of the commission be referred to the respective governments for final action.

When the news of the American decision got abroad it became at once the topic of the day. The opinion generally expressed was that American absence from The Hague might kill that meeting as the refusal of the United States to participate at Genoa was in the eyes of many of the delegates the chief reason for the failure of the conference here today to achieve definite results.

Those among the delegates here who were participating in the Washington armaments conference have frequently reiterated their conclusion that America believes the salvation of Europe can only come by each country earnestly setting to work to restore her finances by balancing her state budget, and that this can only be done by reducing expenses, especially by limiting armaments.

"The only real difference between Genoa and The Hague," said a leading delegate today, "was the participation of the United States at The Hague. Now that America has refused the invitation I cannot see why, in a month's time, it should be possible to solve at the Hague through a commission of experts the problems which the statesmen plenipotentiaries and the experts together failed to solve here. I do not like to prophesy, but it would not surprise me at all if America's refusal should prove the death blow to the Hague meeting."

When announcement of the invitation of the Washington government was conveyed to the French delegation great disappointment was expressed. It was commented that France was at one with America in foreseeing the dangers from the attitude of the soviet representatives as disclosed in their present memorandum, if the communists persisted in their present doctrines.

"Here at Genoa, however," said one of the French delegates, "the Bolsheviks have been plainly playing to the gallery, proclaiming their theories to the world in order to satisfy the radical Bolshevik wing in Russia."

"At The Hague they would probably be less theatrical and get down to business, realizing they must do so if they expect any national assistance."

League Council Acts

GENEVA, May 15. (By the Associated Press).—The Council of the League of Nations refused today to take up the Russian problem and referred to the Genoa conference, the Norwegian government's request for an immediate inquiry by the league into the general situation in Russia and the effect of the famine on economic reconstruction in Europe.

Dr. Nansen insisted that a permanent body should not refer such a vital problem to a temporary organization like Genoa, adding that the members of the council would have failed in their first duty to their government if they refused to act in this matter. All the members of the council, however, supported Lord Rutherford's resolution growing out of the Genoa conference, but only after the council agreed to reconsider it if it should be buried at Genoa. Dr. Nansen accepted this compromise resolution.

The telegram sent to the Genoa conference reads as follows:

"The council, having heard a discussion on the economic consequences and the spread of disease as a result of the famine, desires to recommend to the Genoa conference or some commission growing out of the Genoa conference that all available information be coordinated on the effect which the famine must have on European reconstruction."

Dr. Nansen praised the work of the American relief administration in Russia and said the Americans were now feeding nearly 5,000,000 people. But he declared all the relief organizations in Russia could not expect to overcome the famine which probably would be just as bad next year, since the sowing of next year's crops would be only 20 per cent of the pre-war acreage.

U. S. Refuses Invitation

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The United States having removed today the last possible doubt as to the finality of its decision not to participate in conferences on the European situation of the Genoa type, officials here waited with interest the next move of the powers attending the Italian meeting.

Impartial observers at Genoa have been unanimous recently in stating that only the hope of securing the attendance of the United States either at Genoa or at the proposed conference at The Hague had prevented the arising of an impasse. This hope was definitely removed in the reply, dispatched by the state department last night to Ambassador Child, to a formal invitation proffered through the French delegation at Genoa.

"This government is unable to conclude that it can helpfully participate in the meeting at The Hague," Secretary Hughes cabled the American ambassador "as this would appear to be a continuance under a different nomenclature of the Genoa conference and destined to encounter the same difficulties. If the attitude disclosed in the Russian memorandum of May 11 remains unchanged."

The United States, Mr. Hughes continued, maintained its original view that "the ultimate question" to be considered in connection with European economies would be found in "restoration of productivity in Russia," the essential conditions of which must be provided within Russia herself.

France May Decline

PARIS, May 15.—(By the Associated Press).—The declaration of the American government to participate in the conference of experts at The Hague on the Russian question is attributed in official circles here to the ambiguity of the memorandum setting forth the agenda of the conference which in French opinion may be interpreted so as to permit the discussion of political questions.

"Unless conditions are laid down as to avoid this danger, there is little likelihood it was declared, that France will be represented at The Hague."

YOUNG MOTHER NOW STRONG

Her Mother's Faith in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Led Her To Try It

Kenosha, Wisconsin.—"I cannot say enough in praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My mother had great faith in it as she had taken so much of it and when I had trouble after my baby was born she gave it to me. It helped me so much more than anything else had done that I advise all women with female trouble to give it a fair trial and I am sure they will feel as I do about it.—Mrs. FRED. P. HANSEN, 562 Symmonds St., Kenosha, Wisconsin.

A medicine that has been in use nearly fifty years and that receives the praise and commendation of mothers and grandmothers is worth your consideration.

If you are suffering from troubles that sometimes follow child-birth bear in mind that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a woman's medicine. It is especially adapted to correct such troubles.

The letters we publish ought to convince you; ask some of your women friends or neighbors—they know its worth. You will, too, if you give it a fair trial.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

M. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

Mae and Rose Wilton, looking just the same as of previous visits to Lowell, but providing even more real pleasure, stand out prominently at M. F. Keith's theatre this week. From unassuming figures, in fact quite unostentatious in appearance, the sisters never fail to leave the impression that their act is uncommonly good. With smoothness personified they slip gracefully from one feature to another, combining vocal, piano and violin in a perfect harmony of sound. They have switched from the "blues" to the "joys" and last evening the audience was most insistent that they linger longer and sing more of these unaccompanied spirituals.

Perfectly wonderful feats of magic and marvelous exhibitions of strength are shown by the Croy-Ling troupe of Chinese wonder-workers. Each member of the troupe is a specialist in one thing or another and their act is carried through with amazing speed. Just little tricks, such as eating fire and whirling and spinning in mid air held only by the hair of the head, are some of the high spots in the act. While one of the troupe is diving through three circles of sharpened knives, another whirls jars of water attached to ends of a long rope while still another snags long strips of paper into fantastic designs.

James Mullin and Anna Francis present "Ain't We Got Fun?" Mullin is the big boy grows up, but still in the calf-love stage and his comedy is good enough to compel one continuous laugh from his audience.

Barl S. Dewey and Mabel Rogers in "No Tomorrow" tell an unusual story of the end of the world, with only five minutes in which to live. What would you do in such a case? Marry the girl? That's just what Dewey does, or in fact, that is what Mabel Rogers has him do. He has looked deep into his cup and is very, very funny. The act has a particularly deep stake setting and is bright and happy all through.

Excellent dancing is shown by Law and Paul Murdock. Many of their eccentric steps are brand new, and they stick right into their "boogie-woogie" every minute. Music obtained from glasses of water features the act of May Munn and Co., while Alex. and Gro. Elliott Stairs are physical culturists who close the bill in most approved style.

The pictures shown in connection with the program include a reel of airplane photographs taken over the Massachusetts north shore. Pathé Weekly and an Acrop. Table.

Next week closed the present vaudeville season, but the theatre will remain open to feature first class motion pictures.

THE STRAND THEATRE

"Grand Larceny," a Goldwyn offering, and "Bar Nothing," a western offering, are the two main attractions of the week. Both plays were seen by the audience at yesterday's performance and both were well liked in their present form.

In "Grand Larceny" are two film stars, Windie and Gro. Elliott Dexter, and both appeared to excellent advantage.

This story is of a young woman who is made the plaything of two men. It tells the story of a social parasite, who carries on his depredations outside the pale of the law. It brings out forcibly the fact that a wife is not a piece of property that may be bought or sold, but a woman who deserves from her mate, the respect of the country. While a splendid picture and must be seen to be appreciated.

"Bar Nothing" is "Buck Jones' latest thriller. It deals with a young man who is the terror of the district in which he lives in the western part of the country. While a splendid picture and must be seen to be appreciated.

TO HOUSE ANDREW JOHNSON TAILOR SHOP

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 15.—Contract for the erection of a building to house the tailor shop at Greenville, Tenn., where former President Andrew Johnson once worked, was awarded to a construction firm there today by the Andrew Johnson memorial committee.

The last Tennessee legislature appropriated $55,000 to purchase the lot and erect a marble and brick structure which will house the shop.

SONG WRITER DEAD

Author of "In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree" and "I'm Afraid to Go Home in the Dark" Passes Away

DAKOTA, Calif., May 15.—Harry H. Williams, composer and motion picture director, is dead here after a brief illness. He was credited with composing "In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree" and "I'm Afraid to Go Home in the Dark" and other popular songs.

GOLDIE RAPP INJURED

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 15.—Goldie Rapp, third baseman for the Philadelphia Nationals, was picked up unconscious in the third inning of yesterday's game with St. Louis after he had fallen into the local dugout going after a foul hit by McHenry. He was revived after several minutes and the Cardinals' physician stated that the infielder suffered a fractured rib, a sprained ankle and lacerations of the body. Lee took his place at third.

"Our floors are more than clean"

"Some housekeepers think that thorough and frequent scrubbing is all that floors ever need. I had that idea, too, before I realized that average soaps and scouring compounds haven't any effect on germs which get into floor cracks and crannies.

"Sarah Marsh enlightened me. She popped in one Friday morning while I was mopping up the mud the Harrigan boy always brings into the kitchen when he delivers the meat. I don't believe he knows a door mat when he sees one right under his nose.

"Sarah watched me fill a fresh pail of scouring suds. 'Goodness gracious, Ethel,' she exclaimed, 'Why don't you use Sylpho-Nathol in your mop-water? How do you expect to destroy the germs in the dirt that's brought in from the street on people's shoes? Did you ever stop to think of the positive danger that is tracked back and forth across your floors from morning until night?'

"That's how I was introduced to Sylpho-Nathol.

"Sylpho-Nathol is an effective safeguard against germs because it is 4½ times stronger than carbolic acid. But it doesn't hurt your hands a bit, nor injure things. The druggist says it is as safe to have in the house as a cake of scouring soap. Just a tablespoonful in a pail of warm water makes a clean-smelling, pearly gray solution that's ready for immediate use."

Mop-water is just one of the many things for which Sylpho-Nathol is indispensable. It should be used regularly for sink drains and garbage receptacles; for cellar corners; around the bathroom tiling and fixtures; as a flush for the closet bowl—wherever odors may start or disease germs breed. Sylpho-Nathol comes in four handy sizes, 15c, 35c, 65c, $1.25. Most good grocers and druggists have it. If yours hasn't, he can get it easily. Just ask for it by the name—"Sylpho-Nathol."

She could eat anything—without indigestion or sleeplessness

For a time she had been troubled with gas after her evening meal. The distress was most painful after eating potatoes or other starchy foods, of which she was very fond.

Then she started taking two cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast every night between her evening meal and bedtime. She poured about a half cup of boiling hot water over the yeast cakes, stirred them thoroughly, added a little cold water and drank.

She found she could eat anything and sleep splendidly afterward.

Thousands of men and women are finding that Fleischmann's Yeast corrects stomach and intestinal troubles. It is one of the flow of bile and pancreatic juice. Appetite is always kept normal and you are protected against indigestion.

Add 2 to 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast to your daily diet. You will find that your whole digestive system is greatly benefited. Be sure it's Fleischmann's Yeast—the familiar tin-foil package with the yellow label. Place a forwarding order with your grocer for Fleischmann's Yeast.

CHATS WITH REX BEACH ABOUT OUT-OF-DOORS

BY MORRIS ACKERMAN

"I'd rather hunt bear in Alaska than anything else in the world," was the answer that Rex Beach gave to this rather pointed question.

"Alaska offers black, brown and grizzly bear. Its brown bear ranks in size with any in the world. In fact, as an all-around bear country, Alaska ranks first."

"On one occasion I shot one of these big brown boys that measured 12 feet from tip to tip.

"Another time I was within 40 feet of two of them. I had with me an automatic rifle. My guide carried a camera. I looked at the two bears and unhesitatingly decided that as far as I was concerned shooting brown bears wasn't in that particular day's sport. My guide snapped a picture."

"Big game hunters will probably be interested in the fact that Mr. Beach is very kindly disposed to the lever action rifle. Not only does he favor that particular action but when he goes hunting, especially for Alaskan brown bear, he takes a rifle that carries a terrific shocking power and 250 grains of lead."

"For my second choice in hunting I will take the fast flying duck."

"As for fishing, give me the brook trout on a fly, those pound or pound-and-a-half babies in fast water."

"I like all kinds of fishing but from a sportsman's standpoint I'd rather catch one nice fast-water brook trout on a fly than five bass, or a half roach."

"Seldom, indeed, does the average duck hunter have the good fortune to shoot a goose. It may surprise you to know that Beach cares comparatively little for goose shooting."

"The birds are too big a target," for one reason, and they are "too fine a bird" for another, he says. "When a fellow shoots a pair of geese he may be killing off the progenitors who have been mated probably for fifty years," he says.

The wild goose is not polygamous.

Billiard Championships

CHICAGO, May 16.—Jake Schaefer and Walter Cochran will start play tonight in their 1500-point match for the world's 182nd billiard championship. They will play three 500-point blocks.

Schaefer, the champion, is slightly favored by the experts to win because of his notable movement in winning twice over Willie Hoppe.

FAMILIES FLEE FIRE

Six Tenement House, Barn and Two Rag Shops Destroyed at Chelsea

BOSTON, May 16.—A fire yesterday afternoon in the heart of the Chelsea rag shop district burned a tenement house, a barn and two rag shops at a loss of $250,000. Two alarms were sounded within a few minutes of each other and help was summoned from Everett. The fire was under control by 2:30 about 25 minutes after it was discovered.

The blaze started on the rear piazza of a six-family tenement at 211-213 3d street from an unknown cause. It spread very rapidly. All four buildings destroyed were owned by Joseph Scrogoff of Everett.

Several adults and children were in the tenement house and all reached the street in safety, some of them managing to save a portion of their household effects. The families driven out were those of Nicholas Kraftlow, Max Sax and Julius Aber of No. 213, and those of John Zava, Abraham Bazz and John Zazazula, at No. 211.

The rag shops burned were those of Samuel Bard, in the rear of No. 211, and of Israel Gerold, in the rear of No. 209. The barn, which was occupied by Joseph Albert, in the rear of 96 1/2 street, abutted against the rag shops.

During the excitement Mrs. Alexandra Gaby of 180 2d street, was told that her children were in the blazing tenement house. She tried to enter the flames at 0.30. Damage of $1500 was done.

A daughter, Mrs. Cecelia Bowen, searching for the source of smoke, opened an attic door and was enveloped by a burst of flame. She was badly burned on the right hand and arm and on the neck.

The flames burned the room and attic and ruined the second floor. The firemen had a hard fight to check the flames.

Supreme Court Holds Child Labor Law Unconstitutional and Invalid

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The child labor law was today held by the supreme court to be unconstitutional and not valid. The decision of the court was rendered in a case brought by the government against the Drexel Furniture Co., of North Carolina, and was one of three cases brought in that state testing the validity of the law. In all the cases the United States district court decided against the government.

The law held unconstitutional today was virtually the same except that it by the court was enacted after the supreme court had declared invalid an act of congress which excluded interstate commerce products in whose manufacture child labor had been used. The law affected by today's decision of the police powers of the states.

Great Britain Asks U. S. to Assist In Investigation of Atrocities

LONDON, May 15.—(By the Associated Press)—Great Britain has asked for the co-operation of the United States, France and Italy in investigating the recent atrocities by Turks on Christian minorities in Asia Minor reported by the American Relief Administration, recently, it was announced in the house of commons today. The announcement was made by Auston Chamberlain, the government leader. He said Lord Curzon, the foreign secretary, was requesting the American, French and Italian governments each with Great Britain, to designate a carefully selected officer to proceed in Trebizond or some other Black sea port with a view to the investigation.

Buy Victory Notes Direct From Holders

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Authority given federal reserve banks to purchase four and three-fourth per cent. Victory notes direct from holders at par and accrued interest up to an aggregate amount of $100,000,000, has been further extended from May 15 to June 15, 1922, Secretary Mellon has announced.

Prisoner Escapes From Naval Hospital

BOSTON, May 15.—Edward Whalen, a second class naval machinist and a prisoner of the naval hospital, escaped from his cell last night, and today police were called on to aid in his capture. Beyond the fact that he was a prisoner under general court martial jurisdiction, naval authorities refuse to give any information as to his offense.

"PROBLEM OF THE PACIFIC"

Chile and Peru, Estranged for 40 Years, Join in New Effort

WASHINGTON, May 15 (by the Associated Press).—Chile and Peru, estranged for 40 years by their dispute over Tacna-Arica, joined here today in a new effort to compose their differences and remove the "problem of the Pacific" as a source of international friction in Latin America.

The conference was opened in the presence of official representatives of all the governments of the world and within the American Union building where the sessions of the armaments conferences were held.

Hughes Sounds Keynote
As spokesman for President Harding, who invited the two governments to discuss their problem here, Secretary Hughes was accorded the task of calling the conference to order and sounding its keynote in an address expressing the anxious but impartial interest of the United States in an agreement.

Luis Izquierdo was delegated to represent Chile and Mellon Torrey, for Peru. In prepared addresses each declared the willingness of his government to accept a fair and just settlement and the hope of his delegation that the negotiations would be a success.

Distinguished Gathering
One of the most distinguished gatherings Washington has seen in many years made up the list of invited guests. Seats were reserved for all the members of the foreign diplomatic corps here and for members of the United States government.

At a single green-topped table at the end of the hall, plans were marked for the two Chilean delegates and their two Peruvian colleagues. A chair also was placed temporarily at the table for Secretary Hughes, chairman of the conference, for today only. At the beginning of the real work of the negotiations tomorrow, no representative of the United States will be present.

Break 12 Years Ago
Today's session was the first session in 12 years when fully accredited plenipotentiaries of Chile and Peru had been placed side by side at a council table. It marked a resumption of diplomatic relations formally broken off in 1910, although there have been several diplomatic exchanges since by roundabout channels.

So far as the preliminary discussions have furnished any source of the trend of the negotiations, they have indicated that one of the biggest problems of the conference might develop very quickly when the plenipotentiaries attempt to agree on the scope of the issues to be considered here. In all her previous expressions Peru has maintained that not only the little tract of Tacna-Arica was in dispute, but that she desired a broad adjustment of all the other issues growing out of the war of the Pacific. Chile has insisted that the only issue is sovereignty over Tacna-Arica.

Hughes Opens Session
WASHINGTON, May 15.—The conference of Chile and Peru over the long disputed problem of Tacna-Arica, was formally opened by Secretary of State Hughes today with a prediction that it not only would herald a new day in international unity in the western hemisphere but would furnish to the whole world a needed and inspiring example of the practice of peace.

Both the time and place of meeting, Mr. Hughes said, were auspicious for the healing of old wounds and the effacement of whatever differences may exist in Latin America. He recalled that the Pan-American Union building where the negotiations are to take place recently had been the scene of great decisions in the Washington conference and expressed his conviction that the Chilean-Peruvian discussions would be characterized by a similar triumph for the process of reconciliation.

UNDER HEAVY BONDS

Trio Accused of Conspiracy to Conceal Assets Valued at $40,000

BOSTON, May 15.—A conspiracy to conceal assets involving merchandise valued at $40,000 alleged to have been shipped from Portchester, N. Y., to Salem, Newburyport and other Massachusetts cities and thence transhipped by motor trucks to Lawrence, was said by federal officers today to have been brought to light in connection with the arrest of Burzio S. Salvatore and his two sons, John and James.

The men formerly lived in Lawrence. They moved to Portchester when the father started a store there. His dry goods business was declared bankrupt but it is charged, Salvatore ordered large quantities of goods from manufacturers which were sent to Portchester, and then after being distributed to various cities in this state, brought together at Lawrence. Large sums of money alleged to belong to Salvatore have been located in Lawrence banks.

The men are now under heavy bonds for a hearing before a federal commissioner here on May 21 on a charge of being fugitives from justice.

VERDICTS OF $1 EACH

Awarded 12 Men Who Brought Suits for $1000 Against Gloucester Mayor

GLOUCESTER, May 15.—Judge Edward B. O'Brien of Lynn, in a district court decision, today, awarded $1 to each of the 12 members of the American Fishermen's racing committee, who had brought individual suits for $1000 against Mayor Percy V. Wheeler, alleging slander. The suits were the result of remarks attributed to the mayor concerning practices indulged in during the international fishermen's race last fall.

Mayor Wheeler was accused among other things of having said that the fishermen and fishing of the American schooner Elsie was changed and enlarged to a size not used by the vessel during the fishing season.

FACES MURDER CHARGE

Trial of Mrs. McCaw, Accused of Poisoning Step-Daughter, Postponed

PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 15.—The trial of Mrs. Ruth Seymour McCaw of Bristol, charged with the poisoning of her eight-year-old daughter, which is due to begin in the superior criminal court here today, was again postponed. Mrs. McCaw is also under an indictment charging the attempted murder of her stepson, Leon. She has been in the Providence county jail for several months.

The murder charge against the woman came as a result of investigations into the illness of her stepson, Leon, last fall. Samples of the food offered the boy were taken by physicians and found to contain arsenic.

It was then recalled that her daughter Elsie during her last illness in April, 1921, exhibited the same symptoms as the boy and when her body was examined, an autopsy was said to have shown the presence of poison.

Preventive action taken by physicians saved the boy's life.

The case was assigned for trial on June 12.

NEW YORK, May 15.—Cotton prices rose 12 to 14 a bale today on improved trade demand, coupled with reports that further jolting in the southwest were seriously delaying farm work.

LT. GOV. FULLER FILES BILL OF EXCEPTIONS

TAUNTON, May 15.—Lieut. Governor Alvan T. Fuller, through counsel, today filed a bill of exceptions in superior court, to the verdict returned by court order in favor of ex-Speaker Joseph E. Warner of Taunton, awarding Warner $1 damages in his suit for alleged slander growing out of statements attributed to Fuller in the 1920 state campaign.

The bill contains 41 pages, mainly a resume of evidence claimed to be pertinent to the exceptions. Fuller says in the bill that he is "aggrieved by the giving of instructions and the direction of a verdict, and the refusal to rule as requested by the defendant" on the part of Judge Nelson P. Brown, who presided at the trial here in March.

Judge Brown will hear the parties on a date to be determined, upon the draft of the bill. In ordering the verdict, in March, Judge Brown said he reserved the case for report to the supreme judicial court.

PRES. McMAHON CALLED

Questioned Relative to Use of Fees Paid by Strikers at Injunction Hearing

PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 15.—Thomas F. McMahon, president of the United Textile Workers, testified at the continuation of the hearing before the superior court here today for a preliminary injunction sought by the Jencks Spinning Co., that the U.T.W. international received all but 15 cents of the $135 paid by striking textile workers who have joined the union as initiation fees. Mr. McMahon testified that the international obtained approximately 10,000 new members after the beginning of the strike in this state.

Assuming that $13,500 was paid into the treasury of the "International" from new members here, Mr. Kingman, of counsel for the complainant, asked what became of that money.

Mr. McMahon said it would go to pay for organizers, for the expense of conducting the strike campaign and the costs of keeping the organizers here.

"As a matter of fact, the $13,000 that came from the workers here could be used in New York state, or elsewhere, could it not?" asked Mr. Kingman.

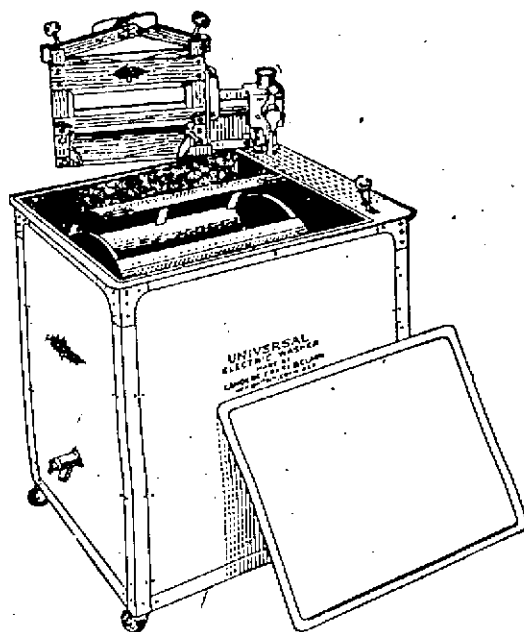

President McMahon agreed that it might and said that as a matter of fact, it was not used here. The dues of members were 25 cents a week, he said, and of this sum, eight cents a week goes to the "International," the balance being held by the local union to be used in such times as the present.

In explanation of the fact that the initiation fees of new members went out of the state, McMahon said that the financial situation of the organization was somewhat strained.

Let Us Show You How to "Universalize" Your Home

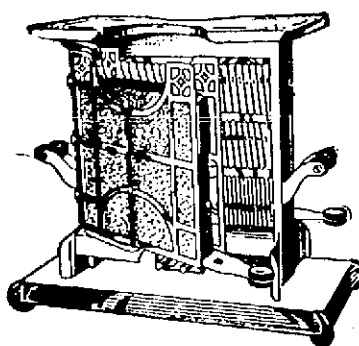

Beginning Tuesday and continuing throughout the week we are to have an experienced lady demonstrator at our salesroom, 64 Middle St., to explain by actual operation the many advantages of UNIVERSAL Electrical Appliances, including the Electrical Range, Vacuum Cleaner, Washing Machine, Percolator, Grill and many others of this splendid line.

UNIVERSAL Electric Appliances cover every need—every condition of service in the home. In their beauty, service and durability are judiciously combined.

UNIVERSAL ELECTRIC CLOTHES WASHER

Safe, Efficient, Attractive. Combines Mechanical Superiority with Simplicity and Durability. By comparative tests the UNIVERSAL has proved to be in a class by itself when it comes to thoroughly cleaning both the daintiest and heaviest fabrics in the quickest time and with the least possible labor. The demonstration will convince you.

UNIVERSAL ELECTRIC TOASTER

For about one cent this handsome, well made Toaster gives you 12 slices of crisp, evenly browned toast. About a slice a minute. The bread racks are reversible. No need to touch the toast with the hands.

UNIVERSAL ELECTRIC PERCOLATOR

Makes a stronger, cleaner beverage and uses less coffee. Costs less to operate because it works from 6 to 10 times faster. Coffee produced by the UNIVERSAL has that rich, appetizing aroma and delicious flavor which evidences proper making.

Wiring of All Kinds

Fixtures and Appliances

Plating and Refinishing

Repairs of All Kinds

General Supplies

UNIVERSAL Electric Appliances comprise a complete line of time saving, labor saving devices, each one of which will enable you to do some household task in an easier and better way.

UNIVERSAL ELECTRIC VACUUM CLEANER

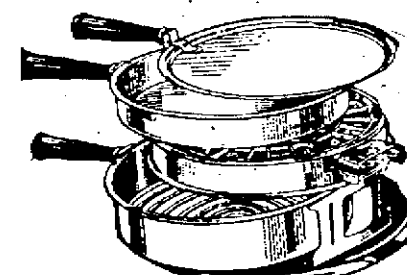

This efficient, practical cleaner possesses many special features. A few of them are:

1. The most powerful motor built for the purpose. This gives the patented brushless nozzle the greatest suction of any portable cleaner now made.
2. No brushes. Brushes are unsanitary, hard, difficult to clean and easy to get out of order. In the UNIVERSAL, powerful air suction does the work, and does it twice as thoroughly.
3. Thread Catchers. Placed on both sides of the nozzle mouth. They pick up the little bits of thread, lint, etc., and a powerful stream of air whirls them up into the bag.

See this Vacuum Cleaner at the demonstration. Watch it work. Then compare it with any other machine.

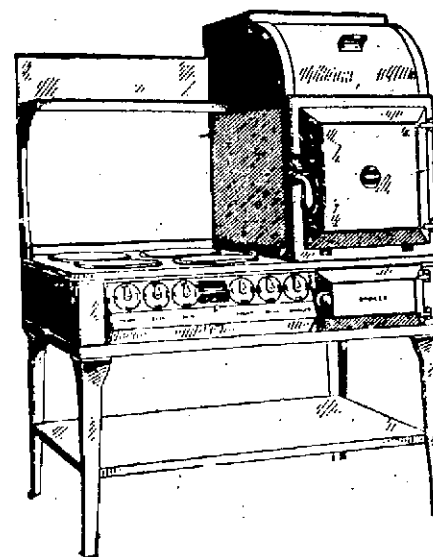

DEMONSTRATION HOURS

UNIVERSAL ELECTRIC GRILL

This neat, compact grill cooks a complete meal for two or three persons right at the table. Performs two cooking operations at one time. Broils steaks, chops, etc., to perfection; also fries and stews, etc., a variety of tasty dishes. Has 3-heat switch control.

UNIVERSAL ELECTRIC RANGE

The range that reduces maintenance and service charges to a practically negligible point. Full cabinet model, separate broiling compartment, utility shelf, and warming closet. This range comes in sizes to meet the requirements of any kitchen. Quick, clean and convenient, it is the ideal range for the home.

UNIVERSAL ELECTRIC IRON

The famous "Roundheel" Iron moves forward, backward and sideways, doing the best work with greatest ease. Cannot catch and wrinkle the fabric on the backward stroke as other irons do. Finely tapered tip and beveled edges enable quick and safe ironing of tucks, flounces and pleats.

UNIVERSAL ELECTRIC CURLING IRON

A quick, convenient and safe hair curler. No soap or odor, just a clean, dry, instant heat of the proper temperature. Ideal for curling bobbed hair and for waving in the prevailing styles. Comes with aluminum comb which slips over the iron and makes a convenient hair dryer. Costs less than 1-3c per hour to use.

Fire Rages in Vicinity of Pelham

U. S. REFUSAL NOT CONSIDERED FINAL WORD

PURCHASING AGENT FAVORS AWARD TO FRAMINGHAM COMPANY

Says That He Does Not Believe Satisfactory Asphalt Job Can Be Done for Price Lower Than That Quoted by That Concern—Present Discussion Wasting Lot of Valuable Time, Says Mr. Foye

Purchasing Agent Edward H. Foye said this morning that he favors awarding the 1922 street asphalt contract to the Framingham Construction Company, despite the trouble and litigation which has gone on between that company and the city.

"If a mistake has been made it is not too late to correct it and I am willing to have you quote me when I say even now I am in favor of awarding the work to the Framingham company. I also intend to express my views to the public service board in this respect." This was the statement made to 'The Sun' this morning when Mr. Foye was questioned with regard to what he thought of the present situation.

Agent Foye pointed to the fact that he had gone over figures with the Framingham company's representative.

OFFICERS OF EAGLES FREED

Commissioner Hayes Rules Agents Who Obtained Evidence Were Trespassers

Alley From Which Officers Observed Vat, Barrels, Etc., a Private Way

BOSTON, May 16.—United States Commissioner Hayes today discharged officials and employees of the Brockton Aerie of Eagles who were before him on a charge of possessing incriminating evidence for sale, on the ground that the federal agents who obtained the evidence in the case were trespassers at the time.

The commissioner held that an alley from which the prohibition enforcement officers said they observed a vat, barrels and certain processes was a private way, and that they had no right there. Because the search warrant obtained on this evidence was illegal, he held further, the evidence that they found men inside drinking and drunk was not admissible.

PRINCIPAL COX IS REINSTATED

School Board Votes Two to One in Favor of Ousted Head of School

"Kids Want Cox and We Are for the Kids," Says Member of Committee

NEW BEDFORD, May 16.—By a vote of two to one, the Westport school committee this morning voted to reinstate H. Eugene Cox, ousted principal of the high school, whose dismissal occasioned the walking out of the great majority of the students yesterday.

"The kids want Cox and we are for the kids," asserted Loren Parks, member of the committee.

FOREST FIRE THREATENS

Stopped by Volunteers When Only Half Mile From Pelham Centre

A sweeping forest fire, burning over three miles area, seriously threatened the town of Pelham early this afternoon, and at 2 o'clock was less than one-half mile from the center, but shortly after 4 o'clock the efforts of the volunteer fire fighters vanquished the flames and had them under control before they reached the town.

When the fire was discovered about half the town turned out to fight the blaze, which was making rapid progress through a large area of underbrush. Additional assistance was secured later, and their belief that the fire could be checked before actual damage had been done the town was relieved. No aid was called for from other towns or cities.

LLOYD GEORGE STILL HOPES U. S. PERRY D. THOMPSON HAS DECLINED NOMINATION AS ASSESSOR

Says Declination Indicates Great American Interest in Russia's Economic Reconstruction—Reply Regarded as One Forming Basis for Further Correspondence—Genoa Conference Circles Disappointed

GENOA, May 16.—(By the Associated Press)—Prime Minister Lloyd George does not feel, it was indicated this afternoon, that the American refusal to participate in the commission to sit at The Hague on Russian affairs is her final word, as the document indicates great American interest in Russia's economic reconstruction and the reply is regarded as one forming a basis for further correspondence.

The entire Russian delegation attended today's meeting of the political sub-commission. Foreign Minister Tchitcherine, head of the delegation, asked a number of questions concerning the details of the proposed meeting at The Hague, and upon his request the Russians were granted 21 hours in which to frame a reply to yesterday's proposals concerning this meeting.

The sub-commission then adjourned until tomorrow.

At the very conclusion of the meeting, Mr. Lloyd George was handed the American note, but it was not discussed by the sub-commission.

M. Tchitcherine asked why Germany was excluded from the Hague meeting. He was told that Germany's separate treaty with Russia made it unnecessary for her to participate.

M. Tchitcherine then asked if the word "claims" should not be included with "credits" and "personnel property" in article III of the memorandum setting forth the plans for the Hague meeting. The sub-commission agreed to this suggestion.

Italian Minister Surprised

GENOA, May 16.—(By the Associated Press)—Foreign Minister Schanzer of Italy, on learning from the Associated Press at an early hour this morning the decision of the American government not to join the proposed commission on Russian affairs at The Hague, expressed great surprise, especially at the rapidity with which a decision was taken which may have great influence on the further discussions at Genoa.

Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, who presented the Norwegian government's request, and who is the league's high commissioner for Russian relief, fought hard to prevent the question going to Genoa. He said handing it to Genoa was equivalent to burying it. Marquis Imperiali of Italy protested this, saying he was confident the conference at Genoa would give the question fullest consideration.

Dr. Nansen, however, insisted that the Genoa conference was about to break up without, according to the

Former Mayor, Offered Position by Mayor George H. Brown, States That It Does Not Interest Him—Did Not Seek the Office But Considered It Upon Earnest Solicitation of Councilors and Business Men

Hon. Perry D. Thompson, former mayor, stated today that he had been offered a nomination by Mayor George H. Brown to a position on the board of assessors, but inasmuch as he had in no way sought the place and because it did not hold any great interest for him, he would not accept it.

A letter to this effect, expressing of course, his appreciation of Mayor Brown's willingness to place his name in nomination, will be forwarded to day to the mayor by Mr. Thompson.

It has been generally known about the city for the past fortnight that the ex-mayor's name would be sent to the city council for confirmation if he would but say the word and also there was a well established belief that the council would immediately confirm him practically by a unanimous vote.

This latter statement is based upon the fact that there is little doubt that the former mayor has many persons who would support him.

PLAN POWERFUL RELAY STATION

Local Radio Club Would Install Plant With 1000 Mile Radius

Would Be Used Free of Charge for Receiving and Sending Messages

Foremost among the plans of the Lowell Radio club at the present time is the installation, in some section of the city there will be little interference from high tension wires, of a powerful relay station, capable of relaying 1000 miles or more. When this station is completed, as foreseen by club members, messages will be sent free of charge for all who care to take advantage of the opportunity, and answers received.

The station is to be placed in the hands of first class amateur licensees, with continuous service from 7 p. m. to 2 a. m. These operators will be on

MAJESTIC DOCKS AT NEW YORK

Giant Liner Has Accommodations for More Than 4000 Passengers

Almost as Long as the Eiffel Tower, Highest Structure in the World, is Tall

NEW YORK, May 16.—The Majestic, largest steamship in the world, today completed her maiden voyage across the Atlantic, arriving from Southampton she dropped anchor at Quarantine, turned sidewise to the tide, almost bottled up the channel and then had to point her nose back toward Europe so that the Mauretania could pass on to sea.

The Mauretania, fastest thing in the passenger trade so far as records go, snubbed her bigger rival as she steamed by. Not a solitary note of greeting came from her whistle.

But other craft were exultant over the arrival of the new queen of the seas and there was a chorus of whistling.

SPECIFICATIONS OF MAJESTIC

Length, 956 feet.
Beam, 100 feet.
Depth of hull, 102 feet.
Size in tons, 56,000.
Draft of water, 35 feet.
Number of decks, 9.
Area of decks, 7½ acres.
Passenger capacity, 4100.
Engine horsepower, 100,000.
Fuel, oil.
Speed, 23 sea miles per hour.

The Majestic, which is of 56,000 tons displacement, is not only the largest, but probably the speediest ship afloat. She has a record of 25 knots an hour and her engines are still "stiff." When they get "limbered up" her officers and

KILL ANTI-PRIMARY BILL

—Citizen Preference Measure Amended

BOSTON, May 16.—By an overwhelming vote the Massachusetts house of representatives yesterday refused to vote on a bill to amend the constitution to provide for the nomination by political party conventions of candidates for secretary of state, state treasurer, state auditor and attorney general. The measure had been submitted in the upper branch for an adverse committee report.

Mr. Burr of Boston, who announced himself as a candidate for the republican nomination for state auditor, thought there should be a return to the old style of convention. He favored some provision "to prevent the control of conventions by politicians."

Mr. Sibert of Boston characterized the bill as the "worst sort of hybrid ever brought before the house." He believed the people would resent taking from them the right to nominate their candidates for attorney general.

There had been a convention nomination of the attorney general two years ago, he said. "The state house might have been for sale at the present time."

Speaker Young Breaks Tie

Speaker B. Loring Young cast his first rollcall vote of the year on a contested matter when he voted in favor of an amendment to the bill providing that in the awarding of contracts for public works, preference shall be given citizens of the United States. The amendment provides that the law shall not apply in cases where the alien bids are lower than those of citizens. The rollcall vote was 95 to 95, which meant the defeat of the amendment. The speaker then requested his name to be called and voted "yes."

The debate was opened by Mr. Hefner of Brighton, who asserted the ways and means committee had reported the amendment in order to "kill the bill."

Mr. Shattuck of Boston said that the amendment ought to be adopted as a protection to the public in getting its work done at the lowest fair rates.

Mr. Harrington of Fall River said the amendment "would nullify the bill altogether."

Mr. Mendum of Woburn said that there is a question of the practical operation of the bill in trading. The amendment was rejected.

After the bill had been amended, as stated above, it was ordered to a third reading.

Civil Service Bill Referred

Mr. Pond of Greenfield asked the house to reject the recommendations of the committee on counties that the bill which relates to appointments, suspensions and removals in the civil service ought not to pass. If the recommendation were rejected, he said, it should move that the bill be referred to the next annual session.

Under suspension of the rules, after explanation of Mr. Pond of Greenfield, the house, without debate or opposition, accepted in concurrence the report of the conference committee on the bill for giving preference in the civil service to disabled veterans.

The joint committee on rules reported an order that the attorney general be authorized and requested to bring suit in behalf of the state in his discretion, in such court as he may see fit, to determine the constitutionality of the Sheppard-Towner act for aid to mothers, for the sake of protecting the rights of the commonwealth and of its citizens. The order was adopted.

Under suspension of the rules, the house admitted the petition of Walter C. Kellogg for revival of the corporate powers of the Berkshire Animal Rescue league.

CHAS. W. MORSE

GIVES $5000 BAIL

PORTLAND, Me., May 16.—Charles W. Morse of Bath gave $5000 bail yesterday before United States Commissioner Chapman for his appearance May 26 to show cause why he should not be compelled to appear in the United States district court in New York city to answer to an indictment alleging conspiracy. Unless ordered to return by the United States district court here, Mr. Morse will be immune from pleading to this indictment so long as he remains outside the jurisdiction of the New York court.

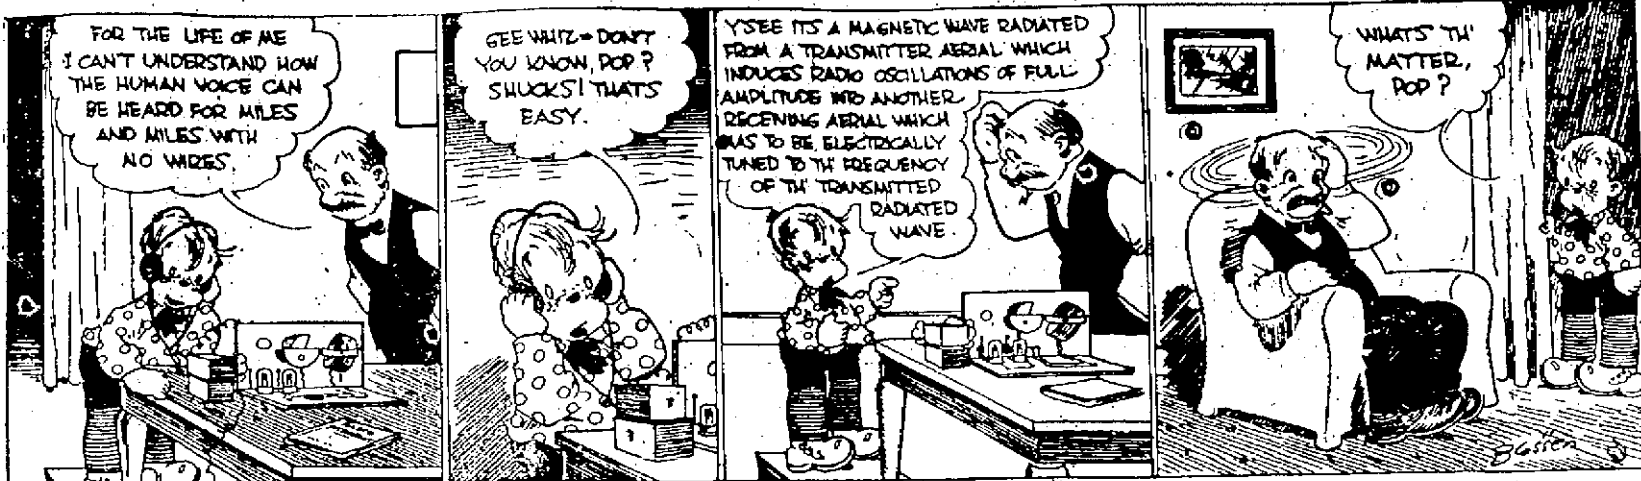

Rupert M. Much of Augusta, clerk of several of the Morse corporations, was a respondent also on a like charge. His case was disposed of in the same way. Miss Jennie R. Morse of Bath furnished bail for her brother and Mr. Much, being credited with ownership of the Morse mansion, assessed at $10,000.

District Attorney Merrill, on request from New York, secured a complaint with indictment attached, seeking Mr. Morse's appearance here yesterday. Continuance was asked by A. S. Littlefield, counsel for the respondents particularly because of a similar case against one of Mr. Morse's sons, pending in Boston, and to be heard within a few days. It is said that a second continuance here may be sought, to carry the hearing forward until May 31.

Mr. Morse and his sister motored from Bath, 40 miles, to appear here yesterday. The proceedings did not last more than 10 minutes.

PAINS IN THE BACK

When backache is associated with shortness of breath, palpitation and dizzy spells it is almost always caused by thin blood and requires tonic treatment.

"I was very weak, had dizzy spells and my heart palpitated violently," says Mrs. Fred Marion of No. 15 Grant st., Ogdensburg, N. Y. "I had no appetite, even the smell of food made me sick and my stomach troubled me after meals. I had awful pains in the back. I found relief by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Soon after taking them I felt much better and I grew stronger. My heart no longer palpitated excessively and my appetite increased. I am entirely free from the pains in the back now, I sleep better and no longer have the dizzy spells. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Price 50 cents.—Adv.

MAN STRUCK WITH AXE
DIES IN HOSPITAL

BOSTON, May 16.—Patricio Bifario, address unknown, died at the City hospital last night from a fracture of the skull received when he was struck over the head with an axe by Ramon Zeloz, aged 26, whose address is also unknown. Zeloz was arrested by officers of the East Dedham street station on a charge of murder.

According to the police, the affair happened yesterday morning in the yard of the Bristol Kindling Wood Co. at 42 Bristol street, South End, where both men were employed splitting wood.

ATTEMPT TO REVIVE INTEREST IN SCOUTS

The Boy Scout reorganization movement got under way last night at a meeting of the committee in the chamber of commerce rooms. The mayor and several clergymen were in attendance together with more than 100 interested scout workers. The officers elected were: President, C. D. A. Grasse; secretary, Frank Proctor; and treasurer, C. F. Langley. W. E. Brown, New England field executive of the Boy Scouts, presided and outlined the purpose of the meeting.

The speakers laid special stress on the fact that the present day Boy Scout movement is by far the best instrument in the formation of a boy's character.

Mayor Brown, in the course of his interesting address, pledged himself wholeheartedly to do all in his power to further the interest in the movement and suggested that a tag day be held to help finance the adopted plans.

An executive committee, with authority to start as soon as possible on a membership drive, was appointed. Experienced scoutmasters and assistant scoutmasters will constitute another committee.

The next meeting will be held Monday, May 22, at 8 p. m. in the chamber of commerce headquarters.

MOTHER OF FIVE CHILDREN SENTENCED

MANCHESTER, N. H., May 16.—Mrs. Katherine Marston, the woman burglar who was arrested in January, after thefts from 25 or more apartment houses here, was sentenced to serve five or seven years in state prison by the superior court yesterday. Mrs. Marston, the mother of five children, was unsuspected of the long series of breaks until a $5 gold piece stolen at one house was traced to her.

DANTE'S "INFERNO" TOO REALISTIC

HACKENSACK, N. J., May 16.—Dante's "Inferno" was blamed by fire marshals yesterday for a fire which damaged the Royal theatre here Saturday night. A film version of the hell scenes became overheated while being run through the projecting machine and exploded, the movie operator told the marshals.

WORCESTER CITY COUNCIL FOR BEER AND WINE

WORCESTER, May 16.—The common council last night, by a vote of 17 to 8, adopted a resolution to be sent to congress, if the board of aldermen concurs, setting forth that in the opinion of the city council the Volstead act does not represent the sentiment of a majority of the people and should be modified to permit sale of light beers and wines.

The vote was taken after a long and heated debate and meanwhile the board of aldermen had adjourned. The resolution will go to the upper board.

Several ministers condemned from their pulpits the proposal for the city council to take action, and four churches adopted resolutions of protest.

Mayor Sullivan appointed, with the concurrence of the aldermen, three members of the park and recreation commission, Edward L. Moore, to succeed Col. John F. J. Herbert, resigned; George L. Jacques, to succeed Dr. Julius Garst, and former Mayor James Logan, to succeed himself, the terms of the two having expired.

SLEUTHS MAKE CLEAN-UP AT WORCESTER

WORCESTER, May 16.—Clarence W. Clark, prohibition enforcement officer recently assigned to the Worcester district, and a squad of assistants disguised as laboring men with a thirst that only liquor would quench, made a clean-up in Worcester yesterday, and, according to Mr. Clark, secured evidence that will result in several Worcester men being summoned before United States Commissioner Raymond B. Fletcher on charges of violating the Volstead act.

The squad worked from early morning until late in the afternoon and visited former barrooms, hotels and other places, about which information had been given the officers. Mr. Clark refused to tell how many would be summoned for violating the law.

WHAT NEXT FOR PEGGY?

News from Paris about Peggy Joyce has been rather meagre the past few days, but this may be the lull before a romantic storm. This is the latest studio portrait of one of the most romantic figures of this generation.

Isn't this feeling about tires pretty universal

MOST car-owners intend to have a car the rest of their lives. Economical operation is getting more and more fashionable.

How many men do you know who won't expect tires to do their share of the saving?

This is the year for tire-merchants to study their customers closely.

The makers of U. S. Royal Cords have recently stated what is the biggest opportunity to serve in the tire business.

U. S. Royal Cords cannot take care of all the people who want the upward quality in tires.

Nor do they claim a monopoly of all good tire making methods.

It is the things they refuse to leave undone that make U. S. Royal Cords the measure of all automobile tires.

Not only what is put in but what is never left out—that reveals the Royal Cord practical ideal.

So Royal Cord makers feel free to say again what they have said before—

Let us compete for higher and higher quality.

For more and more public confidence.

The makers of United States Tires urge upon everybody—manufacturer and dealer alike—a new kind of competition.

Let us compete for more and more public confidence.

Let us compete for higher and higher quality.

Let us compete for still more dependable public service.

Confessions by 75 Tech Seniors—Answers to Questionnaires Announced

BOSTON, May 16.—Results of the questionnaire filled out by Technology seniors, the contents of which were made public yesterday, show that 60 per cent of the members of the class about to graduate do not expect to take up engineering after graduation. Most of them were emphatic in their answers to this question. "Never" and "Hell, no" were popular ways of expressing their feelings.

The average salary expected on graduation is $1300. After five years the average Tech man expects to get $5000, and after 10 years, $10,000. One student answered, "After graduation, enough for one; after five years, enough for two; after 10 years, enough for six."

In answer to the question, "Are you married?" 93 per cent of the replies were in the negative. Eleven per cent, however, admitted being engaged. The most popular answer to "Why not?" in their connections was, "No money, no honey."

About 75 out of the 650 men answering confessed that they never kissed a girl. One student tabulated his conquests: "Flappers, 2743; girls, 13."

The married and engaged men were emphatic in answer to the question, "How many have you kissed?" "One, so help me," answered an engaged man, expressing the attitude of all his brothers.

If we are to believe the questionnaires, practically every Tech man drinks and drinks anything—from weak tea to potentiaum cyanide. In answer to the question, "What do you drink?" one dead game sport answered: "I often wonder."

The most popular study seems to be women, according to the answers; the least popular, of course, is "descriptive geometry." Yale is the most popular college among Tech students, with Dartmouth second, surprisingly close in view of the fact that Tech has broken athletic relations with the Green.

Wellington posed out Smith for the distinction of being the most popular girl's college.

Prof. Eddie Miller, for years voted the most popular professor, was given a close battle this year by a comparatively new member of the faculty, Prof. H. J. Bowman.

The question regarding what Technology needs most brought out a host of whitebait answers: "a good boot-legger," "more men like me" and "some real co-eds," the majority seemed to think the institute is in most need of a president, more dormitories and a football team.

The class was asked, "Whom shall we notify in case of a student at the picnic?" Most of the students seemed anxious that St. Peter should be informed. One insisted that Babe Danforth be notified. Others begged that the boot-legger be not kept in ignorance.

The average Tech man is 23 years old, weighs 150 pounds and is 5 feet 10 inches tall. The most popular activity is cutting classes.

Asked how they would feel on graduation, the students all agreed, "Hot dog" was the universal answer.

SAYS SLAYERS WORE POLICE HATS

DUBLIN, May 16.—The mother of James, Francis and Thomas McKinnon, who were shot by intruders in their home at Ballymulderg last week, testified yesterday at the inquest on the body of James, the only son of the three to be killed, that the intruders, who fired volley after volley at her three sons, wore broad-crowned peaked hats similar to those worn by policemen.

The inquest, held at Magherafelt, County Londonderry, adjourned for one month because it was hoped that Francis and Thomas, who were seriously injured, would have sufficiently recovered by that time to testify.

ADVENTISTS ATTACK SUNDAY "BLUE LAWS"

SAN FRANCISCO, May 16.—Sunday "blue laws" have been attacked by members of the religious liberty department of the Seventh Day Adventists national convention in session here.

The whole social and political fabric of society "is permeated with the spirit of paternalism and sumptuary legislation, certain to cause serious troubles unless checked," said C. G. Longenecker, secretary of the department. He told the assembly that forces of reform legislation were organizing as never before "to establish laws which offend the individual rights of the people and are in direct opposition to the constitution."

STRATOS FORMS NEW GREEK CABINET

ATHENS, May 16. (By the Associated Press).—A new cabinet has been formed under Nicholas Stratos to succeed that headed by M. Gounaris, which resigned last Friday.

M. Stratos was one of the organizers in 1916 of the anti-Venizelos war party. He was minister of marine under Premier Gounaris in 1916, and prior to that had served as minister of the interior in the cabinet.

DEDICATE THE DANIEL WEBSTER HIGHWAY

NASHUA, N. H., May 16.—State officials from Massachusetts and New Hampshire, together with the Justices of the supreme and superior court and members of the Bar association of the Granite State, were guests of honor today at exercises held to dedicate the Daniel Webster highway. This stretch of road formerly the Merrimack valley highway, extends more than 200 miles from Nashua to Colebrook.

The exercises were preceded by a luncheon at the Nashua Country club where the Nashua Rotary club was host.

JUDGE DECLARES MARRIAGE BIGAMOUS

LOS ANGELES, May 16.—Jean Acker, motion picture actress from whom Rodolph Valentino, film actor, obtained an interlocutory decree of divorce Jan. 16, 1922, said today she "would like to do something" because of his marriage to Mexican, Lower California, last Saturday, to Winifred Hudnut, dancer and motion picture art director, known professionally as Natacha Rambova.

"I shall take the matter up with my attorney," said Miss Acker, who according to judges of the Los Angeles county superior court, still is Mrs. Valentino and will be until the interlocutory decree is made final Jan. 10, 1923.

According to Judge J. W. Summerfield, such a marriage as that contracted by Valentino and Miss Hudnut is bigamous.

IRISH REPUBLICANS AGAINST TREATY VOTE

DUBLIN, May 16.—At the offices of the provisional government here it was said late yesterday that nothing was known there regarding any conference being proposed with Sir James Craig, Michael Collins, Arthur Griffith and Winston Churchill, British minister of the colonies, as participants.

election issue, and will permit of no election involving a vote on the treaty. The labor party, however, is preparing a list of candidates. The dissident army is claiming the right to secure a postponement of the election by force, while in some districts the people are organizing committees for their own protection.

The election question will be raised at a meeting of the Ard Fels Tuesday, at which 3000 Sinn Fein delegates, presided over by Eamon de Valera, are expected to attend. It is supposed, a majority will support De Valera's views.

Try Radio-Audio Frequency Amplifier
For Ideal Set, Suggests Expert

By R. L. DUNCAN
Director, Radio Institute of America
What's the best set of all for the reception of radio broadcasting?

It's hard to say.
But I think that the radio-audio frequency amplifier is close to the top.
The parts for this set cannot be made easily. But they may be bought in any supply shop and rigged up according to the diagram with little trouble.

Hook-Up
No. 1—Antenna tuning inductance, which may be just a simple tuning coil.
No. 2—Variable condenser of .0005 or .0006 microfarads capacity.

No. 3, 10, 21 and 24—Amplifier, or "hard," vacuum tubes.
Nos. 4, 11, 17, 22 and 25—Filament rheostats.
No. 5—Six-volt "A" battery of 90 or more ampere hours capacity.
Nos. 6 and 7—"A" battery potentiometer.
No. 8—Variable "B" battery of 17½ to 50 volts.
No. 9—Radio frequency transformer.
No. 12—Variable condenser of .0001 microfarads capacity.
No. 13—Variocoupler.
Nos. 14 and 18—Variometers.
No. 15—Grid leak and grid condenser.
No. 16—Detector or "soft" tube.
Nos. 19 and 23—Audio frequency

transformers.
No. 20—Small fixed telephone condenser. Note that this fixed condenser is placed before the audio frequency transformation.
No. 26—Head phones of high resistance.

Suggestions
In using this circuit, do not ground the negative side of the six-volt "A" battery. The potentiometer, No. 6, may be dispensed with. If not used, the filament rheostat must be placed in the positive lead of the filament circuit.
This circuit may be used with an indoor loop.
But for best results use a well-strung outdoor aerial.

ties to about 40 metres and an experimental length of about 180 metres.
The last suggestion is due to complaints of the air ministry that aircraft traffic has been seriously interfered with by amateurs who have been allotted the general wave length of 1000 metres. If this is permitted to continue, says the committee, interference will become worse when night flying becomes more general. Most amateurs use their transmitting sets in the evening.

Benefits
Adoption of these three suggestions, according to the committee report, would produce two important results:
"The first is that the air service will have no further occasion to complain of amateur interference. The second, that the amateur will be satisfied with the power permitted him and will not have the temptation to ignore the terms of his license as regards excessive power, unauthorized wave lengths, times of working and stations communicated with."

PREPARE FOR WAR ON RUM-RUNNERS

DERBY LINE, Vt., May 16.—Prohibition enforcement agents and custom officials along the international boundary from Lake Champlain east are preparing for six months of guerrilla warfare with rum runners from now on.

Warm weather of the past few days has made the many trails and unguarded roads over the border passable for the first time since winter set in and in scores of farmhouses near the boundary line thousands of cases of whiskey are cached ready to be transferred to automobiles and brought over the line to be distributed from points many miles below the border.

The desperate character and daring of the rum runners in the past year has made the job of catching smugglers one for only stout hearted men and every agent is being supplied with automatic revolvers to enforce their authority.

GIRL TOOK POISON AFTER QUARREL

BOSTON, May 16.—Mrs. Bessie Dreyer, 24, was taken from her home at 17 Park street, South End, to the city hospital last night suffering from the effects of swallowing poison tablets, with suicidal intent, according to the police. The woman's condition is considered serious and she is under close observation.

It is said that Mrs. Dreyer and her husband had an argument at the conclusion of which the husband took their 15-month-old child, William, and started for the upper part of the house to put him to bed. While doing this he heard the cries of his wife and when he came downstairs she told him she had taken poison.

GRABS BABY FROM SLOOP WITH 2000 CASES OF BOOZE CAPTURED

NEW YORK, May 16.—In what old time railroad men declare to be the most remarkable rescue they ever saw, John J. Cotter, a locomotive engineer on the Greenwood Lake division of the Erie railroad, literally snatched a 17-month-old infant from under the wheels of his own moving locomotive after the emergency brakes had failed to bring his train to a halt.

The child was the grand daughter of one of his closest friends, and a brother engineer in the same division. Adele Lillian Cushman, the baby daughter of Reginald Cushman and the granddaughter of Ira M. Meade, lives in a house near Riverdale, the back yard of which extends near the tracks. Saturday afternoon the child made her way out of the yard.

The mother saw her climbing the lower railroad embankment just as Cotter's train came in sight. As the child reached the top of the embankment she tripped and fell prone across the tracks. The train was not more than 200 yards away.
Cotter immediately threw on the air and put every available mechanical force to work to cut down headway. He saw, however, that the heavy train would not stop in the space allotted. Jumping from his cab he made his way to the pilot and dropped to the lowest step, and as the engine reached the child, Cotter grasped the infant in one hand and swung her clear of the pilot and into his arms.

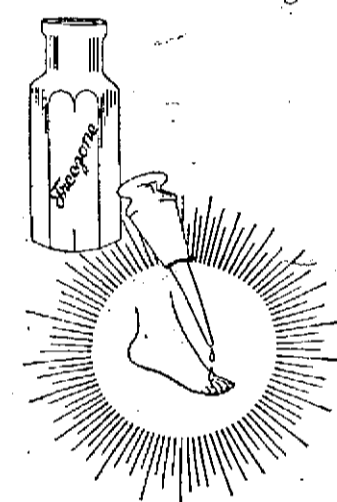

BID 30 CENTS FOR BUST OF EX-KAISER

SOUTH NORWALK, Conn., May 16.—A bronze bust of Kaiser Wilhelm II got an opening bid of 30 cents when it formed part of the things of the Waterland, was put up for auction at the surplus property sale of the United States shipping board, being held at the Wilson Point yards here yesterday.

Before the bidding ended its value rose to $35, at which price Dominic O. Vetroville, proprietor of the Mermaid Inn, Westport, purchased it. The paintings and other art objects from the Waterland are to be offered for sale at a later date.

GRABS BABY FROM SLOOP WITH 2000 CASES OF BOOZE CAPTURED

NEW YORK, May 16.—The first prize of the "hooch navy" operating off the Atlantic coast to prevent smuggling of intoxicating liquors was brought into New York harbor today by the United States customs service boat Hahn. It was a sloop of 125 tons displacement, loaded, it was declared, with 2000 cases of whiskey.

The prize was captured by the Hahn last night off the New Jersey coast about 15 miles south of Monmouth. Six members of the crew were arrested.

PANTHERS WIN IN TWELVE INNINGS

The Panthers of upper Gorham street are out for the 15 year old championship of the city, and their record so far this season indicates that they will be a hard team to keep away from the title. Last night the Panthers met the Rubens of East Chelmsford in the third game of the series and after a hard fought twelve inning battle the Panthers landed the victory by the score of 16 to 12. Powers and Perry, the battery for the winners played a most important part in the victory. The former twirled a splendid game and also starred at the bat. Perry's catching was a treat to look upon and his throwing in the bases was regular big town stuff. Relying on first base and Stack on third also figured prominently in six plays. The other members of the team did their bit to bring home the bacon. The Panthers are ready to play any 15 year old team in the city. Answer through this paper.

LONDON, May 15.—Amateurs in England are raising their voices for rights equal to those of their American brothers.
At the recent annual conference of the Affiliated Wireless Societies of Great Britain a resolution was passed requesting the Wireless society of London to open negotiations with the postoffice authorities regarding regulations of amateur wireless transmissions. As a result a committee of the Wireless society of London has submitted the following requests to the postmaster general:

Less Restrictions

1. That no restrictions be placed on amateur transmitting stations communicating with other amateur stations. At present, an amateur is limited to communicate with only five other allotted stations.

2. That amateurs be permitted to transmit for an aggregate maximum of two hours in each 24, limiting each transmission to 10 minutes. This would invalidate the regulation requiring an amateur to transmit only during the two hours specified in his license.

3. That wave lengths for amateurs be reduced from the present 1000 me-

Sen. Capper Assails Advocates of American Valuation in Senate

(By the Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, May 16.—American valuation again was brought into senate discussion of the tariff bill today, Senator Capper, republican, Kansas, chairman of the senate agricultural bloc, charging that "the most zealous advocates" of this system desired it because they believed that by it they could "conceal from the American people the extent to which they desire to raise rates."

they are seeking rates so high as to be unpopular; that they are endeavoring not to represent the will of the people, but to fool the people.

He declared that the "real propaganda for American valuation was coming in spite of the action of the senate finance committee in abandoning it in favor of the foreign valuation, and that it would be launched by those who 'desire excessively high protective duties on manufactures.'"

He said American valuation might be properly resorted to to meet unusual emergency situations, but added that "beyond that it is a cloak for excessive protection and a needless political burden for the republican party to carry."

To support his argument that American valuation would conceal the amount of protection accorded, he presented some figures from the valuation report of the finance committee, in which house bill rates were converted to the basis of foreign values.

Eighty-one items of the chemical schedule, Underwood bill, 16 per cent; Payne-Aldrich bill, 33; Senate bill, 33; House bill, 71.

Seventy-eight manufacturers of wool, Underwood bill 35 per cent; Payne-Aldrich bill, 57; Senate bill, 51; House bill, 75.

Eighty-seven items of silk schedule, Underwood bill, 44; Payne-Aldrich bill, 52; Senate bill, 55; House bill, 53.

One hundred and twenty-four items of paper schedule, Underwood bill, 16; Payne-Aldrich bill, 25; Senate bill, 25; House bill, 33.

Two hundred and thirty-seven items of wood schedule, Underwood bill, 12; Payne-Aldrich bill, 18; Senate bill, 20; House bill, 35.

He asserted that if American valuation was to be used to conceal undue increase in protective rates it would increase the "bumper game" at the expense of the farmer's products. It would not apply to his products, the rates on which would be specified and not based on value, while its use would increase the price of many products which he uses.

"Again," he continued, "American valuation, by increasing the height of the tariff wall, would limit the exportation of agricultural products in exchange for manufactured goods bought in foreign countries. Many of our agricultural products are on an export basis which will not help the producers of these products except under exceptional conditions and on special grounds."

He added that, in addition to this, the power of foreign countries to buy the products of our farms and ranches is limited by a tariff which prevents our people from buying on a fair competitive basis the manufactured articles of the highly industrialized countries of Europe, the plight of agriculture will be even worse than it is at present."

press reports, having solved the Russian problem.

Great Disappointment at the American decision was expressed generally in conference circles.

The surprise was accentuated by reason of a statement the Italian press attributed to Ambassador Child, quoting him as saying to Foreign Minister Schanzer that the United States probably would accept an invitation to The Hague on condition that the powers bind themselves not to conclude separate agreements with Russia while The Hague commission was sitting and that the decisions of the commission be referred to the respective governments for final action.

When the news of the American declaration got abroad it became at once the topic of the day. The opinion generally expressed was that American absence from The Hague might kill that meeting as the refusal of the United States to participate at Genoa was in the eyes of many of the delegates the chief reason for the failure of the conference here today to achieve definite results.

Those among the delegates here who were participants in the Washington armaments conference have frequently reiterated their conclusion that America believes the salvation of Europe can only come by each country earnestly setting to work to restore her finances by balancing her state budget, and that this can only be done by reducing expenses, especially by limiting armaments.

"The only real difference between Genoa and The Hague, as the latter was projected," said a leading delegate today, "was the participation of the United States at The Hague. Now that America has refused the invitation I cannot see why, in a month's time, it should be possible to solve at The Hague through a commission of experts the problems which the statesmen plenipotentiaries and the experts together failed to solve here. I do not like to prophesy, but it would not surprise me at all if America's refusal should prove the death blow to The Hague meeting."

When announcement of the declaration of the Washington government was conveyed to the French delegation keen disappointment was expressed. It was commented that France was at one with America in forecasting the dangers from the attitude of the soviet representatives as disclosed in their present memorandum, if the communists persisted in their present doctrine.

"Here at Genoa, however," said one of the French delegates, "the Bolsheviks have been plainly playing to the gallery, proclaiming their theories to the world in order to satisfy the radical Bolshevik wing in Russia."

"At The Hague they would probably be less theatrical and get down to business, realizing they must do so if they expect any nautical assistance."

League Council Acts
GENEA, May 16. (By the Associated Press.)—The Council of the League of Nations refused today to take up the Russian problem and referred to the Genoa conference, the Norwegian government's request for an immediate inquiry by the league into the general situation in Russia and the effect of the famine on economic reconstruction in Europe.

Dr. Nansen insisted that a permanent body should not refer such a vital problem to a temporary organization like Genoa, adding that the members of the council would have failed in their first duty to their government, if they refused to act in this matter. All the members of the council, however, supported Lord Balfour's resolution passing the question on to Genoa, but only after the council agreed to reconsider it if it should be buried at Genoa. Dr. Nansen accepted this compromise resolution.

The telegram sent to the Genoa conference reads as follows:

"The council, having heard a discussion on the economic consequences and the spread of disease as a result of the famine, desires to recommend to the Genoa conference or some commission growing out of the Genoa conference that all available information be coordinated on the effect which the famine must have on European reconstruction."

Dr. Nansen praised the work of the American relief administration in Russia and said the Americans were now feeding nearly 5,000,000 people. But he declared all the relief organizations in Russia could not expect to overcome the famine which probably would be just as bad next year, since the sowing of next year's crops would be only 20 per cent of the pre-war average.

U. S. Rejects Invitation

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The United States having removed today the last possible doubt as to the finality of its decision not to participate in conferences on the European situation of the Genoa type, officials here waited with interest the next move of the powers attending the Italian meeting.

Impartial observers at Genoa have been unanimous recently in stating that only the hope of securing the attendance of the United States either at Genoa or at the proposed conference at The Hague had prevented the arising of an impasse. This hope was definitely removed in the reply, dispatched by the state department last night to Ambassador Child, in a formal invitation proffered through the French delegation at Genoa.

"This government is unable to conclude that it can helpfully participate in the meeting at The Hague," Secretary Hughes cabled the American ambassador "as this would appear to be a continuance under a different nomenclature of the Genoa conference, and destined to encounter the same difficulties if the attitude disclosed in the Russian memorandum of May 11 remains unchanged."

The United States, Mr. Hughes continued, maintained its original view that "the ultimate question" to be considered in connection with European economies would be found in "restoration of productivity in Russia, the essential conditions of which must be provided within Russia herself."

France May Decline

PARIS, May 16.—(By the Associated Press.)—The declaration of the American government to participate in the conference of experts at The Hague on the Russian question is attributed in official circles here to the ambiguity of the memorandum setting forth the agenda of the conference which in French opinion may be interpreted so as to permit the discussion of political questions.

"Unless conditions are laid down as to avoid this danger, there is little likelihood it was declared, that France will be represented at The Hague."

YOUNG MOTHER NOW STRONG

Her Mother's Faith in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Led Her To Try It

Kenosha, Wisconsin.—"I cannot say enough in praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My mother had great faith in it as she had taken so much of it and when I had trouble after my baby was born she gave it to me. It helped me so much more than anything else had done that I advise all women with female trouble to give it a fair trial and I am sure they will feel as I do about it."

Mrs. FRED. P. HANSEN, 502 Symonds St., Kenosha, Wisconsin.

A medicine that has been in use nearly fifty years and that receives the praise and commendation of mothers and grandmothers is worth your consideration.

If you are suffering from troubles that sometimes follow child-birth bear in mind that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a woman's medicine. It is especially adapted to correct such troubles.

The letters we publish ought to convince you; ask some of your women friends or neighbors—they know its worth. You will, too, if you give it a fair trial.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE
Mae and Ross Wilton, looking just the same as on previous visits to Lowell, but providing even more real pleasure, stand out prominently at B. F. Keith's theatre this week.

Free from unnecessary flourish, in fact quite unostentatious in appearance, the stars never fail to leave the impression that their act is uncommonly good.

With smoothness personified they slip gracefully from one feature to another, combining vocal, musical and violin music in a perfect harmony of sound.

They have switched from the "blues" to the "jazz" and last evening the audience was most insistent that they linger longer and sing more of these unaccompanied spirituals.

Perfectly wonderful feats of magic and marvelous exhibitions of strength are shown by the Choy Ling Foo troupe of Chinese wonder-workers.

Each member of the troupe is a specialist in one thing or another, and their act is carried through with amazing speed. Just little things such as cutting air and whirling and spinning in mid air held only by the hair of the head, are some of the high spots in the act.

While one of the troupe is diving through three circles of suspended knives, another whirls jugs of water attached to ends of a long rope, while still another snaps long strips of paper into fantastic designs.

James Mullin and Anna Francis present "Ain't We Got Fun." Mullin is the big boy grown up, but still in the calf-love stage and his comedy is good enough to compel one continuous laugh from his audience.

Earl S. Dewey and Mabel Rogers in "No Tomorrow" tell an unusual story of the end of the world, with only

TO HOUSE ANDREW JOHNSON TAILOR SHOP

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 16.—Contract for the erection of a building to house the tailor shop at Greenville, Tenn., where former President Andrew Johnson once worked, was awarded to a construction firm there today by the Andrew Johnson memorial committee.

The last Tennessee legislature appropriated $50,000 to purchase the lot and erect a marble and brick structure which will house the shop.

Author of "In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree" and "I'm Afraid to Go Home in the Dark" Passes Away

OAKLAND, Calif., May 16.—Harry H. Williams, composer and motion picture director, is dead here after a brief illness. He was credited with composing "In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree," "I'm Afraid to Go Home in the Dark" and other popular songs.

GOLDIE RAPP INJURED

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 16.—Goldie Rapp, third baseman for the Philadelphia Nationals, was picked up unconscious in the third inning of yesterday's game with St. Louis after he had fallen into the locals' dugout going after a foul hit by McHenry. He was revived after several minutes and the Cardinals' physician stated that the infielder suffered a fractured rib, a sprained ankle and lacerations of the body. Lee took his place at third.

"Our floors are more than clean"

"Some housekeepers think that thorough and frequent scrubbing is all that floors ever need. I had that idea, too, before I realized that average soaps and scouring compounds haven't any effect on germs which get into floor cracks and crannies."

"Sarah Marsh enlightened me. She popped in one Friday morning while I was mopping up the mud the Harrigan boy always brings into the kitchen when he delivers the meat. I don't believe he knows a door mat when he sees one right under his nose."

"Sarah watched me fill a fresh pail of scouring suds. 'Goodness gracious, Ethel!' she exclaimed, 'Why don't you use Sylpho-Nathol in your mop-water? How do you expect to destroy the germs in the dirt that's brought in from the street on people's shoes? Did you ever stop to think of the positive danger that is tracked back and forth across your floors from morning until night?'

"That's how I was introduced to Sylpho-Nathol."

"Sylpho-Nathol is an effective safeguard against germs because it is 4 1/2 times stronger than carbolic acid. But it doesn't hurt your hands a bit, nor injure things. The druggist says it is as safe to have in the house as a cake of scouring soap. Just a tablespoonful in a pail of warm water makes a clean-smelling, pearly-gray solution that's ready for immediate use."

Mop-water is just one of the many things for which Sylpho-Nathol is indispensable. It should be used regularly for sink drains and garbage receptacles; for cellar corners; around the bathroom tiling and fixtures; as a flush for the closet bowl—wherever odors may start or disease germs breed. Sylpho-Nathol comes in four handy sizes, 15c, 35c, 65c, $1.25. Most good grocers and druggists have it. If yours hasn't, he can get it easily. Just ask for it by the name—"Sylpho-Nathol."

She could eat anything—without indigestion or sleeplessness

For a time she had been troubled with gas after her evening meal. The distress was most painful after eating potatoes or other starchy foods, of which she was very fond.

Then she started taking two cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast every night between her evening meal and bedtime. She poured about a half cup of boiling hot water over the yeast cakes, stirred them thoroughly, added a little cold water and drank.

She found she could eat anything and sleep splendidly afterward.

Thousands of men and women are finding that Fleischmann's Yeast corrects stomach and intestinal troubles. It promotes the flow of bile and pancreatic juice. Appetite is always kept normal and you are protected against indigestion.

Add 2 to 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast to your daily diet. You will find that your whole digestive system is greatly benefited. Be sure it's Fleischmann's Yeast—the familiar tin-foil package with the yellow label. Place a standing order with your grocer for Fleischmann's Yeast.

The Hamblers won their fifth consecutive victory by defeating the Meads 11 to 4 at the Chamber street grounds. The Hamblers will play the Wanderers tomorrow night at 6 o'clock at the Chamber street grounds.

The Nationals have defeated the Dracut Sluggers by the score of 16 to 15.

The White Sox would like to challenge any 11-12 year old team in the city. For games answer through this paper.

The Bulldogs defeated the Belvidere Cubs by a score of 9 to 0 and would like to challenge the Midgets for a 45 cent ball.

The Young Bulldogs defeated the Oakland Stars by a score of 19 to 3 and were likely to play the St. Peter's sixth grade team next Saturday morning for a 45 cent ball.

The Zouaves of Notre Dame (6 Lourdes) have a winning team this year. They defeated the Unity A. C. Saturday at Washington Park by a score of 11 to 2. The Zouaves juniors also won their first game Saturday morning. Games with teams through this paper.

The Young Yankees defeated the Cubs Saturday by a score of 5 to 1 and would like to arrange a game for Wednesday.

The Young Yankees defeated the Davidson Sluggers yesterday by a score of 9 to 0.

The Burnside Juniors would like to play any 10-12 year old team in the city. For games call 4874-W.

The Tigers would like to play the Athletics or the 13-14 year old Oakland. If challenge is accepted, answer through this paper. We would like to play the Lincoln A.A. or the Young Cubs at Shedd park.

The Emerald Seconds broke even in their doubleheader last Saturday winning the first game, 19 to 17 and losing the second 11 to 8. The Belvidere Pirates turned the trick in the second game. On Sunday the Seconds won a forfeited game against the St. Peter's fifth grade.

The Dwarfs would like a game with the Centerville Stars on the Warren street grounds Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. If accepted, call 3305-W between 5 and 5:30 o'clock, and ask for Manager Conway.

The Beavers would like to play any 10-11 year old team in the city. Allies preferred. For games call 3323 and ask for J. J. Scary or answer through this paper.

The Belmonts defeated the Belvidere Midgets Sunday, 9 to 5. In 1919 they won the championship. Next Sunday the Belmonts will play the strong St. Peter's Cadets at Lincoln park.

The American Eagles defeated the Little Jeffers Saturday afternoon by the score of 11 to 10 and will play a return game with them next Saturday for a 45 cent ball.

Doubts If Babe Can Catch Him

KEN AT BAT

Since Babe has broken into the home run spotlight a great many people have asked me what chance I believe I have to beat Babe's record of 59 home runs. Frankly, I am not aiming to top Ruth's record. Of course I would be delighted to turn the trick, but honestly I am not shooting quite that high.

Ruth is getting a very late start. In all probability, after getting back into the game, it will be a couple of weeks before he hits his stride.

A Big Handicap
That means that Ruth will be spotting me a start of about seven weeks. Great as Ruth is, I don't believe he can overcome the handicap which the suspension by Judge Landis has imposed. It is my opinion that any player who can make 40 home runs in the American League this year will lead the organization in that department of play. I am positive that will be too great a number for Ruth to overcome.

Goal 40 Home Runs
I don't believe any batsman in the history of modern baseball will equal the deeds of Ruth. Batters of his class happen about every 100 years. My goal is to lead the American league in home runs in 1922.

In accomplishing that feat I hope to make at least 40 home runs, which will rank me next to Ruth in the annals of swat.

1922 Is Pitcher's Year

BY BOB DOWMAN
NEW YORK, May 16—1922, the pitcher's year.

That is the striking difference shown by the games played thus far this year as compared with last season's records.

The first month of play last year was characterized by the large number of pitchers knocked out of the box.

This year a different story is being written into the records.

Two, three and four-hit games have been numerous.

Pitchers have gone the full route more often than they have been removed.

On April 30 (double) Pitcher Charles Robertson of the Chicago White Sox electrified the baseball world by turning a no-hit game against the Detroit team. Not a man reached first base.

Just a week later, on May 7, Jess Bursey, veteran twirler of the New York Giants, duplicated Robinson's performance, but added one base on balls to Williams, the early Philadelphia player to reach first base.

How different from these record-breaking performances was the story of the early play of 1921.

A game in which one of the contestants failed to make over 10 hits was considered a walk-out.

Batters, from Babe Ruth down, were on a rampage such as was never known before in the history of the game.

Had the pitchers advanced for the unprecedented hitting, and the lively ball, fading pitchers, all became the subject of heated discussion.

But the pitchers dropped off somewhat toward the end of the season the batters still showed a marked supremacy over the pitchers.

And a twirler turned in a no-hit game.

This year, if the past month of play indicates anything, the pitchers will hang up some new records for the future stars to shoot at.

CHARLEY ROBERTSON

JEFF SMITH BEATS PAT MCCARTHY

PROVIDENCE, May 16—Jeff Smith of New Jersey was given the decision over Pat McCarthy of Boston in the main bout of 12 rounds at the National A.C. last night. Smith carried every round.

Benny McIntire of Boston was knocked out in the third round of the semi-final by Jimmy Walsh of Taunton.

Phil Conte of Providence and Young Terry of Bristol fought a knockout six rounds. Young Kennedy of Swanton won from Young Duffy of Providence in one round.

IMPROVEMENTS AT GOLDEN COVE PARK

By connecting Chelmsford town water to the stadium at Golden Cove park, the Lowell Sluggers club has made notable improvement. Heretofore the water was not available in the immediate vicinity and had to be carried some distance.

Several new horses have been purchased locally and the owners hope to start them in the Memorial Day races, which will include five events. Entry blanks are now being mailed.

MANY ENTRIES FOR KENNEL CLUB SHOW

Tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, there will be a very important meeting of the Lowell Kennel club in the old Fellows building, Middlesex street. The May 26th show has been postponed and entries will be received at this meeting. It is expected that 100 dogs will compete for the various prizes.

Water York of Haverhill, an experienced judge of Boston Terriers, will present a paper on the best representative of this breed. There also will be special prizes for all other breeds of both sexes. There will be two classes for puppies one for under six months and one for under

TIGERS MOVE UP LADDER

Third Straight Over Yankees

Places Detroit in Tie With Cleveland

16 Home Runs Made in 4-Game Series Between Athletics and Browns

NEW YORK, May 16.—Ty Cobb hurled another recruit pitching ace at the Yankees in the last game of the series and, launching a heavy assault on Sam Jones, the batting Tigers made it three out of four from the league leaders and moved into a tie for third place with Cleveland. Stoner held the Huggins to three hits and won easily, 6 to 1.

At the same time another troublesome outfit, Connie Mack's Athletics completed the downfall of St. Louis by pounding out a 12-1 triumph over the Browns, who lost another chance to go ahead of New York. Four home runs featured the game and brought the total number of circuit clouts in the four game series to 16.

Artie Nehf had the better of Vic Aldridge in a tight pitching duel and the Giants made it two straight from the series while St. Louis plummeted three Philly pitchers for 23 hits, 19 runs and a one-sided victory.

Walter Johnson won another for the Senators, beating LeRoy E. Cleveland, 2-0. "Tip" Collins blanked Chicago, 2-0, and the Red Sox made it three in a row.

Tracy's homer in the 10th gave Pittsburgh a 6-5 decision over Boston while Brooklyn was unable to solve Huggins and lost another to Cincinnati, 6-2.

Events in the baseball world during the past few weeks have certainly borne out the truth of that adage.

Within ten days' time some very remarkable feats have been performed in the major leagues. As is usually the case, the record-breaking performances came in bunches.

Of course the most notable feat was the pitching of a no-run, no-hit, no-error game by Charley Robertson of the Chicago White Sox.

I was one of the umpires in this game and I regret very much that Robertson's honors were slightly dimmed by the accusation that he tampered with the ball.

Robertson's victory was clean cut. The fact that the recruit performed it against Detroit, one of the hardest hitting clubs in the history of the game, made it all the more noteworthy.

Robertson used a fast ball with great success, and in a series of low balls, he kept the Yankees off balance. His control was perfect. Only two batters who faced him worked the count to three balls.

Shortly after this game, Shriver, a recruit pitcher working for Brooklyn, scored a shutout in his first major league start, and added only two runs to a record few recruits make in their major league debut.

In that same game, Sam Post, a recruit pitcher, got his name into the baseball records. In this game Post had only one chance at first base, a full-out. This qualified the National league record made by Bill Hinchman of Pittsburgh.

A few days later Jess Barnes, the star of the 1921 world series, shut out the Philadelphia club without a hit. Barnes came mighty close to equaling Robertson's record. Only one man reached first base, and that was on a base on balls, but was doubled up on the next play.

The same day that Barnes was mowing down the Phillies, Sam Jones of New York Yankees was turning a great game against Washington.

For seven innings Jones reeled the Nationals in order. He was on the way to duplicate Robertson's feat. In the eighth inning, however, the Nationals broke through and the game was badly played. In the ninth inning another Washington player got on through an infield scratch.

All of which leads us up to the conclusion that the pitchers are once more coming into their own. It is also the very general belief that the ball in use this season is not nearly so lively as the 1921 brand.

The fans like hitting but will probably welcome a pitchers' battle every now and then as a sport desert.

QUERIES ABOUT SPORTS

BY BILLY EVANS

Do you believe the ball in use in the major leagues last year was a livelier ball than that of former years? I regard this as the chief reason for so many 400 hitters and the large number of home runs that were made.

I have always refrained from referring to the ball in use last year as a lively ball, but have simply said that it was regarded as the best workmanlike ball that I naturally was considerably better.

I do not think there was any intent to increase hitting. The fact that the very best work was made, making it possible to win the ball much more easily, was the best workmanlike ball that I naturally was considerably better.

WOULD INCLUDE NAME WANTS AMERICAN ON OF GEN. EDWARDS INTELLECTUAL BOARD

GENEVA, May 16.—(By Associated Press)—An international committee to study and suggest methods of intellectual co-operation throughout the world, on which the United States shall be represented, was selected by the Council of the League of Nations yesterday.

It is understood Dr. Nicholas Butler, president of Columbia university, probably will be asked to join.

The committee will meet at Geneva this summer and develop a plan to be presented at the September meeting of the Assembly. International organization of scientific research relations between the various universities will be the first problem to be considered.

The committee follows: Prof. Albert Einstein, of the University of Berlin; Madame Marie Curie, the radium expert of the University of Paris; Dr. Henri Bergson, of the French Academy; Miss Bonnevill, professor of zoology in the University of Christchurch; G. A. Murray, Oxford University; F. Riffini of the University of Turin; Dr. de Torres Quevedo, University of Madrid; J. Desreux, ex-minister of science, of Belgium; A. de Castro, University of Rio de Janeiro; L. S. Bangor, University of Calcutta; and G. de Reynolds, University of Bern.

STORE EMPLOYEES REMEMBER MANAGER

When the Merrimack Clothing Co. closed its doors Saturday night P. J. Mahoney, manager of the store, who had worked his way up from bundle boy to manager, was presented a handsome smocking set by the employees of the establishment as a mark of esteem.

The presentation was made by Nelson C. Huntley, who spoke briefly of the pleasant relations that always existed between the manager and the employees of the store. Mr. Mahoney responded feelingly and when the time came for the parting, all wished each other Godspeed in future undertakings.

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

Plans are practically completed for the big hill climb to be held on May 30 at Dunstable, under the auspices of the Merrimack Valley Motorcicle club. For the past several weeks, a lively committee headed by Dan Aguirre, has been busy on the arrangements, and it was learned today that the plans are all set for the big event. It is expected that the entry list will be very large, with competitors coming from all cities and towns in the valley.

The V.M.C. and Knights of Columbus, the two new members of the Twilight League, will meet on the South common tonight, and a fast game is expected. The league has been holding practice sessions for the past few weeks and it is reported that some classy ball players will be seen in action when the game gets underway.

Philly Doyle and Young George Gardner are training as never before for their bout here on Friday night. Doyle is working out under the direction of Jack Leahy, who told today that the "Ace" had already in great condition, but that he will keep him in training until the day before the bout.

Gardner, it is reported, has gone to Diamond Hill to put on the finishing touches. He has been working out at Chick Hayes' gymnasium in Boston about a week, but word came to Lowell today that he went to the Rhode Island farm to complete his work.

The Boyle-Gardner bout has been in the air for more than a month, and

Bar "Passing the Hat" at Twilight Games

BOSTON, May 16.—The twilight ball tossers are forbidden to "pass the bonnet" for collections on public playgrounds, but they are to be permitted to derive revenue for support of their teams for the sale of printed scenic cards.

That's the agreement reached between Mayor Curran last night and the park commission to which body he referred this troublesome question, as the twilight league schedule begins to swing into full step.

A park commission regulation of long standing forbidding collection of funds for any purpose on public playgrounds, soon after twilight sessions, became effective, police captains in action of the city department to receive complaints from persons who said they were being "browbeaten" into contributing from the twilight ball tossers.

The complaint was that the ball tossers were being "browbeaten" into contributing from the twilight ball tossers.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE
 By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Louis Martel, of Lowell, Massachusetts, wife of John Martel, to the Central Savings Bank, a corporation established under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and located at said Lowell, dated April 21, 1916, and recorded in the Registry of Deeds for the Northern District of the County of Middlesex in said Commonwealth, Book 274, Page 170, will be sold at public auction for breach of the conditions of said mortgage deed on the premises hereinafter described on Wednesday the seventh day of June, A. D. 1922, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed and therein described substantially as follows:

A certain parcel of land situated in the part of said town known as Middlesex Village, being lot numbered Eight (8) on a plan of land entitled, Plan of Town Lots belonging to E. J. Gralton, of Lowell, Mass., and owned by Frederick R. Fargo, surveyor, and recorded with said Registry, Book of Plans 8, Plan 16. The said lot 8 is bounded as follows: northerly by lot numbered 9 on said plan ninety and 88-100 feet; easterly by land of heirs of Jesse Smith forty (40) feet; southerly by lot numbered 7 on said plan eighty-nine and 71-100 feet westerly by a street or way called Middlesex Park forty (40) feet. Containing three thousand six hundred and twenty (3620) square feet, more or less. The said land is conveyed subject to the following restrictions: no building shall be erected thereon, the main walls of which shall have within fifteen (15) feet of the line of curbing of said street known as Middlesex Park as now laid out.

The above described premises will be sold and conveyed subject to any and all unpaid taxes, municipal or other assessments and tax sales which may be due or to become due thereon. The purchaser will be required to pay $100 in cash at the time and place of sale and the balance in ten days from the day of sale at 12 o'clock noon at said Bank.

THE MAGIC SIDE PEG

"LET'S BE GONE," SHOUTED KING VERDO

"What do you wish me to do?" asked King Verdo when Nick had explained all about everything. "How can we find out whether this fellow, King Indig of the Diddys, is handsome than I am? But personally I can't imagine anyone thinking that blue hair is good looking when there is someone around with a lovely long green beard like mine."

"Longhead the Wiseman has decided," said Nick.

"What did he decide?" asked Verdo.

"No one knows," answered Nick. "It's in a magic photograph record that Nancy and I found."

"Well, where's the record?"

"It's back in King Indig's palace," Nick told him. "We can't play it for we haven't got the right needle to put on the photograph."

"Where's the needle?" asked King Verdo.

"It's the third peg in the heel of your left shoe," said Nick.

"Well, I declare!" chuckled King Verdo. "I never heard anything as amusing in my life. The third peg in the left heel of my—, let's see!" And he hauled up his foot over his knee to look.

"Why, it's gone!" he cried. "There's nothing but a hole."

Nancy's sharp eyes saw something. She pointed to the lump of mud King Verdo had stepped off. "There it is," she cried. "It's sticking in that."

Just then the lump of mud started to roll away.

"No, you don't!" cried King Verdo, grabbing it and putting the peg in his pocket. "Now what do you suppose that mud was running off for?"

"It must be Twelve Toes the Sorcerer again," said Nick. "He doesn't want you or King Indig to marry Princess Therna. He wants her himself. He's tried to stop us every way he could."

"The villain!" shouted King Verdo. "He can't practice his magic here. Let's be gone. We'll go to the land of the Diddys, and once and for all put all about

HARD TO FOOL

'EM IN CHELMSFORD

Resolved that through the majesty of the law he shall receive his just dues, and that no one may impose on his credit system without paying the full penalty, Eben T. Adams, a Chelmsford grocer, brings suit to recover a grocery bill of 70 cents from one of his recalcitrant debtors.

According to the public records in the district clerk's office, the itemized bill for which the plaintiff seeks to recover is as follows:

February 8, 1919, 1 lb. puppy bread 15c
August 20, 1920, 1 lb. dog bread 35c
August 20, 1920, 1/2 lb. mixed cakes 20c
Total 70c

The suit is partially pending since 1919, and its final settlement, which should occur soon, will be of great interest, and a warning to those who defy the civil statutes by failing to attend to their accounts.

SHIPPING PROBLEMS

Freight Matters of Vital Interest Locally to Be Discussed Friday

Lowell shippers by freight will be interested in the meeting of the New England Traffic League to be held in the reading room of the Boston chamber of commerce on Friday afternoon of this week, when the important matter of the proposed cancellation of class rates on the Boston & Maine railroad will be taken up.

The local chamber will be represented at the meeting by Assistant Secretary Edward W. Gallagher, through the chamber of commerce, strenuously object to the new plan, because if the cancellation of class rates becomes effective, it will mean the payment of extra switching charges of seventy cents per ton to the Boston & Maine or a long haul of a mile or a mile and a half to the New Haven terminal. These extra switching charges will have to be paid to the New Haven road, if shippers are less than carload lots. Furthermore, it will practically abolish Lowell's quickest route to New York via Worcester and leave only roundabout routes, thus entailing dissatisfaction and inconvenience.

KATALAZOS—Rita Katalazos, aged 1 year and 6 months, died yesterday at the home of her parents, and James Katalazos, 120 Lewis street.

REMONSTRANTS HEARD ON CEMETERY PETITION

A hearing on the petition of Rev. Alexander O'Connell, pastor of the Protestant Episcopal church of St. Paul, to establish a cemetery on the grounds of Spaulding park in Rogers street, was held by the members of the board of health at city hall late yesterday afternoon. There was considerable opposition to the granting of the petition and after hearing both sides the board took the matter under advisement.

Hon. Dennis J. Murphy appeared for the petitioner and said his client represented a growing parish of from 250 to 300 members, who for the most part are of the city of their own. He said they have been given an opportunity to purchase Spaulding park and they believe it a fitting place for a cemetery. He also stated that the drainage facilities in the district were adequate.

William D. Regan, former city solicitor, appeared as a remonstrant in behalf of the city and said the board must pay necessary attention to the well-being of the living while preserving a decent respect for the dead. He argued that the sewerage in the vicinity of the park was nothing more or less than the remnants of a broken system, running into an exposed brook that is stagnant for months on the year. He made reference to St. Patrick's cemetery, which he said recently that a proper drainage system connecting with the city's system was installed. He also brought out that in his opinion the board had no right to hear the petition before the signs of the health problem had been reported. He stated that before a municipality can act on such a petition—if there is any possibility of the community's water supply being affected—the state health commissioner must first give his approval. Others who appeared in opposition were H. C. Merrill, M. Coyne, M. Kelley, Alfred Foucher, Joseph C. Sarmento and Joseph P. Mullaney. The board took the matter under advisement.

MATRIMONIAL
The marriage of Mr. Joseph Collage and Miss Emma McPhail, both of North Billerica, took place May 11, the officiating clergyman being Rev. Chester Armstrong, pastor of the North Billerica Baptist church. The best man was Mr. Charles J. Barrett, while the bridemaid was Miss Janet McPhail, a sister of the bride. The couple will make their home in North Billerica.

Mr. Albert L. St. Jean of this city and Miss Anna House of North Chelmsford were married yesterday afternoon at St. John's rectory by Rev. Charles P. Henney. The bride was attended by her father, Mr. Hermine Boucher, while the bridegroom was attended by his father, Mr. Adolphe St. Jean. The couple will make their home in Marlboro.

NAB PAIR WITH GEMS WORTH $200,000

ROUSE'S POINT, N. Y., May 16.—Concealed in an electric light socket in the drawing room of a Pullman sleeping car, 40 diamonds, estimated to be worth $200,000 were seized by customs officials who boarded the night express for Boston which passed through here about 9 o'clock last night. As a result of the seizure, two men who gave their names as Louis Lever and Victor Zerville of Philadelphia were arrested and placed in Clinton county jail, Pottsville.

One of the men had a passport and it is believed by the customs officials that the men have been concerned in smuggling operations.

General Bartlett, concerning conditions in the Boston postoffice. Mr. Bartlett recently visited Boston and personally made a study of conditions, with the result that Postmaster Baker and Mr. Hamlin were called to Washington for conference.

Postoffice inspectors, who several months ago completed an investigation of the Boston office, recommended certain changes in personnel, methods and equipment. Mr. Bartlett declined to indicate if he contemplated putting any of the recommendations into effect.

MAY WITHDRAW NAME AD CLUB FLOURISHES

Pres. Danas May Not Run for Re-election as Greek Community President

James Danas, president of the local Greek community whose papers for reelection have been filed with the secretary, may withdraw his candidacy before the meeting of the directors on Thursday evening of this week.

Mr. Danas stated this morning that he is contemplating withdrawing from the contest because there are enough good men running for the place and then again he feels that he has had enough in one term. "I believe other men should be given the opportunity to sit in the president's chair," he said, "and therefore I may withdraw my candidacy at Thursday night's meeting of the directors."

The registration for the voters of the community has been ordered kept open until May 20, this action being taken at a recent meeting of the community. It was expected that if the time of registration was extended, the date of the annual election, which has been set for May 21, would be changed by one week. It is not the case, however, for although the voters are entitled to register until May 20, the election will be carried out as first planned.

After a delightful repast, Edward J. Cooney, sales manager of the Lowell Gas Light Co., was ordered by the "Red Corpuscles" to contribute the winners in his capacity as toastmaster. Mr. Cooney appropriately introduced Dr. Charles F. Sweetser, who gave a stirring address replete with valuable suggestions relative to truth in advertising and advertising principles in general. Dr. Sweetser's address was remarkable for the valuable information it contained and he was justly applauded by his listeners.

Benjamin Pouszner of the Sunday Telegram, in his usual manner, pleaded for co-operation among the members in making Lowell, through the agency of the Advertising club, a conspicuous industrial and commercial center.

It was announced that an important meeting of the "scheming circle," which is the combination of both "Red" and "White" Corpuscles, will hold a meeting one week from tomorrow, at which will be present many prominent speakers.

It is also planned to hold an outing in the summer, while a souvenir dinner will open the season in September. The will be carried out at the fashion of the Town Clowns' organization of Providence and valuable prizes will be offered. Edward J. Cooney was elected permanent chairman of the "circle," which is similar to an activities committee, and was presented the will be carried out at the fashion of the Town Clowns' organization of Providence and valuable prizes will be offered. OFFICERS OF EAGLES FREED

Commissioner Hayes Rules
Agents Who Obtained

Alley From Which Officers Observed Vat, Barrels, Etc., a Private Way

BOSTON, May 16.—United States
Commissioner Hayes today discharged officials and employees of the Brockton Acacia of Eagles who were before him on a charge of possessing intoxicating liquors for sale, on the ground that the federal agents who obtained the evidence in the case were trespassers at the time.
The commissioner held that an alley from which the prohibition enforcement officers said they observed a vat, barrels and certain processes was a private way, and that they had no right there. Because the search warrant obtained on this evidence was illegal, he held further, the evidence that they found men inside drinking and drunk was not admissible.

LLOYD GEORGE STILL HOPES U. S. WILL SIT AT THE HAGUE

Says Declination Indicates Great American Interest in Russia's Economic Reconstruction—Reply Regarded as One Forming Basis for Further Correspondence—
Genoa Conference Circles Disappointed

GENOA, May 16.—(By the Associated Press)—Prime Minister Lloyd George does not feel, it was indicated this afternoon this afternoon, that the American refusal to participate in the commission to sit at The Hague on Russian affairs is her final word, as the document indicates great American interest in Russia's economic reconstruction, and the reply is regarded as one forming a basis for further correspondence.

The entire Russian delegation attended today's meeting of the political sub-commission. Foreign Minister Tschichirin, head of the delegation, asked a number of questions concerning the details of the proposed meeting at The Hague, and upon his request the Russians were granted 24 hours in which to frame a reply to yesterday's proposals concerning this meeting.

The sub-commission then adjourned until tomorrow.
At the very conclusion of the meeting, Mr. Lloyd George was handed the American note, but it was not discussed by the sub-commission.
M. Tschichirin asked why Germany was excluded from the Hague meetings. He was told that Germany's sep-

FOREST FIRE THREATENS IDENTIFY DRIVER OF MURDER CAR

Stopped by Volunteers When Only Half Mile From Pelham Centre

A sweeping forest fire, burning over a three-mile area, seriously threatened the town of Pelham early this afternoon, and at 2 o'clock was less than one-half mile from the center, but shortly after 3 o'clock the efforts of the volunteer fire fighters vanquished the flames and had them under control before they reached the town.
When the fire was discovered about half the town turned out to fight the blaze, which was making rapid progress through a large area of underbrush. Additional assistance was secured later, and their belief that the fire could be checked before actual damage had been done the town was relieved. No aid was called for from other towns or cities.

Tips on Scoring

In scoring game each player is numbered as shown in the above table. Begin to score in the lower right-hand corner and follow in the order of the bases. Indicate a hit by a cross and extend it into other squares as the hit is good for two, three or four bases. A dot over the left, center or right of the cross will indicate the direction of the hit. In the same square indicate how the base was reached, if not by a hit or how the out was made. Give a base hit on a ball too hard to handle properly. In matters of doubt favor the batsman.

Having recorded the first square, indicate progress of runner in next square. If out, show how put out.
A fore-out by batsman, shortstop to second would be recorded 6-1. A fly to left field would be marked F-7.

The abbreviations used for the various plays are: fumble, A; error, E; wild throw by shortstop, W-6; hit by pitched ball, H; out on foot, O; force out, X; out on strikes, K; out by fielder, unassisted, give number of fielder and letter of base, A.B.C.D. A dot in the diamond in the center will indicate a run.
A stolen base should be marked S.

When a man is run down between the bases include all the numbers of the players figuring in the play.
If the final man to handle the ball drops it, he should get an error, but the others are entitled to an assist.

In the totals column mark the number of hits and errors in each inning.

Rt. Rev. Edward P. Allen Has Served 25 Years as Bishop of Mobile Diocese

Rt. Rev. Edward P. Allen, bishop of Mobile, Ala., and a native of Tawkebury, is today observing the 25th anniversary of his elevation to bishop of the Mobile diocese, the celebration having started with a solemn pontifical mass celebrated this morning at the Mobile cathedral by the distinguished prelate. During the day the church dignitary received numerous messages of congratulations and best wishes from clergymen and laymen throughout the country.

Bishop Allen studied for the priesthood at St. Ignace College, Baltimore.

FUNERAL FIRED UPON
BOSTON, May 16.—A funeral procession in Royal Avenue, the city's principal thoroughfare, was fired upon this afternoon from a side street. A military armored car and a police car, which rushed to the scene, returned the fire. The avenue was crowded with shoppers, who were thrown into a panic.

PURCHASING AGENT FAVORS AWARD TO FRAMINGHAM COMPANY

Says That He Does Not Believe Satisfactory
Asphalt Job Can Be Done for Price Lower Than That Quoted by That 'Concern---
Present Discussion Wasting Lot of Valuable Time, Says Mr. Foye

Purchasing Agent Edward H. Foye said this morning that he favors awarding the 1922 street asphalt contract to the Framingham Construction company, despite the trouble and litigation which has gone on between that company and the city.
"If a mistake has been made it is not too late to correct it and I am willing to have you quote me when I say even now I am in favor of awarding the work to the Framingham company. I also intend to express my views to the public service board in this respect." This was the statement made to The Sun this morning when Mr. Foye was questioned with regard to what he thought of the present situation.
Agent Foye pointed to the fact that he had gone over figures with the Framingham company's representative

PERRY D. THOMPSON HAS DECLINED NOMINATION AS ASSESSOR

Former Mayor, Offered Position by Mayor
George H. Brown, States That It Does Not Interest Him—Did Not Seek the Office
But Considered It Upon Earnest Solicitation of Councilors and Business Men

Hon. Perry D. Thompson, former mayor, stated today that he had been offered a nomination by Mayor George H. Brown to a position on the board of assessors, but inasmuch as he had in no way sought the place and because it did not hold any great interest for him, he would not accept it.
A letter to this effect, expressing of course, his appreciation of Mayor Brown's willingness to place his name in nomination, will be forwarded today to the mayor by Mr. Thompson.
It has been generally known about the city for the past fortnight that the ex-mayor's name would be sent to the city council for confirmation if he would but say the word, and also there was a well established belief that the council would immediately confirm him practically by a unanimous vote.
This latter statement is based upon the fact that there is little doubt that the former mayor has many personal friends in the city.

PLAN POWERFUL CITY CAMP RELAY STATION

Local Radio Club Would Install Plant With 1000
Mile Radius

Would Be Used Free of Charge for Receiving and Sending Messages

Foremost among the plans of the Lowell Radio club at the present time is the installation, in some section of the city where there will be little interference from high tension wires, of a powerful relay station, capable of relaying 1000 miles or more. When this station is completed, as foreseen by club members, messages will be sent free of charge for all who care to take advantage of the opportunity, and answers received.
The station is to be placed in the hands of first class amateur licensees, with continuous service from 7 p. m. to 2 a. m. These operators will be on

NEW YORK, May 16.—The Majestic, largest steamship in the world, today completed her maiden voyage across the Atlantic.

Arriving from Southampton she dropped anchor at Quarantine, turned sidewise to the tide, almost bottled up the channel and then

The Mauretania, fastest thing in the

But other craft were envious over the arrival of the new queen of the

No Troops in So. Ireland by Week-End

LONDON, May 16.—(By the Associated Press)—Questioned in the house of commons this afternoon concerning the British troops in Ireland, Sir Hamar Greenwood, the secretary for Ireland, replied that there would be no British troops in southern Ireland by the end of this week, except those in Dublin and those used for coast defense.

KILL ANTI-PRIMARY BILL

—Citizen Preference Measure Amended

BOSTON, May 15.—By an overwhelming vote the Massachusetts house of representatives yesterday refused to order a third reading of the senate bill to provide for the nomination by political party conventions of candidates for secretary of state, state treasurer, state auditor and attorney general. The measure had been submitted in the upper branch for an adverse committee report.

Mr. Burr of Boston, who announced himself as a candidate for the republican nomination for state auditor, thought there should be a return to the convention system "but not to the old style of convention." He favored the provision "to prevent the control of conventions by politicians."

Mr. Silbert of Boston characterized the bill as the "worst sort of hybrid ever brought before the house." He believed the people would resent taking from them the right to nominate their candidates for state officers.

"If there had been a convention nomination of the attorney general two years ago," he said, "the state house might have been for sale at the present time."

Speaker Young Breaks Tie

Speaker H. Loring Young cast his first rollcall vote of the year on a contested matter when he voted in favor of an amendment to the bill providing that in the awarding of contracts for public works, preference shall be given citizens of the United States. The amendment provides that the law shall not apply in cases where the alien bids are lower than those of citizens. The rollcall vote was 35 to 25, which meant the defeat of the amendment. The speaker then requested his name to be called and voted "yes."

The debate was opened by Mr. Hoffmann of Brighton, who asserted the ways and means committee had reported the amendment in order to "kill the bill."

Mr. Shattuck of Boston said that the amendment ought to be adopted as a protection to the public in getting its work done at the lowest fair rates.

Mr. Harrington of Fall River said the amendment "would nullify the bill altogether."

Mr. Mendum of Woburn said that there is a question of the practical operation of the bill. If the amendment is adopted the bill will be unworkable, he declared.

After the bill had been amended, as stated above, it was ordered to a third reading.

Civil Service Bill Referred

Mr. Pond of Greenfield asked the house to reject the recommendations of the committee on counties that the bill which relates to appointments, suspensions and removals in the civil service ought not to be passed. If the recommendation were adopted, he said, the bill should move that the bill be referred to the next annual session. By voice vote the house refused to reject the bill, and it was referred to the next annual session.

Under suspension of the rules, after explanation of Mr. Pond of Greenfield, the house, without debate or opposition, accepted in concurrence the report of the conference committee on the bill for giving preference in the civil service to disabled veterans.

The joint committee on rules reported an order that the attorney general be authorized and requested to bring suit in behalf of the state in his discretion, in such court as he may see fit, to determine the constitutionality of the Shoppard-Towner act for aid to mothers, for the sake of protecting the rights of the commonwealth and of its citizens. The order was adopted.

Under suspension of the rules the house admitted the petition of Walter C. Kellogg for revival of the corporate powers of the Berkshire Animal Rescue League.

PAINS IN THE BACK

When backache is associated with shortness of breath, palpitation and dizzy spells it is almost always caused by thin blood and requires tonic treatment.

"I was very weak, had dizzy spells and my heart palpitated violently," says Mrs. Fred Marion of No. 16 Grant st., Ogdensburg, N. Y. "I had no appetite, even the smell of food made me sick and my stomach troubled me after meals. I had awful pains in the back."

"I found relief by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Soon after taking them I felt much better and I grew stronger. My heart no longer palpitated excessively and my appetite increased. I am entirely free from the pains in the back now, I sleep better and no longer have the dizzy spells. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Price 60 cents.—Adv.

MAN STRUCK WITH AXE DIES IN HOSPITAL

BOSTON, May 15.—Fabio Bfari, address unknown, died at the City hospital last night from a fracture of the skull received when he was struck over the head with an axe by Ramon Zelez, aged 26, whose address is also unknown. Zelez was arrested by officers of the First Dedham street station on a charge of murder.

According to the police, the affair happened yesterday morning in the yard of the Bristol Kindling Wood Co. at 12 Bristol street, South End, where both men were employed splitting wood.

CHAS. W. MORSE GIVES $5000 BAIL

PORTLAND, Me., May 15.—Charles W. Morse of Bath, gave $5000 bail yesterday before United States Commissioner Chapman for his appearance May 25 to show cause why he should not be compelled to appear in the United States district court in New York city to answer to an indictment alleging conspiracy. Unless ordered to return by the United States district court here, Mr. Morse will be immune from pleading to this indictment so long as he remains outside the jurisdiction of the New York court.

Rupert M. Much of Augusta, clerk of several of the Morse corporations, was a respondent also on a like charge. His case was disposed of in the same way. Miss Jennie R. Morse of Bath furnished bail for her brother and Mr. Much, being credited with ownership of the Morse mansion, assessed at $12,000.

District Attorney Merrill, on request from New York, issued a complaint with indictment attached, seeking Mr. Morse's appearance here yesterday. Continuance was asked by A. S. Littlefield, counsel for the respondents particularly because of a similar case against one of Mr. Morse's sons, pending in Boston, and to be heard within a few days. It is said that a second continuance here may be sought, to carry the hearing forward until May 31.

Mr. Morse and his sister motored from Bath, 40 miles, to appear here yesterday. The proceedings did not last more than 10 minutes.

ATTEMPT TO REVIVE INTEREST IN SCOUTS

The Boy Scout reorganization movement got under way last night at a meeting of the committee in the chamber of commerce rooms. The mayor and several clergymen were in attendance together with more than 100 interested scout workers. The officers elected were: President, C. D. A. Graess, secretary, Frank Proctor, and treasurer, C. F. Langley. W. B. Brown, New England field executive of the Boy Scouts, presided and outlined the purpose of the meeting.

The speakers laid special stress on the fact that the present day Boy Scout movement is by far the best instrument in the formation of a boy's character.

Mayor Brown, in the course of his interesting address, pledged himself wholeheartedly to do all in his power to further the interest of the movement and suggested that a tag day be held to help finance the adopted plans.

An executive committee, with authority to start as soon as possible on a membership drive, was appointed. Experienced scoutmasters and assistant scoutmasters will constitute another committee.

The next meeting will be held Monday, May 22, at 8 p. m. in the chamber of commerce headquarters.

MOTHER OF FIVE CHILDREN SENTENCED

MANCHESTER, N. H., May 16.—Mrs. Katherine Marston, the woman burglar who was arrested in January, after thefts from 35 or more apartment houses here was sentenced to serve five or seven years in state prison by the superior court yesterday. Mrs. Marston, the mother of five children, was unsuspected of the long series of breaks until a $75 gold piece stolen at one house was traced to her.

DANTE'S "INFERNO" TOO REALISTIC

HACKENSACK, N. J., May 16.—Dante's "Inferno" was blamed by fire marshals yesterday for a fire which damaged the Royal theatres here Saturday night. A film version of the hell scenes became overhyped while being run through the projecting machine and exploded, the movie operator told the marshals.

WORCESTER CITY COUNCIL FOR BEER AND WINE

WORCESTER, May 16.—The common council last night, by a vote of 17 to 8, adopted a resolution to be sent to congress, if the board of aldermen concurs, setting forth that in the opinion of the city council the Volstead act does not represent the sentiment of a majority of the people and should be modified to permit sale of light beers and wines.

The vote was taken after a long and heated debate and meanwhile the board of aldermen had adjourned. The resolution will go to the upper board.

Several ministers condemned from their pulpits the proposal for the city council to take action, and four churches adopted resolutions of protest.

Mayor Sullivan appointed, with the concurrence of the aldermen, three members of the park and recreation commission, Edward L. Moore, to succeed Col. John F. J. Herbert, resigned; George L. Jacques, to succeed Dr. Julius Gurat, and former Mayor James Logan, to succeed himself, the terms of the two having expired.

SLEUTHS MAKE CLEAN-UP AT WORCESTER

WORCESTER, May 16.—Clarence W. Clark, prohibition enforcement officer recently assigned to the Worcester district, and a squad of assistants disgorged an laboring men with a thirst that only liquor would quench, made a clean-up in Worcester yesterday, and, according to Mr. Clark, secured evidence that will result in several Worcester men being summoned before United States Commissioner Raymond B. Fletcher on charges of violating the Volstead act.

The squad worked from early morning until late in the afternoon and visited former barrooms, hotels and other places about which information had been given the officers. Mr. Clark refused to tell how many would be summoned for violating the law.

WHAT NEXT FOR PEGGY?

News from Paris about Peggy Joyce has been rather meagre the past few days, but this may be the lull before a romantic storm. This is the latest studio portrait of one of the most romantic figures of this generation.

Isn't this feeling about tires pretty universal

MOST car-owners intend to have a car the rest of their lives. Economical operation is getting more and more fashionable.

How many men do you know who won't expect tires to do their share of the saving?

This is the year for tire-merchants to study their customers closely.

The makers of U. S. Royal Cords have recently stated what is the biggest opportunity to serve in the tire business.

U. S. Royal Cords cannot take care of all the people who want the upward quality in tires.

Nor do they claim a monopoly of all good tire making methods.

The makers of United States Tires urge upon everybody—manufacturer and dealer alike—a new kind of competition.

Let us compete for more and more public confidence.

Let us compete for higher and higher quality.

Let us compete for still more dependable public service.

It is the things they refuse to leave undone that make U. S. Royal Cords the measure of all automobile tires.

Not only what is put in but what is never left out—that reveals the Royal Cord practical ideal.

So Royal Cord makers feel free to say again what they have said before—

Let us compete for higher and higher quality.

NEVER KISSED A GIRL

Seniors—Answers to Questionnaires Announced

BOSTON, May 16.—Results of the questionnaire filled out by Technology seniors, the contents of which were made public yesterday, show that 60 per cent of the members of the class about to graduate do not expect to take up engineering after graduation. Most of them were emphatic in their answers to this question. "Never" and "Hell, no," were popular ways of expressing their feelings.

The average salary expected on graduation is $1200. After five years the average Tech man expects to get $2000, and after 10 years, $3000. One student answered, "After graduation, enough for one; after five years, enough for two; after 10 years, enough for six."

In answer to the question, "Are you married?" 53 per cent of the replies were in the negative. Eleven per cent, however, admitted being engaged. The most popular answer to "Why not?" in these connections was, "No money, no honey."

About 75 out of the 650 men answering confessed that they never kissed a girl. One student tabulated his conquests: "Flappers, 2743; girls, 12."

The married and engaged men were emphatic in answer to the question, "How many have you kissed?" "One, so help me," answered an engaged man, expressing the attitude of all his brothers.

If we are to believe the questionnaires, practically every Tech man drinks, and drinks anything—from weak tea to potassium cyanide. In answer to the question, "What do you drink?" one dead game sport answered: "I often wonder."

The most popular study seems to be women, according to the answers; the least popular, of course, is "descriptive geometry." Yale is the most popular college among Tech students, with Dartmouth second, surprisingly close in view of the fact that Tech has broken athletic relations with the Green.

Wellesley stood out Smith for the distinction of being the most popular girls' college.

Prof. Eddie Miller, for years voted the most popular professor, was given a close battle this year by a comparatively new member of the faculty, Prof. H. L. Bowman.

The question regarding what Technology needs most brought out a host of whimsies. Besides "a good bootlegger," "more men like me" and "some real good" the majority seemed to think the institute is in most need of a president, more dormitories and a football team.

The class was asked, "Whom shall we notify in case of accident at the picnic?" Most of the students seemed anxious that St. Peter should be informed. One insisted that Baba Danfels be notified. Others begged that the bootlegger be not kept in ignorance.

The average Tech man is 23 years old, weighs 150 pounds and is 5 feet 10 inches tall. The most popular activity is cutting classes.

Asked how they would feel on graduation, the students all agreed, "Hot dog" was the universal answer.

SAYS SLAYERS WORE POLICE HATS

DUBLIN, May 16.—The mother of James, Francis and Thomas McKewen, who were shot by intruders in their home at Ballymulderg last week, testified yesterday at the inquest on the body of James, the only son of the three to be killed, that the intruders, who fired volleys after volleys at her three sons, wore broad-crowned peaked hats similar to those worn by policemen.

The inquest, held at Magherafelt, County Londonderry, adjourned for one month because it was hoped that Francis and Thomas, who were seriously injured, would have sufficiently recovered by that time to testify.

ADVENTISTS ATTACK SUNDAY "BLUE LAWS"

SAN FRANCISCO, May 16.—Sunday "blue laws" have been attacked by members of the religious liberty department of the Seventh Day Adventists' national convention in session here.

The whole social and political fabric of society "is permeated with the spirit of paternalism and sumptuary legislation, certain to cause serious troubles unless checked," said C. S. Longacre, secretary of the department. He said the assembly, that forces of reform legislation were organizing as never before "to establish laws which offend the individual rights of the people and are in direct opposition to the constitution."

STRATOS FORMS NEW GREEK CABINET

ATHENS, May 16. (By the Associated Press).—A new cabinet has been formed under Nicholas Stratos to succeed that headed by M. Gournaris, which resigned last Friday.

M. Stratos was one of the organizers in 1916 of the anti-Venizelos war party. He was minister of marine under Premier Gournaris in 1915, and prior to that had served as minister of the interior in the cabinet.

DEDICATE THE DANIEL WEBSTER HIGHWAY

NASHUA, N. H., May 16.—State officials from Massachusetts and New Hampshire, together with the justices of the supreme and superior court and members of the Bar association of the Granite State, were guests of honor today at exercises held to dedicate the Daniel Webster highway. This stretch of road formerly the Merrimack valley highway, extends more than 200 miles from Nashua to Colbrook.

The exercises were held at the Massachusetts-New Hampshire state line where two granite columns with decorative bronze tablets have been erected.

The exercises were preceded by a luncheon at the Nashua Country club where the Nashua Rotary club was host.

JUDGE DECLARES MARRIAGE BIGAMOUS

LOS ANGELES, May 16.—Jean Acker, motion picture actress from whom Joseph Valentino, film actor, obtained an interlocutory decree of divorce, Jan. 10, 1922, said today she "would like to do something" because of his marriage at Mexicali, Lower California, last Saturday, to Winifred Hudnut, dancer and motion picture art director, known professionally as Natacha Rambova.

"I shall take the matter up with my attorney," said Miss Acker, who according to judges of the Los Angeles county superior court, still is Mrs. Valentino and will be until the interlocutory decree is made final Jan. 10, 1923.

According to Judge J. W. Summerfield, such a marriage as that contracted by Valentino and Miss Hudnut is bigamous.

IRISH REPUBLICANS AGAINST TREATY VOTE

DUBLIN, May 16.—At the offices of the provisional government here it was said late yesterday that nothing was known there regarding any conference being proposed with Sir James Craig, Michael Collins, Arthur Griffith and Winston Churchill, British minister of the colonies, as participants.

Mr. Griffith and Mr. Collins have no yet received an invitation to go to London.

The republicans remain rigid on the election issue and will permit of no election involving a vote on the treaty. The labor party, however, is preparing a list of candidates. The dissenting army is claiming the right to secure a postponement of the election by force, while in some districts the people are organizing committees for their own protection.

The election question will be raised at a meeting of the Ard Fheis Tuesday, at which 3000 Sinn Fein delegates, presided over by Eamonn de Valera, are expected to attend. It is supposed a majority will support de Valera's views.

Try Radio-Audio Frequency Amplifier
For Ideal Set, Suggests Expert

By R. L. DUNCAN
Director, Radio Institute of America
What's the best set of all for the reception of radio broadcasting?
It's hard to say.
But I think that the radio-audio frequency amplifier is close to the top. The parts for this set cannot be made easily. But they may be bought in any supply shop and rigged up according to the diagram with little trouble.

Hook-Up
No. 1—Antenna tuning inductance, which may be just a simple tuning coil.
No. 2—Variable condenser of .0005 or .0006 microfarads capacity.

Nos. 3, 10, 21 and 24—Amplifier, or "hard," vacuum tubes.
Nos. 4, 11, 17, 22 and 25—Filament rheostats.
No. 5—Six-volt "A" battery of 90 or more ampere hours capacity.
Nos. 6 and 7—"A" battery potentiometer.
No. 8—Variable "B" battery of 17½ to 60 volts.
No. 9—Radio frequency transformer.
No. 12—Variable condenser of .0001 microfarads capacity.
No. 13—Variocoupler.
Nos. 14 and 18—Variometers.
No. 15—Grid leak and grid condenser.
No. 16—Detector or "soft" tube.
Nos. 19 and 23—Audio frequency

transformers.

No. 20—Small fixed telephone condenser. Note that this fixed condenser is placed before the audio frequency transformer.

No. 26—Head phones of high resistance.

Suggestions

In using this circuit, do not ground the negative side of the six-volt "A" battery. The potentiometer, No. 6, may be dispensed with. If not used, the filament rheostat must be placed in the positive lead of the filament circuit.

This circuit may be used with an indoor loop.
But for best results use a well-strung outdoor aerial.

res. to about 40 metres and an experimental length of about 180 metres.

The last suggestion is due to complaints of the air ministry that aircraft traffic has been seriously interfered with by amateurs who have been allotted the general wave length of 1000 metres. If this is permitted to continue, says the committee, interference will become more general. Most amateurs use their transmitting sets in the evening.

Benefits

Adoption of these three suggestions, according to the committee report, would produce two important results. "The first is that the air service will have no further occasion to complain of amateur interference. The second, that the amateur will be satisfied with the power permitted him and will not have the temptation to ignore the terms of his license as regards excessive power, unauthorized wave lengths, times of working and stations communicated with."

PREPARE FOR WAR ON RUM-RUNNERS

DERBY LINE, Vt., May 16.—Prohibition enforcement agents and custom officials along the international boundary from Lake Champlain east are preparing for six months of guerrilla warfare with rum runners from now on.

Warm weather of the past few days has made the many trails and ungated roads over the border passable for the first time since winter set in and in scores of farmhouses near the boundary line thousands of cases of whiskey are cached ready to be transferred to automobiles and brought over the line to be distributed from points many miles below the border.

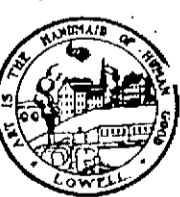

The desperate character and daring of the rum runners in the past year has made the job of catching smugglers one for only stout hearted men and every agent is being supplied with automatic revolvers to enforce their authority.

GIRL TOOK POISON AFTER QUARREL

BOSTON, May 16.—Mrs. Bertha Dreyer, 24, was taken from her home at 17 Park street, South End, to the city hospital last night suffering from the effects of swallowing poison tablets, with suicidal intent, according to the police. The woman's condition is considered serious and she is under close observation.

It is said that Mrs. Dreyer and her husband had an argument at the conclusion of which the husband took their 15-months-old child, William, and started for the upper part of the house to put him to bed. While doing this he heard the cries of his wife and when he came downstairs she told him she had taken poison.

GRABS BABY FROM SLOOP WITH 2000 CASES OF BOOZE CAPTURED

NEW YORK, May 16.—In what old time railroad men declare to be the most remarkable feat of the modern age, John J. Cotter, a locomotive engineer on the Erie railroad, literally snatched a 17-months-old infant from under the wheels of his own moving locomotive after the emergency brakes had failed to bring his train to a halt.

The child, who was the grand-nephew of one of his closest friends, and a brother engineer in the same division, Adele Lillian Cushman, the baby daughter of Reginald Cushman and the granddaughter of Ira M. Meade, lives in a house near Riverdale, the back yard of which extends near the tracks. Saturday afternoon the child made her way out of the yard.

The mother saw her climbing the lower railroad embankment just as Cotter's train came in sight. As the child reached the top of the embankment she tripped and fell prone across the tracks. The train was not more than 250 yards away.

Cotter immediately threw on the air and put every available mechanical force to work to cut down headway. He saw, however, that the heavy train would not stop in the space allotted. Jumping from his cab he made his way to the pilot and dropped to the lowest step, and as the engine reached the child, Cotter grasped the infant in one hand swung her clear of the pilot and into his arms.

The youngster was restored to her mother unharmed, and Cotter continued on his run.

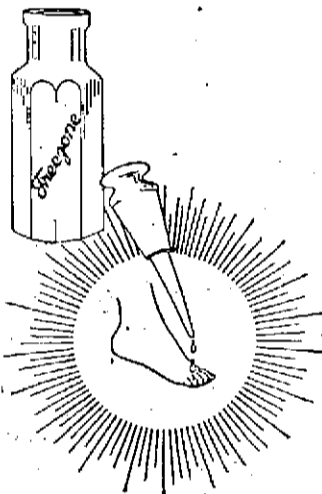

BID 30 CENTS FOR BUST OF EX-KAISER

SOUTH NORWALK, Conn., May 16.—A bronze bust of Kaiser Wilhelm II got an opening bid of 30 cents when the forty-first part of the fittings of the Vaterland, was put up for auction at the surplus property sale of the United States shipping board, being held at the Wilson Point yards here yesterday.

Before the bidding ended its value rose to $325, at which price Dominick O. Vetroville, proprietor of the Mermaid Inn, Westport, purchased it. The paintings and other art objects from the Vaterland are to be offered for sale at a later date.

GRABS BABY FROM SLOOP WITH 2000 CASES OF BOOZE CAPTURED

NEW YORK, May 16.—The first prize of the "hooch navy" operating off the Atlantic coast to prevent smuggling of intoxicating liquors, was brought into New York harbor today by the United States customs service boat Hahn. It was a sloop of 125 tons displacement, loaded, it was declared, with 2000 cases of whiskey.

The prize was captured by the Hahn last night off the New Jersey coast about 25 miles south of Monmouth. Six members of the crew were arrested.

PANTHERS WIN IN TWELVE INNINGS

The Panthers of upper Gorham street are out for the 15 year old championship of the city, and their record so far this season indicates that they will be a hard team to keep away from the title. Last night the Panthers met the Rubens of East Chelmsford in the third game of the series and after a hard fought twelve inning battle the Panthers landed the verdict by the score of 15 to 12. Lowers and Perry, the battery for the winners played a most important part in the victory. The former twirled a splendid game and also starred at the bat. Perry's catching was a treat to look upon and, his throwing to the bases was regular big town stuff. Relying on first base and Stack on third also figured prominently in the team did their bit to bring home the bacon. The Panthers are ready to play any 16 year old team in the city. LONDON, May 16.—Amateurs in England are raising their voices for rights equal to those of their American brothers.

At the recent annual conference of the Affiliated Wireless Societies of Great Britain a resolution was passed requesting the Wireless society of London to open negotiations with the postoffice authorities regarding regulations of amateur wireless transmissions. As a result a committee of the Wireless society of London has submitted the following requests to the postmaster general:

Less Restrictions

1. That no restrictions be placed on amateur transmitting stations communicating with other amateur stations. At present, an amateur is limited to communications with only five other allotted stations.

2. That amateurs be permitted to transmit for an aggregate maximum of two hours in each 24, limiting each transmission to 10 minutes. This would invalidate the regulation requiring an amateur to transmit only during the two hours specified in his license.

3. That wave lengths for amateurs be reduced from the present 1000 metres.

THE RIVER PROJECT

In reference to the reiteration of the adverse report upon the project of making the Merrimack river navigable, it should be understood that the movement will not down on this account. There have been favorable reports and then unfavorable. It will depend entirely upon the people of the Merrimack valley whether the army engineers shall be impressed sufficiently with the necessity of making the Merrimack navigable from Lowell to the sea. On the banks of the Merrimack river are the greatest textile industries in the world. Lowell is the cradle of the textile industry in America and more spindles are turned by the Merrimack river than any other river in the world. With the disadvantage of high freight rates for coal and raw material for our factories, it is necessary to have cheaper transportation and that is possible only by making the river navigable. The railroads, of course, will offer opposition as will some of the water power companies, on the ground that it would interfere with their business. It might perhaps require more overhead space under some of their bridges and they do not want to be disturbed in that way.

The present time may not be the most opportune for starting a general movement in favor of making the river navigable. Labor and materials are still high and operations such as would be required in deepening the channel of the river are still very expensive. But when the cost of labor and material get back to normal, it will then be expedient for the cities and towns of the Merrimack valley to reunite in a general movement to have this enterprise taken up and carried to a successful issue. If the Merrimack were navigable it would benefit the entire state of Massachusetts for the reason that it would hold here the supremacy of the textile industry, which is now threatened by factories located in other parts of the country. It is understood that Congressman Rogers has asked for a hearing for those who may be interested. An appeal may be made to the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors, a permanent body sitting in Washington, D. C. Parties desiring to do so may be heard on appeal by the board either orally or in writing. Written communications should be addressed to the Board of Engineers, Rivers and Harbors, Room 2713, Washington, D. C., and should be mailed within the next three weeks. It appears that the organization that once conducted this movement and secured a favorable report has disbanded; but the interest in the movement still remains and will be revived when it appears that the time is opportune for securing favorable action.

TARIFF BILL DELAYS

The delay in the enactment of the tariff bill which has been before congress for the past two years, has been holding back the full recovery of industrial activity.

There is good reason, however, for the criticism offered against the bill because of its incongruities.

The republicans intended to slip the measure through with a proviso that the president would be empowered to change any schedule which he found to be unfair or detrimental to the business of the country or to certain interests.

The opposition has succeeded in branding this proposition as unconstitutional. They say that this would come within the scope of the taxing power, which under the constitution is reserved for congress.

It appears that the republicans have been convinced that the mode of passing the buck to the president will not work and that they are setting out upon a new tack. Senator Fellinghuysen has introduced a bill providing for a nonpartisan commission to get the necessary information relative to certain schedules and report to congress so that a tariff may be fixed that will cover the difference in the cost of production between this country and that from which the imports come. This is the only way in which the tariff can be scientifically arranged.

The republicans, however, are not satisfied with this equitable plan of taxation. They want some schedule to be absolutely prohibitive. The influence of certain interests is still strong in the republican councils and this is one of the main causes of delay. At present there is a high tariff on wool and the Texas wool growers have appealed for the privilege of another clip before any change is made in the tariff as it will mean millions of dollars to them. Meantime the woolen factories would be greatly aided if they could get their raw material at a lower figure. What is true of the wool-growing industry in this respect is equally true of other lines of industry, and hence all these are working for delay in the enactment of the bill. On the other hand, the interests who expect a big increase in the tariff upon competitive products want the tariff bill enacted as soon as possible. Thus the republican organization is split into contending factions, and these, in turn, are exerting their influence on congress for their own special benefit.

Supreme Court Salaries

Again the question of an increase in salary for the judges of the supreme court of Massachusetts is under discussion. It is a well known fact that the salary of the judges on the supreme bench has been decidedly less than it should be. The same statement might be made in regard to the salary of judges of the superior court. Indeed it has been stated that some of the judges of the superior bench are not likely to remain for the reason that they could make more money in the practice of law on their own account.

But in reference to the salary of the supreme court judges, an act was passed in 1920, known as Chapter 627 of the Acts of the General Court for that year, providing that the salary of the chief justice of the supreme court would be $12,500 and that of the other members $12,000 in case they relinquished the legal provision for pensions on retirement. As might have been expected, the judges refused to relinquish the pension system and as a result the increase in salary did not take effect.

The supreme court of Massachusetts stands high as compared with similar bodies of other states and the general belief among lawyers and business men is, that its members would still be unpopular even if they received the proposed increase without disturbing the pension plan.

TROUBLES IN IRELAND

Unless peace be restored in Ireland very soon it will be useless to hold any elections as the people are not likely to go to the polls. Already the irregulars, made up of young men who have guns in their hands and are unwilling to lay them down, have made a wide canvass of the country and have even threatened the people with dire results if they support the treaty. Thus the people are led to expect that there will be shooting on election day and vast numbers of them will doubtless refuse to go to the polls under such conditions.

The pogroms and deliberate killings still continue in Belfast and other parts of Ulster where it is not unusual for a band of armed men to call at the house of a Catholic family, demand the male members and shoot them on sight. In order to escape such visitations, families, some of whose members have been identified with the republican cause, have been living away from their own homes; but, strange to say, such pogroms have frequently included families none of whose members has at any time been identified with the movement.

There is still hope that the efforts of the peace committee may result in some arrangement that will restore peace and mutual good will between the contending elements.

An organizer addressing the Lawrence strikers made the statement that the operatives are ready to submit their case to any fair-minded tribunal and that if the employers showed an equal desire to be fair, the strike could be declared off immediately; but inasmuch as the manufacturers refuse to confer or to arbitrate, the lawless have appealed to the legislature for an investigation of the issues involved. It would be well if some method were found to bring about a speedy settlement of the strikes so that work might be resumed. Eight weeks of idleness for most of the cotton mills in Lawrence is a severe blow to the city.

Everybody who knows of the work of the Lowell Guild will rejoice that the tag day carried out on Saturday for its benefit was a complete success. The Guild is engaged in the work of reducing the infant mortality in Lowell. The nurses, which are sent out from this institution render valuable service in battling children's diseases and instructing mothers how to prevent such diseases and thus to keep their little ones in good health. We have had many tag days, but scarcely any to which the people contributed with a better spirit than for the Lowell Guild.

If the police department is to purchase new uniforms for the officers there is no reason why the purchase should not be made in the regular way. If the city has to pay any part of the expense. The proposition for furnishing new uniforms to be paid for in part by the city seems to introduce an innovation that requires careful consideration. In the first place the change may be undesirable and secondly the officers may not be willing to pay their quota of the expense.

The statement made by Rev. A. G. Lyon to the effect that certain mills could run without the 20 per cent cut in wages, whether right or wrong, meets the popular sentiment in Lowell. Only an investigation of the financial condition of the industry can show how much truth is in the reverend gentleman's statement; but the mills resist any inquiry into their financial condition and this explains why the strikes are so long continued.

Although a large part of the appropriation for the police department is being expended for the enforcement of the prohibition law, there does not seem to be any diminution in the prevalence of drunkenness on the streets. The astounding fact that 33 drunken offenders were in court yesterday morning, indicates that liquor is being freely sold throughout the city.

Archibald Noodle looked at his fiancée's little brother with a mixture of gratification and his face. He felt in his pocket and fingered a coin doubtfully.

"Why do you say that?" he asked at last.

"She said you were a born politician," the dime came out of the delighted sister's pocket and he asked for more.

"You, continued the young man, who said you were hanging around our Maggie for the past 12 months, doing a lot of talking, but you hadn't contributed yourself yet."—Rehoboth Sunday Herald.

Secretary De Luxe

Things are altered nowadays, aren't they? And people have altered with them, as one householder recently found out.

Hearing a suspicious noise in the middle of the night, he got up and found a burglar busily collecting spoons and things in the dining room.

"Look here!" roared the master of the establishment fiercely. "What are you doing in my house?"

"Your house?" roared the midnight visitor coolly. "Is it your house? I thought you only rent it."—London.

"So I do," exclaimed the other, taken by surprise. "But—"

"Well, don't be so high and mighty, talking about your house, and then, when the burglar, as he opened the front door and stepped out into the darkness. "Good night!"—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Now We Know

Science has made the interesting discovery that there is a physical reason for woman's touchiness. In the third fold of the brain is a region called the corpus callosum. It is situated after the great French surgeon who discovered what work the brain folds in this particular convolution or fold did.

From measurements of a very great number of men and women an average has been struck that shows the corpus callosum to be considerably larger in women than in men. Her larger speech-making faculty being larger, her output of words is necessarily larger.

Furthermore the bigger speech center of women seems to be more easily excited than man's smaller one. It is, in a manner of speaking, on a hair-trigger.

FOR NEW SQUARE

OPPOSITE CEMETERY

The board of cemetery commissioners voted, at a meeting last night, to appear before the city council Thursday night, to recommend that the city acquire for street purposes, pave and lay out as a square the small plot of land formed by the junction of Gorham and Carlisle streets almost opposite the Edison cemetery. It was learned that parties proposed installing a gas-line filling station there and it is to block this plan that the action was taken.

TO HEAR PROTESTS

ON STATE DRY LAW

BOSTON, May 16.—Gov. Cox will give a hearing tomorrow afternoon on the bill now before him for approval which provides for state enforcement of the national prohibition laws. The hearing was requested by judges of district and police courts. The purpose of the measure is to make the state statutes on liquor sales conform to the Volstead act. The judges protest the provision that they must leave search warrants instead of clerks of courts.

TAX ABATEMENTS

The assessors have been notified that a state law recently passed provides that every world war veteran who served at least 90 days' service must receive an abatement of $2 on the $5 poll tax levied against all male citizens this year. To obtain the abatement it will be necessary to send in writing to the assessors' office within 30 days after receipt of bill.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

Theodore Botrel, the noted author and singer, who entertained a large and select audience at the Colonial hall last week, is a veteran of the world war, having served for four years under the French colors. Botrel was in the front line trenches all of the time, but he did not once fire a gun, as his fighting was in the form of a song. His mission being to keep up the morale of the men. During his brief stay in this city, the noted artist was entertained at luncheon at the York club, was given a quick automobile ride through the principal parts of the city and was given an opportunity to inspect the new auditorium. Prior to his coming to Lowell, Botrel visited several cities in this country and the Dominion and has seen numerous memorials dedicated to the memory of those who laid down their lives in the great war, but he said Lowell had the finest of them all. It was now pressed with the idea of the new auditorium and in fact he pronounced it as fine a building as he has ever seen anywhere. It was through the courtesy of Arthur L. Eno, secretary of the auditorium commission, that the artist was given an opportunity to visit the building.

Does it pay to advertise in The Sun? Ask A. J. Favreau, manager of Favreau Bros. Inc., electrical contractors and supplier, and he will tell you about the results his firm has obtained through the use of The Sun. Favreau Bros. inserted an advertisement in this paper relative to house wiring and two days later the manager of the company was requested by a Mr. Gauthier of Salem to submit bids for the wiring and the furnishing of electrical material for a kitchen building which is being erected in the Witch city. Bids were submitted and a few days ago the Lowell concern was notified that it has been awarded the contract. "It is true that it was our low figures that brought us the job," said Mr. Favreau. "But if Mr. Gauthier had not seen our advertisement in The Sun, he would not have asked us to submit a bid."

Traffic Supervisor Eddie Connors performed another heroic act at Merrimack square a few days ago when he rescued a woman from running in front of the auto of Chief Saunders while responding to a fire alarm. The woman while running across the square as the chief's auto was approaching, lost her hat and turned to run after it in the path of the chief's auto, when the officer grabbed her by the arm and held her until the apparatus had passed by. Had not the officer been there it is very probable that she would have been struck by the machine. Commenting upon the matter later, Officer Connors said when a fire alarm is sounded and fire apparatus speeds through the streets, pedestrians should remain on the sidewalk and await the signal of the traffic officer before venturing across the square. If this bit of advice were followed by men, women and children, he said, accidents would not happen. He also added that vehicles of all descriptions should also be brought to a stand still until the officer signals that the road is clear.

It seems to me that it's about time for the proper authorities to take some action on the removal of the storm-barrers on Central bridge. Since the reopening for pedestrian traffic, these barrers, which are yearly placed in position on the up-stream side of the bridge as a protection against wintry blasts in inclement weather, do not now serve their originally intended purpose. Because of the then incomplete bridge work the barrers were not first placed along the railing but along the curb of the sidewalk in such a way as to obstruct the view of the opposite walk and roadway. The main objection, however, lies in the fact, that persons who have occasion at night to cross the bridge on this side are open to assault from the houses the barrers do not allow the light to reflect on the passage. Older Centralvillians used to regard the removal of the storm barrers as an indication of spring. Evidently, the bridge is still on the winter schedule.

With all the furniture industries suffering under production and with consumer demand well beyond the normal mark, it is a most timely thought to hold what is perhaps the first Boston show of its kind "made in New England" Furniture show which will be held in Mechanics building, June 12 to 17. Boston should never be forgotten by the furniture makers as its position is unique, for it is truly the original home of the vast furniture industry.

The likening of a pneumatic tire to a human body is one of the favorite topics in manuals circulated by tire manufacturers for the purpose of helping motorists secure all the mileage that has been built into the tire. The carcass of a tire corresponds with the bone and muscles of our bodies. The other rubber covering tread and side cushions, protects the tire as skin protects our bodies. Cuts in this rubber must be repaired to prevent disintegration of the tire just as cuts in our skin must be treated to prevent infection. In fact, pressure to a tire is what food is to our bodies. There is another similarity, however, that has not been described—the tire's need of exercise. It is a fact that a spare tire resists natural aging much better if it is put into service for a day every month. The reason for this is obscure, but is probably due to the play of the rubber portions of the tire caused by flexing. Whatever is the cause of the deterioration, a spare carried month after month without being "exercised" occasionally does not retain its wearing qualities as well as one that gets a day's use once a month.

IF SKIN BREAKS

OUT AND ITCHES

APPLY SULPHUR

Just the moment you apply Mentha-Sulphur to an itching, burning or breaking out skin the itching stops and healing begins, says a noted skin specialist. This sulphur preparation, made into a pleasant cold cream, gives quick relief even to fiery eczema, that nothing has ever been found to take its place.

Because of its germ destroying properties, it quickly subdues the itching, cools the irritation and heals the eczema right up, leaving a clear, smooth skin in place of ugly eruptions, rash, pimples or sores.

You do not have to wait for improvement. It quickly shows. You can get a little jar of Rowles Mentha-Sulphur at any drug store.—Adv.

LOWELL POLICE PICK UP

MURDER SUSPECT

Suspected of murdering his brother-in-law in Portland, Maine, Sunday morning last, and sought throughout this section of the country at the instigation of the Portland police, Frank O. Riga, of Lawrence, a Pole, aged 35 years, carpenter by trade, was arrested by the police of this city last night about 10:30, and held for the police of the place. Riga's arrest came about through an attempt to communicate with his wife in Lawrence, putting in a telephone call for that city from the Mid-dex-st. depot. Something in his conversation caught the alert attention of the police and in 30 minutes, while he immediately got in touch with police headquarters, Capt. David Petrie and a squad of officers set out immediately, first stopping at the New American hotel through some mistake, thence hurrying to the depot, and making the arrest. Riga was Sergeant James Kennedy, and Officers Moore, Conroy, John Lynch, Garrity and Johnson.

When taken to the station, Riga was not questioned, because of lack of knowledge of the circumstances of the murder, but he was immediately submitted to arrest, however, and promised to return with the Portland officers, thus removing the necessity of securing extradition papers.

According to the story of the Portland authorities, Riga left Lawrence with his wife Sunday afternoon to pay a visit to his wife's sister-in-law and her husband in Portland. An altercation arose between Riga and his brother-in-law, and he is alleged to have knocked him down and kicked him severely in the head, inflicting wounds which led to his removal to hospital and ultimately to his death. Riga disappeared in the meantime. A description of him and a warning to arrest him was wired to every city in the New England states, and the local police had been ordered to be on the lookout. It is thought he must have gone directly to this city.

COUNCILOR FORD

ATTACKS O'BRIEN

BOSTON, May 16.—Councilor Ford, in yesterday's city council session, charged District Attorney O'Brien with having made "improper, illegal and absolutely wrong" remarks to the grand jury while evidence was being submitted to it last Tuesday by Mr. Ford and others in relation to the Ford contention that the fixed price of stove coal is directly due to existence of a local coal trust.

Councilor Ford stated that the district attorney told the jury, in his presence, in relation to the Ford charge, that "this is a matter for federal action."

If such a conspiracy exists, it is in violation of the Sherman Antitrust act," etc.

Mr. Ford alleges the district attorney made further statements that are expressly forbidden by law under such circumstances. He said he had called these matters to Mr. O'Brien's attention and that the district attorney answered him that the official record of the grand jury fails to show any such statements by himself (Dist. Atty. O'Brien).

Councilor Ford, himself an avowed candidate for the democratic nomination for district attorney next fall, stated that if the legal, sworn transcript of the grand jury proceedings doesn't show that Mr. O'Brien made the statements Mr. Ford now attributes to him, Mr. Ford will immediately withdraw as a candidate for the nomination.

OLDEST WOMAN IN

NEW HAMPSHIRE DEAD

MANCHESTER, N. H., May 15.—Mrs. Mary R. Pike, 106, believed to have been the oldest woman in New Hampshire, died at her home, Newfields, last night. She was also the oldest living member of the state chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. Pike had been ill a year. Her grandfather, Captain Luke Broadhead served on Lafayette's staff in 1775.

She was the daughter of Rev. John Broadhead, widow of Rev. James Pike, and the founder of Methodism in New Hampshire. A brother, George H. Broadhead, was for a time president of the New York stock exchange.

ACTS IN BEHALF

OF AMERICANS

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 16.—(By the Associated Press)—Negotiations with the Turkish nationalist government in behalf of Americans in Anatolia have been opened by Major D. G. Arnold of Philadelphia, N. J., director of the American committee for relief in the Near East. He represents 50 Americans whose wives and families are unable to leave Anatolia because of Mustafa Kemal Pasha's restrictions against persons of Armenian or Greek descent.

TO DISCUSS BRIDGE

AND PARKWAY

The Centralville Improvement association will meet Wednesday at 8 p. m. in the vestry of the Centralville M. E. church. The main business of the organization will consist of the discussion of the condition of the approaches to Central bridge and a petition to the city council that houses on First street from Bridge street to the boulevard be removed for parkway purposes.

The association officials feel that there is no time like the present for making a parkway from the bridge to the new boulevard.

GIRLS! WHITEN SKIN

WITH LEMON JUICE

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well and you have a quarter pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty and whiteness of your skin.

Famous skin beauties use this lemon juice to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion, also as a freckles, sunburn and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate.—Adv.

Berton Braley's Daily Poem

Haven of Content

At times I grow weary of life in a flat
With never a neighbor I care for at all;
With no one to stop for a gossip chat
And no one to greet save the dinge in the hall.
At times I feel mightily tempted to go
Where all of my neighbors are folks that I know,
And there quite contentedly settle me down
In an old-fashioned house in an old-fashioned town.

An old-fashioned house that has plenty of room,
With a wide shady porch and a broad grassy lawn,
With a trellis of roses whose vaulted perfume Grows ever more lovely as summer comes on;
It tugs at my heart-strings, that pastoral scene,
With the trees and the grasses delightfully green,
And the peace and the comfort that rest like a crown
On an old-fashioned house in an old-fashioned town!

Afar from the city's harsh granite and brick
I hear lovers talk as they saunter along,
I hear the old gates as they creak and they click,
I hear from the porches brief snatches of song;
And neighbor greets neighbor, and friend calls to friend,
And life has a quiet and leisurely trend,
Unspoiled by the battle for gold and renown,
In an old-fashioned house in an old-fashioned town.

And then—I remember the gossip that wags
Where everyone knows all about your affairs;
How life in a village so wearily drags
I think of a householder's troubles and cares—
Of grass to be cut, and in winter-time's chill
Of wood you must chop and of stoves you must fill,
And—I guess, on the whole, I won't settle me down
In an old-fashioned house in an old-fashioned town.

OFF FOR LONDON

MANILA, May 16. (By the Associated Press).—The Prince of Wales left for home today aboard the cruiser Re-nown after a three days' visit in the Philippines. Nothing more strenuous than a set of tennis at Malacan palace was on his program for the last day.

The prince is still wearing bandages over his right eye, blackened Saturday by the impact of a polo ball.

The Re-nown sailed this evening for London, via British North Borneo, Penang, Colombo and the Suez canal.

KEN AT BAT

Plans are practically completed for the big hill to be held on May 30 at Dunstable, under the auspices of the Merrimack Valley Motorists club. For the past several weeks, a lively committee headed by Dan Agutter has been busy on the arrangements, and it was learned today that the stage is all set for the big event. It is expected that the entry list will be very large, with competitors coming from all cities and towns in the valley.

The Y.M.C.A. and Knights of Columbus, the two new members of the Twilight league, will meet on the South common tonight, and a fast game is expected. The league has been holding practice sessions for the past few weeks and it is reported that some classy ball players will be seen in action when the game gets underway.

Philly Boyle and Young George Gardner are training as never before for their first race. Boyle is working out under the direction of Jack Leahy, who said today that the "Acre" had already in great condition, but that he is still a bit out of training until the day before the bout.

Gardner, it is reported, has gone to Diamond hill to put on the finishing touches. He has been working out at Chas. Hayes' gymnasium in Boston for a month, but will come to Lowell today that he went to the Rhode Island farm to complete his work.

The Boyle-Gardner bout has been in the air for more than a month, and

BAR "PASSING THE HAT" DANNY EDWARDS WINS AT TWILIGHT GAMES OVER MIDGET SMITH

BOSTON, May 16.—The twilight ball tossers are forbidden to "pass the bonnet" for collections on public playgrounds, but they are to be permitted to derive revenue for support of their teams for the sale of printed score cards.

That's the agreement reached between Mayor Curran last night and the park commission, to which body he referred this troublesome question, as the twilight league schedule begins to swing into full step.

A park commission regulation of long standing forbids the solicitation of funds for any purpose on public playgrounds. Soon after daylight saving policy became effective, police captains in all sections of the city were directed to receive complaints from persons who said they were being "browbeaten" into contributing from the 25 cents for the pleasure of watching these nightly amateur games on the district playgrounds.

It was set forth that tags were being used in some places, and that if one did not wear one as a sign of having contributed to the sustaining "pot," one was abused by players and other spectators. Complainers held that these were amateur games, for pure unalloyed sports make, objecting to "commercialism" in their midst.

These considerations weighed with the commission, which is convinced that, without the advantages of home assistance in some shape from spectators, even the amateur games could not go on successfully. The commission's decision, which, however, carries the proviso that not more than five or ten cents shall be charged for a printed program, also that there shall be no such sales at Sunday games.

MRS. MALLORY SAILS FOR ENGLAND

NEW YORK, May 16.—To meet the double obstacle of the American Athletic Union, Mrs. M. J. Mallory, wife of the New York, America's woman tennis champion, accompanied by Miss Edith Biggins, of Boston, sailed today for England and the British championship tournament at Wimbledon, June 26.

Mrs. Mallory's first purpose is to defeat Miss M. J. Suzanne Langlen, the French champion, whom she defeated in an incomplete match at Forest Hills last summer, but to whom she has previously lost in Europe, and in vanquishing Miss Langlen to win the supreme title.

Before starting at Wimbledon, the American champion will play in several of the lesser British championships to perfect her game, hoping to enter the big tournament in tip-top condition.

"Beak" Dodge today announced his preliminary card for Friday night. It will consist of four six-round matches, namely Benny O'Neill vs. Tommy Moran, Eddie Purcell vs. Young Keichel, Frank Johnson vs. Kid Deane, and Martin Flaherty Jr. vs. Tommy Lane.

Gene Delmont who called off his best here with Peggy Morton on last Friday night, in order to keep an ongoing event in Brooklyn with "Popper" Martin had the hard luck of losing to Martin in four rounds on a foul. The foul blow was delivered during a furious exchange and was considered unintentional. The fight up until the final blow, according to reports, was a number with Martin having the edge on his opponent.

Johnny Shugrue, who jumped into the limelight a few weeks ago, by winning over Johnny Dundee has been signed to meet Joe Tirpitz in Boston Friday night.

Newport Johnny Brown, who appeared in several numbers here, is expected to meet K. O. Leroux at Boston, N. H., on Friday evening.

"Popper" Martin and Jack Sharkey are booked to meet in Brooklyn on next Saturday night.

1922 Is Pitcher's Year

NEW YORK, May 16.—1922, the pitcher's year. 1921, the batter's year. That is the striking difference shown by the games played thus far this year as compared with last season's records.

The first month of play last year was characterized by the large number of pitchers knocked out of the box. This year a different story is being written into the records.

Two, three and four-hit games have been numerous. Pitchers have gone the full route more often than they have been removed. On April 30 rookie pitcher Charles Robertson of the Chicago White Sox pitched the baseball world by turning a no-hit game against the Detroit team. Not a man reached base.

Just a week later, on May 7, Jess Timmerman, veteran twirler of the New York Giants, duplicated Robertson's performance, but instead one base on balls to Williams, the only Philadelphia player to reach first base.

How different from these record-breaking performances was the story of the early play of 1921. A game in which one of the contesting teams failed to make over 10 hits was something to talk about. In fact, from Babe Ruth down, were on a rampage such as was never known before in the history of the game.

Reasons immovable were advanced for the unprecedented hitting, and the lively ball, fading pitchers, all became the subject of heated discussion. Though the slugging dropped off somewhat toward the end of the season, the batters still showed a marked supremacy over the pitchers.

Not a twirler turned in a no-hit game. This year, if the past month of play indicates anything, the pitchers will bring up some new records for the future stars to shoot at.

PROVIDENCE, May 16.—Jeff Smith of New Jersey was given the decision over Pat McCarthy of Boston in the main bout of 12 rounds at the National 15 last night. Smith carried every round.

Knocked out in the third round of the semi-final by Johnny White of the Lowell Kennel club in Old England, Phil Smith of Providence and Young Timmerman of the White Sox for immediate delivery. Schupp formerly was a member of the Johns and Cardinals.

Pittsburgh boy Wilkenson and John Russell of the White Sox were released outright to the Kansas City club. Wilkenson went to the White Sox from Columbus.

IMPROVEMENTS AT GOLDEN COVE PARK

By connecting Chelmsford town water to the ditches at Golden Cove park, the water supply has been made a notable improvement. Heretofore the water was not available in the immediate vicinity and had to be carried from some distance.

TIGERS MOVE UP LADDER

Third Straight Over Yankees Places Detroit in Tie With Cleveland

16 Home Runs Made in 4-Game Series Between Athletics and Browns

NEW YORK, May 16.—Ty Cobb hurled another recruit pitching ace at the Yankees in the last game of the series and, launching a heavy assault on Sam Jones, the battling Tigers made it three out of four from the league leaders and moved into tie for third place with Cleveland. Stoner held the Huguenots to three hits and won easily, 6 to 1.

At the same time another troublesome club, Connie Mack's Athletics completed the downfall of St. Louis by pounding out a 13-4 triumph over the Browns, who lost another chance to go ahead of New York. Four home runs featured the game and brought the total number of circuit clouts in the four game series to 14.

Archie had the better of Vic Aldridge in a light pitching duel and the Giants made it two straight from the Cubs, 1-0, while St. Louis pummeled three Philly pitchers for 22 hits, 15 runs and a one-sided victory.

Walter Johnson won another for the Senators, beating Baby of Cleveland, C. Collins, blanket Chicago, 2-0, and the Red Sox made it three in a row.

Traynor's homer in the 10th gave Pittsburgh a 6-5 decision over Boston while Brooklyn was unable to solve Rixey and lost another to Cincinnati, 6-3.

Events in the baseball world during the past few weeks have certainly borne out the truth of that adage.

Within ten days' time some very remarkable feats have been performed in the major leagues. As is usually the case, the record-breaking performances came in bunches.

Of course the most notable feat was the pitching of a no-run, no-hit, not-a-man-reach-first game, by Charley Robertson of the Chicago White Sox.

I was one of the umpires in this game and I regret very much that Robertson's feat was slightly dimmed by the accusation that he tampered with the ball.

Robertson's victory was clean cut. The fact that the recruit performed it against Detroit, one of the hardest-hitting clubs in the history of the game made it all the more noteworthy.

Robertson used a fast ball with great success, mixing in a slow curve and a nice change of pace. His control was perfect. Only two batters who faced him worked the count to three balls.

Shortly after this game, Shriver, a recruit pitcher working for Brooklyn, scored a shutout in his first major league start, and allowed only two hits. That is a record for recruits made in their major league debut.

In that same game, Sam Post, a recruit first baseman, got his name into the Philadelphia club without a hit. Barnes came mighty close to equalling Robertson's record. Only one man reached first base, but even that was on balls, but was doubled up on the next play.

The same day that Barnes was now in the Philadelphia club, Sam Jones of New York Yankees was turning a great game against Washington.

For seven innings Jones retired the Nationals in order. He was on the way to duplicate Robertson's feat. In the eighth inning, Joe Judge stepped in with a triple that would have played. In the ninth inning another Washington player got on through an infield scratch.

All of which leads us up to the conclusion that the pitchers are once more coming into their own. In addition, there is also the very general belief that the ball in use this season is not nearly so lively as the 1921 brand.

The fans like hitting but will probably welcome a pitchers' battle every now and then as a sport desert.

QUERIES ABOUT SPORTS

Do you believe the ball in use in both major leagues last year was a livelier ball than that of former years? There is a great deal of talk as the reason for so many 300 hitters and the large number of home runs that were made.

I have always refrained from referring to the ball in use last year as a lively ball. I have simply said that it was the best ball that ever made its way to the ball field naturally was considerably livelier.

I do not think there was any intent to keep the ball in use last year as a lively ball. The fact that the very best ball was used, making it possible to wind the ball much tighter, plus the best workmanlike resulted in an extraordinary ball that would carry when properly hit.

The ball last year undoubtedly had much to do with the great increase in hitting. The mediocre pitching and the elimination of freak deliveries did the rest.

On what I have seen of the ball so far this year I would say that it did not have the carrying qualities of the ball used last year. If such proves to be the case hitting is sure to ease up.

WOULD INCLUDE NAME WANTS AMERICAN ON OF GEN. EDWARDS INTELLECTUAL BOARD

GENEVA, May 16.—(By Associated Press)—An international committee to study and suggest methods of intellectual co-operation throughout the world, on which the United States shall be represented, was selected by the Council of the League of Nations yesterday.

It is understood that Nicholas Butler, president of Columbia university, probably will be asked to join.

The committee will meet at Geneva this summer and develop a plan to be presented at the September meeting of the Assembly. International organization of scientific research relations between the various universities will be the first problem to be considered.

The committee follows: Prof. Albert Einstein, of the University of Berlin; Madame Marie Curie, the radium expert of the University of Paris; Dr. Henri Bergson, of the French Academy; Miss Donna Lee, professor of zoology in the University of Christiania; G. A. Murray, Oxford University; F. Rittini of the University of Turin; Dr. de Torres Quevedo, University of Madrid; J. Desreux, ex-minister of science, of Belgium; A. de Castro, University of Rio Janeiro; I. N. Danerjee, University of Calcutta; and G. de Reynolds, University of Rome.

STORE EMPLOYEES REMEMBER MANAGER

When the Merrimack Clothing Co. closed its doors Saturday night P. J. Mahoney, manager of the store, who had worked his way up from bundle boy to manager, was presented a handsome smocking set by the employees of the establishment as a mark of esteem. The presentation was made by Nelson E. Huntley, who spoke briefly of the pleasant relations that always existed between the manager and the employees of the store. Mr. Mahoney responded cordially and when the time came for the waving, all wished each other Godspeed in future undertakings.

Voters Go to Polls to Nominate Candidates — Large Vote Expected

Republican Nomination for Governor: Between Alter and Pinchot, Chief Contest

PHILADELPHIA, May 16.—Pennsylvania voters went to the polls today to nominate candidates for governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of internal affairs, two United States senators, representatives in congress and members of the state legislature, to be voted for at the November election. The polls will be open from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m., standard time. Weather conditions early in the day were favorable and a large vote was expected.

Of overshadowing interest was the contest for the republican nomination for governor, between Attorney General George E. Alter, and Gifford Pinchot, former state forestry commissioner. It was the first time in years that the republicans had gone into a primary fight without a recognized leader and there was widespread interest in the outcome.

Both sides gave out confident claims of victory, the Alter campaign managers declaring the attorney general would be nominated by more than 200,000 majority, while the Pinchot backers said his majority would be at least 150,000. Supporters of Pinchot conceded that Alter would carry Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, but predicted that Pinchot would run up a vote in the other 65 counties sufficient to overcome this and give him the estimated majority.

Alter leaders claimed that he would not only carry the two largest cities by his majority, but would receive at least 50,000 majority in the remainder of the state.

There also was a contest in the republican party for one of the United States senatorial nominations. This was between Senator George Wharton Pepper of Philadelphia, and Congressman-at-large William J. Burke, of Pittsburgh for the unexpired term of the late Senator Penrose running until 1927. Pepper supporters claimed that his plurality would be at least 400,000. Burke's supporters professed confidence in the outcome.

The nomination of David A. Reed of Pittsburgh, both for the unexpired term of the late Senator Cawley, the seat now filled by Senator William E. Crow and also for the full term of six years from next March, is assured. Senator Crow was not a candidate, because of ill-health, and Reed was supported by both the Pinchot and Alter forces.

PETITION TO USE COMMON FOR FIELD DAY

The high school authorities have formally petitioned the park department for the use of the South common for this year's field day exercises, to be held on Friday, May 26.

It is confidently expected that the park commission will grant the petition within 24 hours. Meanwhile, the high school regiment will continue to use the common playground for practice purposes. The feature "knock-out" drill will be held Friday.

PURCHASES RESIDENCE FOR HOME FOR AGENT

The International Cotton Co. has purchased the residence of the late Leonard P. Sherman, at 148 Princeton street, and will be utilized as a home for the agent of the company.

The building contains 11 rooms and is equipped with all modern improvements. It is located in a most desirable residential district and is considered to be one of the best of its kind in that locality. The purchase price was not made public, but it is said to be in the vicinity of $12,000. The sale was effected through the office of Edward F. Slatery, Jr.

POLICE RAID HOUSE IN INJUNCTION PETITION FAMILIES FLEE FIRE

SHAW STREET TODAY HALTS B. & M. MEETING

Home brew, moonshine and wine were found in profusion about noon today by officers of the liquor squad who raided a house at 129 Shaw street. When the officers entered, nothing was in sight except a few bottles of home brew, but their suspicions were well grounded and they started on a thorough search.

The result of the search revealed two stills, one of 20 and the other of 10 gallons capacity, a quart of "shine" in a 3-gallon jug, 117 quart bottles of brew and a quantity of wine and brew in various receptacles, bottles, jugs, and kegs.

The officers making the raid, were Aldrich, Hunter, Kilroy and Shapiro. Officer Hunter made the initial find, which resulted in the wholesale discovery.

No arrest has been made in connection with the seizure, but one is expected before court opens this morning.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Louisa Marie of Lowell, Massachusetts, wife of John Martel, to the Central Savings Bank, a corporation established under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and located at said Lowell, dated April 21, 1922, and recorded in the Registry of Deeds for the Northern District of the County of Middlesex in said Commonwealth, Book 274, Page 170, will be sold at public auction for breach of the conditions of said mortgage deed on the premises hereinafter described on Wednesday, the seventh day of June, A. D. 1922, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed and therein described substantially as follows:

A certain parcel of land situated in the part of said Lowell known as Middlesex Village, being Lot numbered Eight (8) on a plan of land entitled, Plan of House Lots belonging to E. B. Blaisdell, Mass., 1921, drawn by Frederick R. Page, surveyor, and recorded with said Registry, Book of Plans 8, Plan 16. The said Lot 8 is bounded as follows: northerly by Lot numbered 9 on said plan ninety and 83-100 feet; easterly by land of heirs of Jesse Smith (40) feet; southerly by Lot numbered 10 on said plan ninety and 83-100 feet; westerly by a street or way called Middlesex Park forty (40) feet. Containing three thousand six hundred and twelve (3612) square feet, more or less. The said land is conveyed subject to the following restrictions: no building shall be erected thereon on main walls of which shall be more than fifteen (15) feet of the line of curbing of said street known as Middlesex Park as now laid out; and the above deed and premises will be sold and conveyed subject to any and all unpaid taxes, municipal or other assessments, and tax sales which may be due or to become due thereon. The purchaser will be required to pay $300 in cash at the time and place of sale and the balance in ten days from the day of sale at 12 o'clock noon at said bank.

THE MAGIC SHOE PEG

"LET'S BE GONE," SHOUTED KING VERDO. And he hauled up his foot over his knee to look.

"Why, it's gone!" he cried. "There's nothing but a hole."

Nancy's sharp eyes saw something she pointed to the lump of mud King Verdo had scraped off. "There it is," she cried. "It's sticking in that."

Just then the lump of mud started to roll away.

"No, you don't!" cried King Verdo, grabbing it and putting the peg in his pocket. "Now what do you suppose that mud was running off for?"

"It must be Twelve Toes the Sorcerer again," said Nick. "He doesn't want you or King Indig to marry Princess Therna. He wants her himself. He's tried to stop us every way he could."

"The villain!" shouted King Verdo. "He can't practice his magic here. Let's be gone. We'll go to the land of the Diddyevers at once and find out all about everything."

"Well, I declare!" chuckled King Verdo. "I never heard anything so astonishing in my life. The third peg

EM IN CHELMSFORD

Resolved that through the majesty of the law he shall receive his just dues, and that no one may impose on his credit system without paying the full penalty, Eben T. Adams, a Chelmsford grocer, brings suit to recover a grocery bill of 70 cents from one of his recalcitrant debtors.

According to the public records in the district clerk's office, the itemized bill for which the plaintiff seeks to recover is as follows:

February 8, 1919, 1 lb. puppy bread 15c
August 20, 1920, 1 lb. dog bread 35c
August 20, 1920, 1/2 lb. mixed cakes 20c

Total 70c

The suit is partially pending since 1919, and its final settlement, which should occur soon, will be of great interest, and a warning to those who defy the civil statutes by failing to attend to their accounts.

DEATHS

MASON—Arthur F. Mason, a well known resident of this city, died last evening at his home, 32 Lawrence street, at the age of 35 years, 8 months and 27 days. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary A. (Scott) Mason; one daughter, Frances E. Mason; four sisters, Miss Charlotte E. Mason and Mrs. Allen F. Kelly, Mrs. Joseph F. Kelly, Mrs. John F. Kelly and Mrs. Sylvia Jordan; and two brothers, Fred L. and Victor J. Mason. Mr. Mason was a Spanish-American war veteran, having enlisted with the marine corps at Boston and served for four years, more than two years having been spent in the Philippine Islands. He was affiliated with the Albert Ames camp, also with Wampanoag lodge, Knights of Pythias.

COMERY—Miss Nellie Comery died yesterday at the Green-Killburn hospital, aged 65 years and 3 days. She leaves four sisters, Mrs. William Blodgett of Forge Village, Mrs. E. B. Lee of Worcester, Mrs. Samuel Balch of Westford and Mrs. Alvin Nelson of Grantville. Her only brother, Arthur H. Comery of Forge Village.

FERGUSON—Thomas Ferguson, a resident of Lowell for a number of years, but recently of Suncook, N. H., died yesterday at University hospital, Philadelphia, Pa. He leaves one son, Edward, and a daughter, Miss Doris Ferguson, both of Suncook, N. H.

LORD—Mrs. Elizabeth Lord died last night at her home, 30 Wilson street, North Billerica, aged 81 years. She leaves four sisters, Mrs. Sarah Ellis and Mrs. Samuel Lord, both of Billerica; two sons, four grandchildren, one niece and five nephews. She was a member of the North Billerica Baptist church.

ROGERS—Hugh P. Rogers died this morning in this city, after a lingering illness, aged 64 years. The remains were removed to the funeral parlors of Undertakers O'Connell & Fay, 653 Gorham street.

SHIPPING PROBLEMS

Freight Matters of Vital Interest Locally to Be Discussed Friday

Lowell shippers by freight will be interested in the meeting of the New England Traffic League, to be held in the reading room of the Boston chamber of commerce on Friday afternoon of this week, when the important matter of the proposed cancellation of class rates on the Boston & Maine railroad will be taken up.

The local chamber will be represented at the meeting by Assistant Secretary Edward W. Gallagher. Lowell manufacturers and shippers, through the chamber of commerce, strenuously object to the new plan, because if the cancellation of class rates becomes effective, it will mean the payment of extra switching charges of seventy cents per ton to the Boston & Maine or a long haul of a mile or a mile and a half to the New Haven terminal. These extra switching charges will have to be paid to the New Haven road, if shippers are less than carload lots. Furthermore, it will practically abolish Lowell's quickest route to New York via Worcester and leave only roundabout routes, thus entailing dissatisfaction and inconvenience.

Mr. Gallagher has communicated with J. H. Lane of Worcester, who is engaged in affairs of the New England Traffic League and the latter has promised his support in fighting the cancellation.

REMONSTRANTS HEARD ON CEMETERY PETITION

A hearing on the petition of Rev. Alexander Ogdenowski, pastor of St. Stanislaus church, to establish a cemetery on Spaulding park in Rogers street, was held by the members of the board of health at city hall late yesterday afternoon. There was considerable opposition to the granting of the petition, and after hearing the remonstrants the board took the matter under advisement.

Hon. Dennis J. Murphy appeared for the petitioner and said his client represented a growing parish of from 250 to 300 communicants. He said he had been given an opportunity to purchase Spaulding park and he believed it a fitting place for a cemetery. He also stated that the drainage facilities in the district were adequate.

William D. Regan, former city solicitor, appeared as a remonstrant in behalf of the Cavley estate and said the board must pay necessary attention to the well-being of the living while preserving a decent respect for the dead. He argued that the sewerage in the vicinity of the park was nothing more or less than the remnants of a broken system, running into an exposed break that is stagnant for months on the year. It made the petition before Patrick's cemetery, saying it was only recently that a proper drainage system connecting with the city's system was installed. He also brought out that in his opinion the board had no right to make the petition before the state board of health passed on it, because the statutes provide that before a municipality can act on such a petition—if there is any possibility of the community's water supply being affected—the state health commission must first give its approval. Others who appeared as remonstrants were H. C. Merrill, M. Coyne, M. Kelley, Alfred Pouchell, Joseph C. Sarmento and Joseph H. Mullaney. The board took the matter under advisement.

MATRIMONIAL

The marriage of Mr. Joseph Collings and Miss Emma McNeill, both of North Billerica, took place May 11, the officiating clergyman being Rev. Chester Armstrong, pastor of the North Billerica Baptist church. The best man was Mr. Charles J. Garrett, while the bridesmaid was Miss Janet McNeill, a sister of the bride. The couple will make their home in North Billerica.

St. Jean—Boucher
Mr. Albert St. Jean of this city and Miss Irene Boucher of North Chelmsford were married yesterday afternoon at St. John's rectory by Rev. Charles P. Heaney. The bride was attended by her father, Mr. Hermann Boucher, while the bridesmaid was Jean. The couple will make their home in Marlboro.

GEN. AMES COMPLAINANT IN COURT CASE

Judge Enright made quick disposition of the few cases brought before him in district court this morning, although in the course of the session he levied assessments to the amount of $150, all of which were collected by the clerk.

Gen. Inlier Ames, annoyed by frequent trespasses on posted land in Tewksbury, which is his property, had Ignacy Aleksha before the court on two counts; first, trespassing on posted land, and second, unlawfully fishing in a pond on said land.

The defendant pleaded guilty on both counts, but stated he did not know the land was forbidden territory. General Ames and one of his employees testified to the circumstances under which Aleksha had been caught, and had a fish warden on hand to offer testimony; which, however, was not required. The first charge was filed and on the charge concerning fishing on forbidden territory the defendant was ordered to pay a fine of $20.

Two milk law violators were tried and fined. David Saperson was reported to have had in his possession and exposed for sale a quantity of milk without a license to make such sale. The privilege had been taken away from him several years ago because of unsanitary conditions in his premises, and had never been renewed, according to Milk Inspector Master. Master recommended a fine of $50, but Judge Enright suggested leaving the matter to the board of health, as he didn't care to impose a severe fine on the first offense. He finally decided to tax Saperson $20, warning him that if he didn't improve the filthy, unsanitary condition of his property the board of health would get after him. George W. Taylor entered a plea of guilty to a similar charge, and was fined with a $10 fine.

Salman Khouy was the solitary offender from violation of the liquor laws, in regard to illegal keeping. On a plea of guilty he paid a fine of $100.

Two other illegal keeping cases came up for trial, those of Dushad Hazigan and Mike Bekish, but continuances were granted in each case, Hazigan being continued to May 26 and Bekish to May 27.

John Coyle, accused of disorderly conduct, in that he accosted a person of the opposite sex, was continued until May 23 for trial.

NAB PAIR WITH GEMS WORTH $200000

ROUSE'S POINT, N. Y., May 16.—Concealed in an electric light socket in the drawing room of a Pullman sleeping car, 40 diamonds, estimated to be worth $200,000 were seized by customs officials who boarded the night express for Boston which passed through here about 9 o'clock last night. As a result of the seizure, two men who gave their names as Louis Lever and Victor Zerville of Philadelphia were arrested and placed in Clinton county jail, Plattsburgh.

One of the men had a passport and it is believed by the customs officials that the men have been concerned in smuggling operations.

Gen. Bartlett, concerning conditions in the Boston postoffice. Mr. Bartlett recently visited Boston and personally made a study of conditions, with the result that Postmaster Baker and Mr. Hamlin were called to Washington for conference.

Kelly, confirmed habit of intoxication and cruel and abusive treatment.

The following wills were allowed: Thomas J. Fegan, Lowell; William N. Burke, Lowell.

Administrations were granted as follows: John J. Twomey, Biddeford, Me.; A. B. Bailey, Billerica; Aurora Mitchell, Lowell; Leon Krasnowski, Lowell; Nelson H. Choate, Lowell and Ellen Cheney, Ireland.

Conservatorships were appointed as follows: Martha W. Clark, Lowell and John C. Puffer, Lowell.

$1,500,000 FIRE LOSS

PERTH AMBOY, N. J., May 16.—The white lead department of the United Lead company's plant here was destroyed by fire which started last night in the Tidewater Oil company's yards here by a flash of lightning. The loss is estimated at $1,500,000.

Bright gasoline tanks, two naphtha tanks, besides the agitator vessel and 17 of the "continuous treating" tanks were consumed, as well as thousands of feet of pipe lines torn up by firemen in an effort to prevent the spread of the flames.

AGED WOMAN FOUND DEAD AT HER HOME

Mrs. Margaret Keenan, aged 76 years and for many years employed in the carding department of the Hamilton mill, was found dead in bed at her home, 53 Summer street this forenoon. The woman had not worked for the past few days. Yesterday neighbors heard her moving about her home and this morning when they failed to hear any sound from her apartment, opened the door and found her dead in her bed. The body was viewed by Medical Examiner T. B. Smith, who stated that in his opinion death was due to natural causes. Deceased is believed to have relatives living in Fall River. The body was ordered removed to the funeral parlors of Undertakers M. H. McDonough & Sons.

TO CLEAR TITLE TO STOCK IN EMPIRE CIRCUIT

BOSTON, May 16.—Bank Commissioner Joseph C. Allen in the name of the Commonwealth Trust Co., today brought a bill in equity in the probate court against Max Mitchell, former president of the trust company, his wife, Ida P. Mitchell, Benjamin A. Prager, John C. Bliss, Jr., and Hugh Lester, to clear title to stock in the so-called Empire Circuit and other securities which Mr. Allen found when he took possession of the bank. These securities constitute a continuing interest in the Empire Circuit, which includes moving picture theatres in Portland, Me., Lowell, Amesbury, Newburyport, Waltham and Fall River, Mass., and Newport, R. I.
